

THE BOURBON NEWS.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

VOL. I.

PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY: TUESDAY, MAY, 9, 1882.

NO. 19.

NEWTON and Nath Bayless have bought the Abbott grocery.

HAIL-STONES nine inches in circumference, fell at Midway Friday afternoon.

GREEN R. KELLER, of this city, is on the lookout for a newspaper location.

THERE has been a strike among the printers of the Transylvania company at Lexington.

THE fast express train from Covington to Newport News will be put on the road about the 13th.

Six pairs of four-ply gents' linen cuffs for $1, at ———. (Firm name inserted here next week for 25 cents.)

FLEMINGBURG's lamp posts have been whitewashed, to prevent people from running against them of dark nights.

FARMERS will find information in the stock column of this issue, which will profit them more than a year's subscription to this paper.

OUR coal dealers are offering to put the best Kentucky semi-cannel coal in cellars here the coming summer, at 15 cents per bushel.

THE Limestone Mills, at Maysville, were sold at public sale Tuesday, Pearce Brothers being the purchasers at $30,000.

THE house recently sold by John Caldwell to Jas. Thompson, near Weston, Nicholas county, burned down Thursday morning.

JOHN HENDRICKS, architect and contractor, is erecting a fine residence on the Jake Keller farm, in the Centerville precinct for Henry Isgrigg.

THE stock of green groceries of L. Abbott, were attached and the house closed last Friday, by the sheriff, in behalf of a Cincinnati grocery firm.

MRS. GEO. TALBOT, of Cynthiana, was violently thrown from a buggy which was being drawn by a runaway horse, and her leg broken Thursday.

TOM SAMMONS, marshal of Carlisle, took Jim KNOX, who has been recently declared insane, to the Asylum at Lexington, last Friday.

THE price of minnows having fallen from 15 to 5 cents per dozen, the poor can now fish with that same arrogant, elegant and luxurious air of a preacher, lawyer or book agent.

THE jury hung in the case of Perry Rice vs. the M. & L. turnpike, wherein the plaintiff sued for $25,000 for the loss of an eye, by running into a thorn bush.

LIGHTNING scared a farm mare that was hitched to Will Taylor's rockaway last Thursday, and she ran away and manufactured a big lot of tooth-picks of the vehicle.

R. B. MARSH, manager of the Lexington Opera House, was in our city yesterday, and engaged Odd Fellows Hall for John T. Raymond, in "Mulberry Sellers," during our fair.

THERE has been a large amount of stealing going on throughout the country lately. The skin of a steer was recently found in a hemp shock on Clay Hutchcraft's farm—one of his steers having been missing for some time. Mrs. Mary Redmen's granary has been recently robbed, and several meat-houses have recently been burglarized. It seems that the farmers will have to enforce the old patrol system for self protection.

A MARE 38 years old, at Morning Glory, Nicholas county, has given birth to an able-bodied Spring mule. The rural reporter of the Carlisle Mercury exhibited a great lack of enterprise in not stating that the mare's father remember George Washington, and the mule's grandfather broke up a battery for Lafayette, or that even the mare could read the finest print without spectacles, or thread a cambric needle at arm's length by moonlight.

MR. BARNES has opened up a glory stand over at Versailles, and has asked for a fair and impartial hearing. Versailles is situated in the very garden spot of the world, and the people are light-toned and intelligent, but have a weakness for horse flesh. If Mr. Barnes will only take advantage of this "pointer," and will harmonize horse-racing with religion, he will have to employ a deputy confession receiver.

PROF. W. H. LOCKHART, of this city, has accepted the agency of Chattanooga Mutual Aid Association, for the benefit of forming matrimonial alliances. By the payment of $6 and obtaining a certificate of membership, the holder is entitled to draw $3,000 on getting married, provided that he marries within three years. This premium is made up from assessments, same as death assessments in life associations. Here is a good chance now to win two grand prizes, without dying until after you get them.

YOUNG men contemplating and desiring to take out a policy of $1,000 to $3,000 in the Nuptial Association, can learn all the particulars by calling at this office, or, at Davis & Lyle's drug store.

RACINE, Wisconsin, has had a $13,000,000 fire, the court-house at Allegheny City, Pa., valued at $150,000 also burned, and Jesse James' ghost has blown up a portion of Northfield, Minnesota, with infernal machines.

A HOME FREE.—To the person sending us the largest list of TRIAL subscribers before Sept. 1, 1882, we will give, absolutely FREE, a home in Texas of 80 acres of land; 2d largest, 40 acres. OUR SUNNY SOUTH is a large 8 page, 40 column illustrated paper for Home and Farm, and is sent on trial to new subscribers 3 months for only 10 cents in silver. Tells all about TEXAS. Make up a club and send money by registered letter to OUR SUNNY SOUTH, Brownwood, Texas.

