Righteous men sometimes go in, while politicians tarry; The Convention illustrated this, when Dick Reid beat "Old Harry."

We are happy to add the name of Judge Reid to the ticket.

In absence of the Legislature, Barnes has tackled the next worse thing—the penitentiary, down at Frankfort. Almost all of the convicts have "confessed their dear savior," and are going to "serve Him as best they can"—under the circumstances.

The colored men of the State met in convention at Lexington Wednesday and Thursday, and recommended a State organization in behalf of the rights political, civil, judicial, and educational, of the colored race. They were opposed to the endorsement of Jacob, the sore-head Democrat, and repudiated his claims in the strongest terms.

When Bourbon county was called upon to vote a tax for the Frankfort, Georgetown, Paris, and Atlantic Coast Railroad, we set it down as a black-mailing swindle, to sell out the charter of the Kentucky Central. As the road was to have been completed within one year to Paris, and as no steps have been taken to stick in a pick, our predictions will probably be verified.

Jesus is recorded as having wept when Lazarus died—the only instance on record of his weeping. Were He upon earth to-day, He would have an opportunity to shed millions of tears per day. A poor, unfortunate woman and two children got off the train here the other day, because they had no money, and were on their way to their home and friends in Indiana. Tom Bashford, a saloon keeper, who has a heart in sympathy with suffering humanity, tackled several of our worthiest christian patriachs for the contribution of a mite, who turned a deaf ear, but the "gamblers and black legs" were not appealed to in vain, and a handsome little purse was garnered for the poor unfortunates.

Superior Court Convention.

The convention at Lexington Wednesday, for the nomination of a Democratic candidate for Judge of the Superior Court of this district, was called to order by the Hon. W. J. Hendricks, of Fleming county. The Hon. Quincy Ward, of Harrison county, was chosen temporary chairman, over O. B. Hallam, of Owen county, after a stormy little call of the votes of the various counties, wherein there were frequent interruptions by Mr. Derrickson, from Powell county, and others over credentials and of proxies of counties not represented. After the organization, the fact being developed that Richard Reid would be overwhelming-nominated on the first ballot, ex-Governor Stevenson withdrew the name of Judge O'Harra, and moved the nomination of Judge Reid be made unanimous, which motion prevailed amid a thunder of applause.

The Chair appointed Messrs. W. C. P. Breckinridge, Jerry Lillard, Keene Pritchard a committee to notify Mr. Reid of his nomination, but the convention adjourned before the Judge appeared.

Carlisle Items.

The biographies are being delivered.

John Blair wants to sell a good new history.

The old settlers held their 12th annual meeting here to-day.

Gilead Evans, of this county, is 88 years old and weighs 90 pounds.

Candidates for Congress are taking us. The candidates and army worms! Oh, Lord!

Sneak thieves pulled 500 six weeks-set-out potato plants out of Nathan Young's garden.

The afternoon train arrives here at 2.02. How aesthet—bang! Funeral tickets nicely printed at this office.

The new history should have held out a few days, and recorded the grandest epoch in Walter Potts' life.

Miss Linda Chinn has been employed as teacher in the Carlisle Academy, in the department of English Literature.

Those of our county who are not readers of the News are acting "green" and praising those "buy-obligations" Subscribe for the News.

The history men played on Col Rube Mann with a regular book agent tenacity for a picture. They first demanded $90, then $40 and finally fell to $30.

Jothan Johnson, who was taken to the Lexington Insane Asylum a few days ago, was brought home a corpse Tuesday, having died Sunday night.

Geo. Sibert, of Oakland Mills, has opened a manufactory for grain cradles at that place, and is filling lots of orders for the best cradle manufactured.

W. A. Morris measured and located the route from here to the Blue Licks, for the telephone line. The distance over the dirt road over which the line runs, is just 9 1/2 miles. The poles are all set in the ground, and the wire will be put up immediately.

Millersburg Items.

Joe Batson offers 500 acres of able bodied army worms, for a new history of Bourbon.

The handsome little Miss Nannie Furnish, of Scott county, is greeting her many old school-mates.

Hanson Kennedy and John I. Fisher were delegates in attendance of the Superior Court convention yesterday.

The exhibition of the Calisthenics class of the Female College Wednesday night at the hall, was a very entertaining.

Tom Wade had history weighed, and found it wanting, and holds on to his twelve dollars like grim death to your uncle ex-slave.

The elocutionary contest of the Female College takes place this morning, and the commencement exercises this evening, at Bryan's Hall.

North Umland, the finest bull in Lewis county, died the other day. He was bred and reared by Thomas McClintock, and sold to James Toneray.

Ed. Hull, son of B. G. Hull, formerly of this place, killed Sid Baxter in Nicholasville, last Sunday in self-defence. Baxter killed Lee Schwab, of Winchester, last November, and was acquitted.

The Purnell House made a spread fit for the kings, on the night of the hop, and 125 persons partook of the thirty-six spring chickens and other good things slaughtered for that special occasion.

Derbin Murphy, of Shelbyville, Mrs. Kelly and her daughter Virgie from Newcastle, Miss Bruce Sandifer and her sister, Mrs. Taylor, arrived here Tuesday evening among near fifty others, to attend the commencement exercises, of the week.

