Calendar

AUGUST 1—

Mrs. Ida Quentell and Miss Irene Quentell will be the hostesses at the Country Club Saturday afternoon.

AUGUST 6—

The King's Daughters Circle of Steadmantown will entertain with an ice cream supper at the residence of Mrs. Ned Church, Thursday.

MARKS-SMITH ANNOUNCEMENT—

Friends here are in receipt of the announcement of the forthcoming marriage of Miss Elizabeth Marks, of Irvine, to Mr. H. R. Smith, of Versailles, which will be solemnized at the home of the bride-elect on Wednesday evening, September 9th. Miss Marks is a daughter of the late Mr. N. N. Marks, of Irvine, and is an attractive and highly accomplished young lady. Mr. Smith is the general passenger and freight agent of the Louisville & Atlantic Railroad at Versailles, and is quite well known and has many friends here who offer their congratulations.

OUTING PARTY ON DIX RIVER—

Mr. Arch R. Dunlap entertained with a delightful outing party at Mr. A. B. Robertson's bungalow on Dix river, in Boyle county, during the week, in compliment to Miss Rebecca Johnson, and her guest, Miss Elizabeth O'Hara, of San Francisco, Cal. Those who composed the party were: Misses Florie Rodman, Rebecca Johnson and Elizabeth O'Hara, and Messrs. J. S. Van Winkle, C. M. Fackler and A. R. Dunlap. During their stay several parties made up of young society people from Danville called upon them.

HOUSE PARTY AT WEST POINT—

Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Prewitt are delightfully entertaining a house party at their handsome country home near West Point in honor of their daughter, Miss Mildred Prewitt, and her guests, Miss Margaret Howard, of Frankfort, Miss Adelaide Strassel, of Louisville, Miss Julia Daughtry, of Atlanta, Ga., Miss Beatrice Berthlot, of New Orleans, La., and Messrs. Francis Hibberd, of Muldraugh, Irwin Catline, of Chicago, Ill., and Dr. H. D. Louse, of Louisville.

BRIDGE PARTY FOR MISS PETER—

Misses Henrietta and Lillian Poyntz entertained delightfully Tuesday evening with a bridge party at their home on Fourth street, in honor of Miss Letty Lee Peter, of Louisville. The reception hall and rooms were attractively decorated in cut flowers and a quantity of varied plants. The ladies' prize was won by Miss Peter, and the gentlemen's was awarded Mr. Carl Quentell. Following the game, the party repaired to the dining hall, where dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Letty Lee Peter, Irma Miller, Belle Schoofield, Elise Montgomery, Mason Montgomery, Elise Dandridge, Clint Cunningham and Lillian Poyntz. Messrs. Carl Quentell, John Taylor, Charles Dyer, William McFerran, Jordan Hoge, Gavin Morris, Charles Clayton and Lawrence Hager, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Schoofield and Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Poyntz.

MISS MARTIN AND PARTY ENTERTAINED AT ROME—

Miss Natalie Martin, of Frankfort, Miss Lillian Todd, of Louisville, Miss Elvira Dickson, of New Orleans, and Miss Sallie Troufant, of New Orleans, who sailed from New York on June 6 for a three months' stay in Europe, are having a more delightful time than the usual traveler on the continent has the good fortune to enjoy. They were granted a private audience with the Pope a few weeks ago, and were recently the guests of honor at a tea given by the noted sculptor, Sir Moses Ezekiel, in his studio in Rome.

Miss Todd was given a letter of introduction to the sculptor by her friend, Mr. Thomas Nelson Page, and she and the members of the party have been extended a number of social courtesies through Sir Moses Ezekiel.

His studio is in the ruins of the Baths of Diocletian, and he has his apartments adjoining his studio.

His collection of rare marbles, paintings and antiques is famous and he is a most gracious host. His dining room is on the loggia of the classic building.

At Sir Moses Ezekiel's afternoons the visitor meets the most distinguished people in Rome. Queen Margherita is one of his good friends and patrons, and she is a frequent visitor to his studio.

Among the guests at the tea given in honor of Miss Martin, Miss Todd, Miss Dickson and Miss Troufant, were Ms. J. Tandes, American Military Attache to Rome, and Mrs. Tandes.

When the guests of honor took their leave, their host presented them with bouquets of jessamine from the Pope's garden.

Miss Martin and the members of her party will return home early in September.

MEDICAL COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT—

Friends here were in receipt during the week of the following handsomely engraved invitations, with the Alpha Delta Chapter crest embossed in green and gold.

Alpha Delta Chapter, Phi Chi Fraternity, Louisville and Hospital Medical College.

Medical Department of the Central University of Kentucky, requests your presence at the Commencement Exercises

Thursday Afternoon, July Thirtieth, nineteen hundred and eight, at three o'clock.