SOCIETY SCINTILLATIONS.

Ribbons are again fashionable for neck wear.

White camel's hair is much used for tea gowns.

Lace is worn with everything, and on everything.

Broaded China crepe appears among late novelties.

It is fashionable to tie the necktie ribbon on one side.

This is the month for chenille mantles, lined with silk or satin.

Friday was a mud-splashing day at the Lexington races.

Rev. Joseph M. Evans, the evangelist, has moved into the city.

It is a most degrading nature that will betray an honorable confidence.

A $4,000 well is being bored at the Cincinnati Southern depot, at Lexington.

Brooks, the druggist, beautifully frescoed his face with hide-scalding acid the other day.

The hair, to be fashionably dressed, must fall low on the neck and also on the brow.

The dogma of fashion for hats and bonnets this spring is: Wear what you please, so that it is becoming.

The colors for neck ribbons are terra cotta, aurora pink, porcelain blue, mahogany, ruby and cardinal red.

A colored preacher with a coon skin cap and a linen duster on, was one of the novel sights at our depot Saturday.

Dressmakers exercise their ingenuity this season in the creation of all sorts of trimmings for the bottom of the skirts of dresses.

John Stoker's Barnes religion has given him consent to keep his chicken gaffs, and he thinks of soon cutting the rust off of them.

Fat girls appear to be in demand all over the county this spring, since Vennor has said we will have a cold wet summer.

A rich girl who marries a poor young man will name her first baby for one of her parents, even if it causes a family discussion.

There is paper at Denver called "The Hello," and an amateur sheet just across the street, announced "Oh Hell," as it's title.

"Doc" Weatherby has opened up from a melancholy reverie, and given forth—"Harry James caught Jesse—during circuit court."

It is the fashion now in London for bridesmaids to have brilliantly colored dresses in contrast with the bride's white.

A fellow named Musick, in the Maysville jail, tried to soothe the breasts of his fellow-prisoners by scaling the walls and making his escape.

Pretty women who can take on flattery are very few, and are generally found in insane asylums.

The marriage of Miss Lizzie Buckner, of Versailles, takes place to-day at 11 a. m., at the residence of the brides father.

Misses Lide Atkinson and Linda Chinn, of Flemingburg, are two good looking and entertaining guests of Mrs. Woodson Morgan.

The long plain skirt of some rich, heavy stuff, with a box plaited ruche at the bottom, worn with a panier bodice, gains ground every day.

Kentucky University, of Lexington, will turn out nine graduates in June—six from the Bible College, and three from the College of Art.

Red and lilac tulle veils are worn by peculiar women in Cincinnati. They become the complexion and eyes, but make the wearer look shockingly conspicuous.

Give a man three drinks of Bourbon glory juice and a good string band, and his savage breast will soften to the extent of forgiving the vilest sinner out of Congress.

If common sense has not the brilliancy of the sun, it has the fixity of the stars.

A lady correspondent from a seashore watering place, says, "A girl who wears black stockings is decidedly wicked or so old that she knows that her legs are not of interest to an observing public."

Died.—Suddenly, on the 1st inst., of paralysis, at the residence of Levi Goff, Elias Curry. The Kentuckian Supplement of Saturday, stated that it was Levi Goff who died, which was quite a mistake.

An extra fine pair of calves attracted attention among stock men at Carlisle Monday—it being court-day. There was very little other stock on the market, but the public square was literally filled with machinery.

Joseph M. Jones was called to Louisville Saturday, by a dispatch that his wife was dangerously ill. Mrs. Col. Stoner has since received a dispatch from Mr. Jones stating that his wife was out of danger, and would recover.

Eastern ladies are trimming their dresses with gold dollars for buttons, monograms of young gentlemen donors being engraved on each button. Our Paris boys will no doubt discourage this fashion, should the attempt be made to start it here.

Carlisle dress-makers are grumbled at for charging six dollars for making the finest dresses, and Paris dress-makers are grumbled at for charging ten dollars for the same expensive work that they used to get fifteen dollars for.

There was a hop at the Bourbon House just a little before day, last Thursday night. Fashion will soon demand that these little bright spots on the happy, kicking side of life, shall be held from just a little before breakfast until dinner.

Major John Flowers made a princely appearance on our streets Sunday, in full suit of ministerial cloth, and his hands canvased in fleeco-lined kid gloves. He thinks of joining Lockhart's Mutual Matrimonial Aid Society, suggests a friend who professes to know.