The exhibitions of the Literary societies of the two colleges, as usual, drew large crowds. The entertainments were highly spoken of by those who attended. The Philomatheans brought their annual rain and thunder storm Tuesday night which had the usual effect in way of scaring the people nearly to death.

A postal from Elder T. M. Myers, dated Tollsboro, June 12th says: There have been nine accessions to the church at my meeting here. The interest and attendance have grown into unexpected proportions. The audience was estimated at nine hundred. If you have no objections, I will say "Praise the Lord!"

Ed. McArdle, the handsome young modiste from the merchant tailoring parlors of James McArdle, Grand Opera building, Cincinnati, arrived here last evening to spend several days. He missed the train about 1 1/2 minutes Tuesday evening, but tried to hire a special train but all the engines were out on the road. Consequently he did not attend the hop.

At the Hooktown school-house one day last week, some boys had been reading the life Jesse James, and concluded to play the role of the James boys, by hanging Billy Payne's boy. When the lad's tongue came out, they became alarmed and run, but one thoughtful one run back and cut him down. The lad came near dying from strangulation.

About noon one of those sultry days before the commencement, a cow walked into Hughes & Smedley's store, and when about half way through the room, Smedley raised up from his back on the counter to wait on the lady, and exclaimed in amazement, "did you heifer?" Just a day after, a calf walked into D. Hurst's hall and made things interesting to the chamber maid for a few minutes.

Jos. H. Black, one of the most experienced tobaccomen in the State, prophesies a fine season for the coming year. He predicts that the April freeze killed most of the fly while they were coming through the ground, and as a consequence, producers will be but little annoyed with tobacco worms. Mr. Black says that the market on low grades of Kentucky tobacco is down badly, and little or no extra leaves can be selected from the crops around Millersburg, in consequence of the drouth, worms, &c. He says he would rather prize and consign crops than to pay the figures asked.

The Ninth Annual Commencement Hop, which came off Tuesday night, was by far the toniest of all the hops given by the young gentlemen of this place. Each succeeding year excels the former, in dress, management and attendance. On this last occasion, the hall was crowded to overflowing, with guests from all parts of the bluegrass. As many as sixty couples occupied the floor during the evening, and a relay of at least twenty more couples held positions in the chairs, windows, dressing rooms, and adjacent parlors. To attempt a description of the many handsome toilets, or even name the many strangers from a distance, would be an insurmountable task, hence we desist. Suffice to say, however, that twenty young ladies and their dresses, jewels, beauty, &c. could have been picked here that would have been fair competitors for queenly honors, with perhaps any twenty in the Union—while forty others followed close in giddy whirl, offering strong competition in grace, beauty and style. Satins and Nun's veillings of the daintiest hues, and laces were the leading features in dress, but occasionally the gorgeous monotony was broken by the appearance of a rich wine colored or cardinal silk, or the modest black watered or brocades silk, that offered a pleasant relief for the eyes which had become dazed with constantly watching the silvery sparklings of the pearly white, cream-tinted and royal purple shades.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE

COL. L. T. FOSTER.

YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO, MAY 10th, 1880.
 B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents.—I had a very valuable Hambletonian colt which I prized very highly; he had a large bone spavin on one joint and a small one on the other, which made him very lame; I had him under the charge of two veterinary surgeons who failed to cure him. I was one day reading the advertisement of Kendall's Spavin Cure in the Chicago Express, I determined at once to try it, and got our druggists here to send for it; they ordered three bottles, I took them all and thought I would give it a thorough trial, and used according to directions and the fourth day the colt ceased to be lame, and the lumps had disappeared. I used but one bottle and the colt limbe as free from lumps and as smooth as any horse in the state. He is entirely cured. The cure was so remarkable that I let two of my neighbors have the remaining two bottles who are now using it.
 Very Respectfully,
 L. T. FOSTER.
 Send for Illustrated Circular which gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy ever met with such success to our knowledge, for best as well as man.
 Price $1. per bottle or six bottles for $5.
 All druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price, by the proprietors, B. J. Kendall & Co., Enosburgh Falls, Vt.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

It is a compound of the virtues of sarsaparilla, stillingia, mandrake, yellow dock, with the tinkle of potash and iron, all powerful blood-purifying, blood-cleansing, and life-sustaining elements. It is the purest, safest, and most effectual alterative medicine known or available to the public. The sciences of medicine and chemistry have never produced so valuable a remedy, nor one so potent to cure all diseases resulting from impure blood. It cures Scrofula and all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas, Eczema, St. Anthony's Fire, Pimples and Face-grubs, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter, Humors, Salt Rheum, Scald-head, Ring-worm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Mercurial Disease, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Jaundice, Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility.

By its searching and cleansing qualities it purges out the foul corruptions which contaminate the blood and cause derangement and decay. It stimulates and enlivens the vital functions, promotes energy and strength, restores and preserves health, and induces buoyant life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any disease which arises from impurity of the blood need despair who will give AYER'S SARSAPARILLA a fair trial.

It is folly to experiment with the numerous low-priced mixtures, of cheap materials, and without medicinal virtues, offered as blood-purifiers, while disease becomes more firmly seated. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA is a medicine of such concentrated curative power, that it is by far the best, cheapest, and most reliable blood-purifier known. Physicians know its composition, and prescribe it. It has been widely used for forty years, and has won the unqualified confidence of millions who have benefited.
