ANNOUNCEMENT.
 We are authorized to announce Dan. Bowden, of the Headquarters precinct, a candidate for Assessor of Nicholas County—subject to the action of the Democracy in Primary Election.

Wm. O. Hite is a candidate for Councilman of the 2nd Ward, subject to action of the Primary Election, Mar. 28th.

The Atlanta Constitution says that the object of Wm. A. Wheeler's visit to Florida, was to view the remains of a returning board.

If war is averted between the powers of Europe it will only be through the skillful diplomacy of the rulers. The people themselves are red-hot for a fight.

A BABY has been born over at Stanford, with a full set of bangs hanging down over its eyes. Its mother says it bangs the old "Nick" or any of his deluded followers.

A RECENTLY divorced couple over at Stanford have buried the bloody hatchet and tongs, and have agreed to bridle their tongues and get married again.

ALTHOUGH the Mississippi once more rivals the Amazon in its breadth of waters, its grandeur is built upon ruined homes and its waves roll over miles upon miles of devastated farms.

A BILL has passed both houses of Congress, restricting Chinese immigration for twenty years. It will become a law just as soon as the President signs it, and it appears quite probable that he will sign it immediately.

A WRITER with the non de plume of "Rusticus," has written an article in the Lexington News, advocating the tearing away of the levees on the Mississippi river and filling up millions of acres of swamp lands with the sediment of the river, as a preventative against overflows.

This certainly is a very plausible idea, but the Southern people cannot afford to wait one hundred and fifty centuries for the filling-up to take place, like the inhabitants along the Nile have been doing. If the United States government would only take the levees in charge and keep them in good repair, instead of lavishing so much wealth on old Grant and a few other old superannuated cusses, thousands of sad hearts could be made happy. It should be the mission of this, as well as all other governments to make all its subjects prosperous and happy—not a few.

If Mr. Barnes wants to spin theology around like a top and tumble it over among the things of the bitter and unmerciful past, all he has to do is to strike Cincinnati, Philadelphia, New York, Chicago, and St. Louis, turn loose his overpowering batteries of Gospel of love two weeks at each place—then the small-fry cities will melt like snowflakes before the rays of a July sun. Practically speaking, Kentuckians are dead to liberty of thought, and are at least fifty years behind the gigantic North, East and West in their onward and upward struggle of living on a higher plain of life here on earth. We beg to intrude a "cranky" thought (all the same that Morse did when speaking of the electric future), that ere ten years the theological world will all center their last vestiges of hope on a God of Love, as viewed from the Barnes standpoint! Almost all sane persons who accept the premises upon which Barnes bases his doctrine, lavishes his every hope and his never tiring zeal, are amazed as well as infatuated with the great truths which are being daily and nightly unearthed with eloquent simplicity, like ruined Pompeii from its lava-covered grave of centuries.

The Great Evangelist.

THE great Barnes revival in our city is drawing to a close. When the great evangelist first came in to our midst, he was followed around by the different sects and the outsiders at large, as a drove of mules would gather around a wild beast or strange cur, filled with morbid curiosity, and eager to look upon the great What-is-it, ready to sneer, snort and paw, kick and scorn. The man of God at once unbosomed an ocean of love such as was shed abroad in the hearts of men by the true and living Christ only, and with an arsenal of true Gospel facts delved from the graves of dark centuries, succeeded in riveting the undivided attention of one thousand of our representative citizens of all classes for near three weeks, and has added to the cause of Christ 449 souls in round numbers, plucked from all classes of society and all professions, including many deep thinking men, and well-known skeptics and infidels—such as were heretofore irreproachable on the gospel theme. If therefore cannot be truly said of this wonderful man of many advanced (or retrograded, if you choose the term), ideas, is a "crank," and that he has not been productive of more good than two dozen ordinary preachers in the same time, anywhere in the bluegrass region. The man who is deaf to the thunder tones of the public opinion which now so strongly supports Mr. Barnes, will inevitably be buried beneath its weight, to be resurrected no more, except it be in some strange land where his shallow, narrow-grooved opinion has not preceded him.

