

THE BOURBON NEWS.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

VOL. I.

PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY: FRIDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1882.

NO. 84.

YESTERDAY was a rather spring-like day.

Ed. Oldson is quite low with consumption.

Old Santa Claus will go the rounds Sunday night.

If you want the weight of turkeys in gold take them to W. W. Gill.

CALL and pay your subscription and we'll buy our own Christmas gift.

THERE has not been a new paper started in Lexington for a week.

Just arrived several car loads of nice Christmas goods for W. W. Gill.

LEXINGTON is to have a weekly musical journal.

The total expense to the State arising from Neal, Craft and Ellis trials will amount to $60,000.

ALF BURNETT and party passed through the city, last Thursday morning, en route for Cincinnati.

If you want oysters for Sunday or Monday, go to W. W. Gill's, who has the finest lot in the city.

GEORGE D. MITCHELL, who has been on an extended visit to relatives in the West, will return home to-morrow.

JOE CROXTON has the largest and best solicited stock of toys and notions in town.

A STEAMBOAT is being built at West Liberty for the navigation of the Licking river.

A PONY on exhibition in the window of a Lexington store kicked a $50 plate-glass window into "smithereens."

Go to Joe Z. Croxton's and get your Christmas goods. He keeps everything in the toy line.

TOM RICHARDSON, an ex-member of the Methodist church, was immersed into the Christian Church Wednesday night.

For the prettiest, fanciest and cheapest toilet sets, &c, for fine Christmas gifts for ladies, go to Brooks & Lyman's.

Mrs. R. J. O'MAHONY, wife of the City Clerk of Lexington, died Monday night after a brief illness.

If after you look all over town and cannot find what you want, then drop into Brooks & Lyman's, and you'll find it.

"THE bow, the frown and the kick," the new trinity discovered and adopted by the Rev. Geo. O. Barnes at Waterford, New York.

If you wish to make a Christmas gift to your sweet-heart, you should go to Foster & Sanders, who have a choice selection of books, &c.

NOTWITHSTANDING the very large shipments of turkeys to New York and Boston by W. W. Gill, he will have a choice lot left for home customers.

JOE Z. CROXTON has the largest and finest stock of toys and Christmas goods in town. His store is the regular headquarters for Santa Claus. Call and see him.

The entertainment at the Christian Church, last night, given by Bourbon Female College was a very delightful affair. All of the young ladies acquitted themselves creditably.

WHEN you get off the cars at the east end of Fountain Square, just walk up Walnut street one square and turn to the left. The first door you strike is the office of the Crawford House.

RUSSELL MANN, as executor of the estate of C. V. Higgins, will sell on Saturday next, at the court-house door at 11 o'clock, twenty-five shares of Deposit bank stock of Paris. A. T. Forsyth, Auc. 2t

THE Cincinnati Daily News is no longer cried for sale on the streets of Lexington. An inquiry into the matter shows that this is occasioned by a big game of freeze-out, which the Enquirer is playing with stocked cards against the News.—[Lexington Press.

At the livery and sale stable of Clark & Edwards, in this city, you have the finest showing for the comfort of your horse, and the care of your vehicle than at any other stable in Kentucky. Give them a call and see cleverness personified.

Shop-keepers, look out. Several darkeys, a few nights since, passing a business house, found but one of the prinipals in. Seeing the advantage they all stepped in, and while one was busy about purchases, the others unobserved, pocketed small articles in sight to a considerable amount that the proprietor missed soon after they left—so look out when you have more than one darkey around for there is a game on t'is.

ROBERT C. STEWART, an old citizen, died at Danville, Wednesday.

SEVERAL stables of horses have left Lexington for the New Orleans races.

YOUNG Crittenden was held without bail for murdering the poor innocent negro at Anchorage.

The proudest day in the life of a little Miss is when her age, in years, ends with teen but ty often gets them badly.

THE drawing for the house and lot which the Visitation Sisters are raffling, will take place Monday, January 1st, at the Mayor's office in this city.

J. FULLER and H. L. St. John, cashier and assistant cashier of the Second National Bank of Jefferson, O., are defaulters to the extent of $75,000. Fuller has fled, and St. John had a stroke of paralysis on learning that the crime was discovered.

SEVENTEEN pupils of Visitation Academy, in this city, have gone home to spend Christmas. Their stay will be short, the kindness of the sisters and their associates in school are too attractive to forego any length of time. This school is in a flourishing condition.

The Shamrock Oil man in his open air concerts, by moon light, is giving lively entertainments, nightly, to the more intelligent people of our community—they forget their suppers, the little ones at home, the church bell and bed time—O what a people we are, "Pleased with a rattle and tickled with a straw."

The marriage of Jno. B. Miller, of Washington City, D. C., to Miss Lullie Hollady, daughter of Maj. Jno. B. Hollady, Sheriff of this county, was quite a fashionable affair. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. French at the Baptist Church, in this city, after which the happy pair left for their home in Washington, D. C. May God bless them.