The Vaneburg Courier says that a Cincinnati Enquirer reporter was carried up in the cyclone that recently swept over Lewis county, and staid with it just to report the damage of the storm. The first cyclone that passes here going out of civilization, we will toss in the cake, labeled "H. McKay, Vaneburg, Kentucky."

The News called in at the Lexington Female College last Friday, and was kindly greeted by Mrs. Tarrant, the Principal, Mrs. Meininger, Miss Jennie Vimont, Mrs. L. C. Vimont, Miss Mollie Mast, and several other familiar faces. Mrs. Tarrant is very happily situated, with a nice little school at present, and a bright prospect for the fall terms.

'Tis sweet on a winter's night at home to sit by the fire and taper; but ah! it is a wiser thing by far to read our paper. The joys of earth are little worth, unless you take our paper. Maidens, wanting lovers true, you must take our paper. Swains who would not idle woo, you must take our paper. Love's joys below you'll never know unless you take our paper. Rip-society-bomb, ram-kankity-boo, take our paper.

Eld. John S. Sweeney preached a very logical sermon Sunday morning, the gist of which was the equalization or balancing position of man between the physical and spiritual type—i. e., one should not be cultivated and cared for to the extreme or willful neglect of the other. At the close of the sermon, Barnes' favorite hymn, "Where he leads, I will follow," was sung with a spirited animation. After the ministrations of the Lord's supper, the minister announced that inasmuch as the words of that soul-charming song had been so constantly the theme of his thoughts, and the music of which had lingered in his ears by day and night, he thought that the Lord had called on him to preach a sermon on those celebrated words—therefore, he announced that "Where He Leads, I will Follow," will be his theme for next Sunday morning.

The Trader, Turfman, Farmer and Sportsman.

Pope Leo, Freeland, and Hegias were the winners at Lexington Friday.

Bets are being made of $15 to $1, on Fosteral, as the favorite in the Derby at Louisville.

Bruce Johnson, of the Carlisle precinct, has finished setting out his large crop of tobacco.

At Lexington Saturday, Lucy May won the first race 1 1/4 mile dash, over ten others, in 2:07.

L. Ashurst returned last Friday from New Orleans, and reports dull mule market, but better crops were made than last year.

Tobacco plants look well, and are quite forward. Canvassed beds are doing exceedingly well.

The first new wheat of the crop of 1882 was a lot of 100 sacks received at St. Louis, Mo., on April 29th. It was raised in Johnson county, Arkansas, and sold at $4.50 per bushel.

Fosterel, bay colt, three-year-old, by Foster, dam Minnie T. Morgan, has been sold for $5,000 to A. J. Scott (colored), of Chicago, who, together with Colonel Bob Harlan, purchased Panster and Violator.

How vascillating and flipity-dop are the wings of fortune. Col. D. McDaniel, the former owner of the great racer, Harry Bassett, was in attendance of the Lexington races, in the capacity of trainer for McLeod's small stable of three racers.

Mr. Becker, of Cincinnati, sold his large purchase of cattle recently bought from Bruce & Gentry, at White's distillery pens, to Lehman, of Baltimore, at a considerable advance of $6, the purchase price, and 17 car loads of them were shipped from here over the C. & O. route Friday. Ninety-six head more will be shipped this week. Although Mr. Becker made a fair profit on his sale, he says that if he had held on ten days longer he would have made a much better profit. Here's a "pointer" for cattle men which was unwittingly dropped before the News, which is always on the alert.

W. H. Thomas sold 150 sloop fed hogs last week, to Becker, of Cincinnati, for $8.75 per hundred. Farmers having fat hogs, lambs, and beeves, would do well to note the fact that the markets are all on the upward tendency, and bid fair to keep on climbing until the late grazing fatlings are put on the market. Beef cattle in the market are very firm and in great demand, in consequence of the drouth cutting short the crops in the South and West. Fine roasts of beef will, it is prophesied, retail at from 20 to 22 cents per pound before June.

Millersburg Items.

John Sullivan, a prominent tobacco merchant of Covington, was up Sunday, paying his attentions to Miss Kate McClelland.

A petition has been signed by most of our citizens, asking the retention of L. C. Vimont as station agent.

The young gentlemen of the town and precinct are making grand preparations for their Annual Commencement Hop.

Thieves stole twenty-five pieces of bacon from the meat-house of Joseph McClelland Saturday night. Constable Savage arrested Charlie Anderson, of this precinct, and Richmond Johnson, of Paris, Saturday afternoon, and jailed them on good grounds of having done the deed.

The rendition of Damon and Pythias last night at Millersburg, was so well received, that it will be repeated Saturday night.
