

THE BOURBON NEWS.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

VOL. I.

PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, MARCH, 21, 1882.

NO. 5.

PEACH TREES are in bloom.

Base fishermen are having fine sport on Licking river.

T. F. KEEFE will fize a fine new Artic soda fountain this week.

The four religious revivals here have seriously injured the liquor trade.

A few more pine knots and infidels had just as well tumble to the racket.

The prospects are favorable for the location of the K. C. Machine shops here.

THURSDAY was the first day in thirty-five years that Mose Chaplan hadn't sworn any.

Dogs have raided the flocks of sheep of Squire Richie, and Mr. Reynolds, on Plum Lick.

LEE HOUSTON, of Hooktown, has engaged his services with Shannon & Butler, butchers of this city.

SELLS BROTHERS circus and the New Orleans minstrels, are going to slip in on us between April showers.

The excursion train from Carlisle and Millersburg Sunday afternoon, was not crowded as was expected.

We call attention to the card of "Caliban," one of the best bred horses in Ky, the property of W. S. Buckner.

REMEMBER the public sale of Mr. John Gaper's most comfortable and improved house and lot, on Saturday, March 25th. m21-2t.

CRADDOCK now writes "Praise the Lord" on his bank checks. His next move will be to put it on all his envelopes and writing paper, like Bro. Barnes.

IKE TURNER was not hung at Lexington last Friday. A reprieve came by telegraph just as he was mounting the gallows, granting an appeal of his case.

HARRY JAMES says that kings may be happy, but if man wants to be made glorious, for twenty cents, call and taste some of Geo. Pugh's ten-years-old Bourbon.

Lots of good, christian men in this city are resisting the application of the sectarian lash, with so liberal a spirit as to commend them to much praise and admiration.

THE LOUISVILLE Democrat, in speaking of Mr. Barnes' meetings not being as successful as those at Louisville and Bowling Green, calls Paris the Gommart of Kentucky.

JAMES T. TALBOTT calls a meeting of the Millersburg, Indian Creek & Cynthia Turnpike, on the 2nd Saturday in April, at Colville, for election of officers, instead of the 2nd day, as noticed last week.

ALL tobacco raisers in Bourbon, are requested to call at this office and receive a present of some fine White Burly seed. We have $10 worth to give away, and the seed are warranted to be as pure and fine as any in the State.

OVER 1,200 persons crowded into the court-house Sunday afternoon and evening, to hear the great evangelist, and yet there were large numbers returned to their homes, on account of not getting standing room.

We have named our new and fast-running press, "Helen," because she is the most beautiful of her sex. We are beginning to understand her many little coquetish ways, and we will stop her little flirtations, by an all-vigilant eye and a never-ceasing love.

BOB METCALF will not handle the Howe Sewing Machine as announced a few days ago. The General Agent of the "New No. 8" Wheeler & Wilson would not hear to him leaving his first love and has employed him at a handsome stated salary, and as his preference was for that machine, of course he tumbled to the proposition. Look out for him now in all directions.

Our Millersburg correspondent did not do the K. C. road justice last Friday in the accusation regarding the distribution of rolling stock. C. L. Brown, Gen. Frt. and Passenger Agt. says: "The distribution of rolling stock, is a matter, which comes under the supervision of yard masters only, and in making up trains, or furnishing to different Agts., their supply of cars, they have no more idea where those cars go to than you have. The management of the road issue no instructions relative to kind of cars to be used on M. & L. division or main line. Our K. C. cars and foreign cars are used alike, on all the lines operated by us. We make no distinction. The first Mogul engine we bought was placed on M. & L. division and the balance of our engines now in use, are all of similar pattern and capacity."

GLISTENING GLEAMS

MADE RADIANT WITH THE LOVE OF A GOD THAT KNOWS NO HATE!

Notes Caught Falling from the Lips of the Rev. Geo. O. Barnes, the Kentucky Evangelist.

"Religion is a level-headed, sweet thing."

"God is not good, is the fundamental lie of the devil."

"The devil never told a bigger lie than when he taught his mother that God was not good."

"The seed of woman (the Son of God,) has got his heel on the head of the serpent, and will hold him there."

"The tree of Life and Knowledge has been transplanted in Paradise, and a world of sinners are invited to eat of it."

Mr. Barnes has made 35,000 converts in the five years of his evangelizing with his new old doctrine, as he calls it.