ANOTHER half million dollars fire has struck Richmond, Va., and the bridge crossing James river and several large mills and manufactures have been destroyed.

It is estimated that 585,000 acres of cotton lands in Mississippi, Louisiana and Arkansas are under water.

Millersburg Department.

June Sunday races will be well attended.

The Baptist protracted meeting cometh on a pace.

J. G. Allen and J. G. Smedley have returned from their New York purchasing tour.

It is to be hoped that Mrs. Meinger will bring the festive M. M. with her when she comes to Paris.

Henry Vimont and H. H. Hunt started to-day for Colorado. The former will locate in Leadville and the latter in Denver.

Mike Thorton has received an invoice of some of the prettiest and most durable buggies ever brought here.

Miss Eddie Tipton has returned to her home in Mt. Sterling after a pleasant visit to her cousin Miss Brownie Thompson.

A tony beer garden or even a respectable park, in this precinct would be a profitable investment for some moneyed sinner.

News was received here that Dr. H. A. M. Henderson has just passed through a severe sick spell at his home in Hannibal, Mo.

"Its damp," said a young lady to a gentleman Sunday night. "Yes got damp quick" he replied and wondered what the girl was mad about.

A neighboring toll-gate keeper reasons that if a dime with a hole in it is worth five cents, a dime with two holes in it must be worth ten cents.

Mrs. Ann Wallace and daughter Annie, have signified their intention of moving back from Missouri this Spring, to their old home here.

Col. W. W. Baldwin, of Mason county, has sold the matched sorrel steppers, bought from Dr. Hurst, of this place two years ago, for a star-gazing price.

The blood which flowed from poor John Hensley when he received that fatal fall, still stains the ground and railroad ties, in spite of the recent rains.

A. C. Corrington has returned to the 'Burg, bringing with him his charming little wife. Everyone bids them welcome and would be happy to have them remain for all time.

Brother Barnes' stag gathering caught many from this place.

The members of the Broadway Methodist church will complete the cupola on their building and swing a big bell in it, as soon as the weather will permit.

Two young women—names withheld because the parties are not decent—had a fist and skull exhibition a few nights since, over the possession of a young man. False hair and bought blushes were slapped and scratched unmercifully.

It is all a mistake to suppose that Paris merchants sell cheaper or better goods than those in Millersburg. People have been led to think so by the display advertisements of the Parisians, but a comparison of prices and qualities will result in a verdict favorable to home tradesmen.

It is claimed by the friends of N. A. Jameson that Rev. Morris Evans will be indebted to him for whatever of fame of finance he may reap from his recent publication. Mr. Jameson, being somewhat liberal in his views, used to have frequent discussions with the Reverend, and always advocated the very idea now given to the world in book form. If the book withstands the attacks which usually greet such publications Mr. Jameson can take his place as a pioneer in the great fields of truth.

Those who are writing for papers from this place should bear in mind that their pointless jokes about "deserted streets and miserable pavements" are calculated to do the city a deal of damage, while they do not increase the population or lay one brick in a mud hole. Other cities have poor sidewalks and equally as much mud as Millersburg but the remarks of a friendly press keep strangers in blissful ignorance of the fact. If men here were not generous, and willing to slight small injuries, they would not subscribe for a paper which is constantly abusing the place.

Uncle Sam Jobe, the pugnacious colored individual, has been gathered to his Father's. Uncle Sam has had more fights in his time than Craddock has had free lunches. He was known and feared by all the colored men in this neck of timber. Generosity was his chief characteristic; if his fellowman smote him upon one cheek he would immediately turn and strike his fellow man on both cheeks at the same time kindly break his ribs. He had great faith in his oath and never ended a sentence without one. He believed in hanging and the man he could not hang up for a drink never lived. Being a spiritualist, he kept a bottle full with him. He was very ambitious and unless a mighty big man runs the regions where Uncle Sam has gone, he will soon be boss of the place.

The semi-weekly Bourbon News is as lively as a cricket, gay as a lark, and as full of real old-fashioned "horse sense" as an egg is of meat. —[Wallace Gruelle.

WE STOP THE PRESS TO SAY:

Walter McCann admonished us that he would stop his subscription if we published that he joined the Barnes movement, so we desist.