Oscar Carrick, of Newtown, was married Tuesday, to Miss Mary Risk, of Oxford. The groom is a son of the late Capt. Alex. Carrick, and the bride is a daughter of James Risk, a prominent and influential citizen of Scott county. The wedding was a very quiet affair, only their immediate family being present. They have the best wishes of the News for a long life of prosperity.

SOCIETY SCINTILLATIONS.

Wealth is not his that hath it, but his that enjoys it.

To assist a fallen friend, is instinctive with noble natures.

Example is the softest and least invidious way of com manding.

The law of politeness should be binding at home as well as abroad.

In conversation, humor is more than wit, easiness more than knowledge.

Act well at the moment, and you have performed a good action to all eternity.

Truth, like the sun, submits to be obscured; but, like the sun, only for a time.

Mr. Belden of Danville, Kansas, has been here for several days buying jack and jennet stock.

You are commanded to love one another.—[Jesus.

How can we love 500 delinquent subscribers?

An exchange speaks of a "widow woman." There is nothing like being explicit.—[Ex.

Who ever heard of a widow man.

The man whose wife gave him a pair of roccoo candlestick for a Christmas gift last year, will now get even by presenting her with a merschaum pipe.

A colored female brass band has been organized in Winchester, and has purchased instruments and are practicing diligently. They will have a street parade Christmas day.

Miss Lizzie Morton, the many-minded Madisonville belle, yesterday married Mr. Joel D. McPherson, of Hopkinsville, after two weeks of trials and tribulations. The other suitor and the old gentleman have probably have taken to the woods, as the dispatches do not locate them.

THE carpenters are giving the finishing touches on Capt. Thomas' new warehouse on Bank Row.

AUNT LIZZIE SMITH, of Cynthiana, sent a 30 pound dressed gobbler to the convicts in the Kentucky Penitentiary.

Remarkable for overcoming diseases caused by impure water, decaying vegetation, etc., is Brown's Iron Bitters.

When your wife's health is bad, when your children are sickly, when you feel worn out, use Brown's Iron Bitters.

A COLONY of 2,000 Swedes are to be located in Edmunsun county, and a French colony of 500 French people in Boyle county.

OUR neighbor John S. Smith attended the Carack-Risk marriage at Georgetown. Rumor says that John would like to take a Risk.

CRADOCK is publishing every item he can find about people getting hurt by jumping off of moving trains. We suppose his idea is to show that there are a great many fools in the world.

Who will be the first man on the first day of January 1883 to say I am out of debt, I owe no man," and in the language of the poet exclaim, "I am monarch of all I survey; there is none my right to dispute."

JOHN JONES, the col'd Lycurgus of Claysville, and the rival, on the stump, of the Shamrock Oil Men is coming to front Monday morning. Look out for him. His "music hath charms to soothe the savage, to melt a rock, and split a cabbage.

Another year is about to pop over our heads. Many days have we seen the sun rise in the east and go down in the west, the moon gild the night, and stars bedeck the heavens as years roll on, but none have enjoyed that pleasure as long as Col. Craddock, of the True Kentuckian. Long may he still live.

The Trader, Turfman, Farmer and Sportsman.

Hog cholera is playing the mischief with the hogs in Woodford county.

MILLERSBURG.

C. E. TIPTON, President of the City Bank of Rochester, N. Y., used $350,000 of the bank's funds to speculate in oil, and the institution has closed it's doors.

A BARREL of Iowa sauer kraut turred to lizards. If old Noah had only thought of this, how much less trouble it would have been to have kept a little kraut in his vest pocket than a pair of lizards in his boots.

ONE tear from the eyes of a strong, manly bosom, is worth rivers from the bosom of a despot conquered by the iron heel of destiny.

It may not be popular to deal in honesty and candor, but then it's a powerful solace to a proud and noble bosom—one that knows the shallowness and vanity of life.

DR. McLEAN, the molasses and whiskey medicine man, is a respected member of Congress from Missouri. The bigger the humbug the bigger the man.

If we had but a single crumb, and a beggar would ask for half of it, 'twould be religion in our eyes to give half of it. This may not be the popular theology of the day, but it's our idea of religion.

FORTY brigands swooped down upon Ahuacatlan, a Mexican town, brandished their fire-arms and drove the citizens to their homes. The Mayor, Justice and Alderman were bound and carried away and will be held for a large ransom.

If there's a man in this county whose business, self-support and happiness of family depends on one of many contributing two dollars for value received in order to get a start in life, let that man call on the BOURBON NEWS, and he'll find true a friend.

THERE are but few kind words for a man in this world of hypocrisy, who does his own thinking. Some infinite power' gave him power to reason, but the narrow brained guidance powers of the theology seeks to proscribe the liberal and thinking man in order to get more hash.