"Lots of people live like hogs, and die like hogs. That is Bob Ingersoll's doctrine. Come from nowhere, going nowhere."

Mrs. Lavina Hibler, widow of the late Elder Ben Ricketts, of the Christian church, was appointed last week by Mr. Barnes.

"Now don't you do that thing; if you do, mother won't love you, is as big a lie as a mother ever told a child," says Mr. Barnes.

The real Christian is like solid silver, but the mere professor is like plated ware for after you have rubbed it a little you get down to the baser metal.

Moody was a poor boot and shoe clerk when the power of God came over him, said Mr. Barnes, and the very back bone of his preaching is that Christ is coming very soon.

Mr. Barnes says he was a perfect infidel at the age of fifteen, because his mother taught him that God didn't love naughty boys. That's the god that Ingersoll is fighting to-day.

Amos Jameson says that Mr. Barnes is but merely advocating some of Alexander Campbell's doctrine, and that Mr. Barnes is not the deep prosecutor of thought that Campbell was.

Elder Sweeney now says that he does not oppose his members going to hear Mr. Barnes, and that they can get oiled as much as they please—it may do them some good that he can't.

"The devil is a rail-splitter, and he has a big maul. All he wants with a christian is to just get his wedge set in a very small crevice, and then he will split fundamental doctrines to suit himself."

Sunday morning Mr. Barnes said that Adam and Eve were commanded to eat of all the fruits of the Garden of Eden, and it was not the eating thereof that damned them, but it was a rejected Grace.

Mr. Barnes says "the Bible from Genesis to Revelation does not raise the question of sin against a sinner. If that is so, I'll agree for the citizens of Paris to tar and feather me and ride me out of town on a rail!"

"I'm the happiest man on earth," said Mr. Barnes Saturday night, "yet the more I learn about the unutterable meanness and narrowness of the sectarian world, the more I sorrow, and hate the devil for deceiving the people."

The backbone of the Gospel, according to Mr. Barnes' conception, is, that the entire debt of sin in the past and all time to come, was paid with Christ's life and blood 1,900 years ago, and God has no right to collect that debt twice.

Mr. Barnes said Sunday night, that Bob Ingersoll, who is one of the best men in the world, will be sure to go to hell, because he don't believe in Christ, while many dirty, drunken scoundrels who do believe in Him, will go to Heaven.

"That infernal intruder came into the Garden of Eden through invitation not of God, but of Adam. When Adam stepped out in the darkness, in he came. Darkness belongs to the devil and wild animals, and they flee from the light."

In Mr. Barnes' sermon Sunday morning he referred to Judge Beckner's compliment, "I love the man, but think lightly of his doctrine," and said he wanted no man to love him and think lightly of his doctrine, but would rather a man would hate him and love his doctrine.

Sunday morning Mr. Barnes said Universalism is connected with cowardice, for all Universalists ought to be the first to come forward and acknowledge Jesus. He was referring to popular Universalism—not the finale restoration after life. He said that was a sweet thought that he knew nothing of, but thought well of it.

"You may count this another phase of lunacy, or call it a crank as much as you please, my friends, but I verily believe that Christ will be here before five years," said Mr. Barnes in his sermon Saturday night, and after making the assertion, proceeded to furnish all the necessary Biblical proof to sustain him. He also gave the names of the great revivalists, (of whom he rated himself the smallest and most insignificant,) Moody, Whittle, Bliss, Varley and others—some of whom had converted 150,000 persons, all advocated the coming of Jesus in the near future. Mr. Barnes said that he did not pretend to name the year, day, or hour, but put five years as the outside limit. The speaker also spoke of an English nobleman who was revolutionizing all of Northern Europe with this new doctrine of "Faith Cure," and the early coming of Christ, and referring to Varley's half million of converts, said that he was proud to be numbered among those great evangelists, though he was least of them all.

SOCIETY SCINTILLATIONS.

Gambetta will try running a newspaper.

Bright Eyes is trying to convert Sitting Bull.

Princess Beatrice owns $20,000 worth of lace.

A. T. Stewart would never sit for a photograph.

Moody and Sankey are making a tour of Scotland.

Du Chailu is a perfect mimic of the cries of animals.

Longfellow has in his time declined three embassies.

Mark Twain has been refused by a Canadian copyist.

Gen. Butler is said to have bought the entire Sprague estate.

Big sunflowers are going to have a regular boom this Spring.