Up to this morning, there have been 49 confessions, and 104 anointments, in the great revival. Mr. Barnes informs the News that he will close here tomorrow.

Mrs. Belle Smoot couldn't get to ride in the palace cars of the K. C. road, but she took passage on the double-decked gilt-edge coach for Paradise with the great Barnes crew.

DIED—In this city, March 26th. at the residence of his aunt, Miss E. Hickman, Robt. T. Davis, eldest son of the late R. T. Davis. His remains were escorted to the cemetery by Peabody Lodge of Knights of Pythias, headed by the Lexington brass band.

In speaking of bad husbands, Mr. Barnes said, "I used to be one myself, but my wife was too good to tell on me. Now I want at least fifty bad husbands in this audience to go home and kiss their poor old wrinkled and disappointed wives, and make their old hearts glad with joy. Some of them have no false teeth, and have crows' feet around their eyes, but, my friends, go home and kiss the old woman—kiss her, kiss her! She won't whine and say, 'now quit that George, you're so naughty.'"

On Sunday night there were forty-six converts to the Barnes faith, of whom we note the following: J. W. Ferguson, Dr. John Ray, Jno. Harmon, Mr. Turner, John Edwards, Robt. Ferguson, John Thomas, Ed. Caldwell, Green Clay, Crawford Jackson, Dr. Noah Moore, and Chas. Throckmorton.

Among those who joined the Barnes meeting last night, are: Dr. Ed. Ray, Frank Armstrong, Joe Wilson, B. Frank Davis, Felix Lowry and wife, C. A. Croxton, Tom Richardson, Jr., Ed. Hutchinson, and others, making twenty-two confessions, and six anointments—five whites and one "coon."

One of those jug-shaped percussion non-cussing Barnes shells, came crashing through the News office last night and knocked our chief typo, J. Talbot Pryor out of ranks, but the wicked boss of the shebang immediately closed up the gap and took a position where the shell struck, having learned by experience that no gunner can strike the same spot twice in a million of shots.

Millinery Goods.

I would respectfully announce to the public, that I am now in receipt of a very select stock of SPRING MILLINERY Goods, and am prepared to supply the wants of the most fastidious in anything pertaining to that line of business. My shop being in my residence on High street, will enable me to deduct a large per cent. from prices, saved from paying extravagant rents on a more public thoroughfare.

I would be pleased to have all the ladies call.

Respectfully
 Mrs. L. V. FOOTE,

IT IS A RATTLER!

In these United States of America there is one, and only one, enterprising Newspaper, "Published for the People Now on Earth," which prints the news entirely from everywhere, regardless of who it hurts or who it benefits. This is saying a great deal but it is the truth. The name of the Paper is

Cathartic Pills

Combine the choicest cathartic principles in medicine, in proportions accurately adjusted to secure activity, certainty, and uniformity of effect. They are the result of years of careful study and practical experiment, and are the most effectual remedy yet discovered for diseases caused by derangement of the stomach, liver, and bowels, which require prompt and effectual treatment. AYER'S PILLS are specially applicable to this class of diseases. They act directly on the digestive and assimilative processes, and restore regular healthy action. Their extensive use by physicians in their practice, and by all civilized nations, is one of the many proofs of their value as a safe, sure, and perfectly reliable purgative medicine. Being compounded of the concentrated virtues of purely vegetable substances, they are positively free from calomel or any injurious properties, and can be administered to children with perfect safety.

AYER'S PILLS are an effectual cure for Constipation or Costiveness, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Foul Stomach and Breath, Dizziness, Headache, Loss of Memory, Numbness, Biliousness, Jaundice, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Dropsy, Tumors, Worms, Neuralgia, Colic, Gripes, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Gout, Piles, Disorders of the Liver, and all other diseases resulting from a disordered state of the digestive apparatus.

As a Dinner Pill they have no equal.

While gentle in their action, these PILLS are the most thorough and searching cathartic that can be employed, and never give pain unless the bowels are inflamed, and then their influence is healing. They stimulate the appetite and digestive organs; they operate to purify and enrich the blood, and impart renewed health and vigor to the whole system.
