DR. BRADY'S NEW NOVEL, "THE PATRIOTS."

Cyrus Townsend Brady's "The Patriots" is announced for a serial by The All-Story Magazine. The first installment will begin in the December issue, out November 1st. It will run until April. To quote the Doctor's letter on the subject, "This is the last serial story, long novel that is, that I shall write for some years."

It is along the lines of his previous novels of the Southland, but is beyond a doubt the most dramatic and thrilling story of the kind that has come from his pen since he has been in literature.

In the first installment of "The Patriots," Dr. Brady has written a description of the Battle of Gettysburg that will stand comparison with Victor Hugo's pen picture of Waterloo. It is of the sort that will thrill both North and South alike. The love story running through this serial is everything that a love story of that period should be; a love story that literally vibrates with telling situations and stirring moments.

Dr. Brady will be remembered as the author of "The Southerners," "A Little Traitor of the South," "The Daughters of the Confederacy," etc., etc.

Dr. Weaver's Syrup and Cerate. Successful treatment for blood and skin diseases.

A FAMILY SAFEGUARD

Dr. Green arranges with the Niece of Dr. Boschee to handle her famous Uncle's Great Throat and Lung Cure.

The best family safeguard is a reliable household medicine that will cure croup, coughs, colds, chilly sensations, running eyes and nose, sore throat and bronchial affections—that will keep the children proof against all contagious diseases.

Such a medicine is Boschee's German Syrup, which has a record of 35 years in the cure of consumption, catarrh and all lung and bronchial troubles.

The fame of German Syrup as a consumptive cure, since its purchase by Dr. Green from the niece of the famous Dr. Boschee, has extended to all parts of the earth. It has big sales everywhere.

Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists.

For sale by J. W. Gayle.

THE COMPANION AS A CHRISTMAS GIFT.

Can you think of a gift more certain to be acceptable than a year's subscription to The Youth's Companion? Is there any one, young or old, who, having once had the paper in his hands and looked through it, did not wish to possess it for his very own? It is a gift which, far from losing its freshness as Christmas recedes into the past, grows more delightful, more necessary to one's enjoyment week by week.

The boy likes it, for it reflects in its pages every boyish taste and every fine boyish aspiration. The father likes it, not only for its fiction, but for its fund of information of the practical sort. The girl likes it for the stories, anecdotes, sketches and editorial articles printed in each number especially for her. The mother likes it for its stories of domestic life and family affection, and its children's page and for its medical article.

On receipt of $1.75, the yearly subscription price, the publishers send to the new subscriber all the remaining issues of The Companion for 1905 and the "Minutemen" Calendar for 1906, lithographed in twelve colors and gold.

Full illustrated announcement of the new volume for 1906 will be sent with sample copies of the paper to any address free. THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, 144 Berkeley St., Boston, Mass.