John Bright still continues so, though he has turned seventy.

Mrs. Garfield objects to the sale of photographs of her children.

Josh Billings never wrote a line for the public eye till he was 45.

Editor Munnell, of the Louisville Democrat, paid the News a call yesterday.

Sixty-eight more children joined the Barnes movement Sunday afternoon.

Lincoln county has a man named Gander. The girl that marries him will cerbe a goose.

There are a good many christians in this section, who are not quite ready for Christ's coming so soon.

The aesthetic expression in Richmond is, "Look to your sunflower," instead of "look to your laurels."

It was Artemus Ward who suggested the lecture field to Olive Logan.

Gerome, the painter, is ethereally slender, and has piercing dark eyes.

Keene, the millionaire, got his start selling stationery in San Francisco.

The Rev. Ed. Guerrant has gone to Grayson, Carter county, to evangelize.

About fifty persons from Millersburg attended the great revival here Sunday.

Miss Mollie Tully has gone to the city to make Spring purchases of millinery goods.

Dark straw hats, with gloves and hosiery to match, are announced for next summer.

The author of "Helen's Babies" has a new book in press, entitled "Mrs. Mayburn's Twins."

Grant's eye-sight, it is said, is failing. Now let's give him another whack at the U. S. Treasury.

There has been 196 converts, and 15 announcements at the Barnes revival up to last night.

It is loudly whispered that a well-known tobacco merchant of Covington, will soon wed a Millersburg lady.

Editor Munnell, of the Louisville Democrat, came up here Saturday to hear more of Mr. Barnes' preaching.

Mrs. J. C. Meinger, of Lexington, will visit this city in the near future, to give a musical recital of classic and modern music.

Some of our frail-built young men are wearing their pants so tight and coats so short that they very much resemble kill-dees with their tails pulled out.

"Who took the bankrupt law on the devil last night?" asked a man whom we met the other morning, while referring to the Barnes converts.

The Spring style of hats for the fast young men are like soup spoons with the handles broken off, and they give the wearer an ignorant, outlandish look.

AFTER this big revival is over, we are going put in more time on the News editorially, and will publish it strictly for the benefit of those now living here on earth.

Gossip is a very vulgar thing, we know, but many high-toned and educated people revel in it, and find small talk the sweetest enjoyment of life.

Amos Jameson says that he met with but three men in Paris Saturday that were not crazy. They were Will Myall, Harry Brent and the Bourbon News man.

The lily and sunflower, as waist flowers, are positive of receiving attention this season, and will doubtless figure generously all summer in the world of dress.

Were we to publish the arrivals and departures of all the young ladies who visit our city, our paper would be filled, and yet those who pay for the news would get none.

It has been discovered that draw-poker is a disease, and nothing but financial ruin will cure it—and even that won't work where a lot of chips may be scraped up.

The man who blows out the gas still continues to die with praiseworthy indifference to public opinion. Every hotel should post up a conspicuous notice over its gasaliers: "Turn the gas completely off, or you are a dead man." It is necessary to talk plainly to idiots.

The Trader, Turfman, Farmer and Sportsman.

A little advertisement in this column found Will Taylor's stolen mare one day last week.

Mr. Alexander, of Woodford, has lost a shorthorn cow that sold for $27,000 a few years ago.

A Harrodsburg pointer pup took the first prize at a recent dog show at Pittsburg, Pa.

John K. Judy, near Millersburg has about 12,000 pounds of good leaf tobacco for sale. St.

Hemp Seed.

Pure Helm and Buford Hemp Seed, for sale, by T. I. BRENT. mar17may1.

Ben Ingles, of Oakland Mills, Nicholas county, says that there has been a large crop of winter-raised tobacco in Nicholas—raised by the fire-sides.

O. S. Moore, of this precinct, sold his tobacco last week in Cincinnati, at about 13 1/2 cents a pound all around. One hog-head of select leaf brought 2 1/2 cents. It was selected by his daughter, who is only 14 years of age—which proves that the female eye is superior to the male, in discriminating both color and texture.

THERE are a few small boys in the gallery of the Court House every night who ought to have their heads held under a window sash at home, and be labored with until a big dust is raised from their pants, for being so heathenish as to collect there to talk and throw peanut shells during the religious services. We are satisfied that their parents don't know of their conduct.

City Election 1882.

At a meeting of the Democratic City Executive Committee held this day, it was, on motion,
