The Southern General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, will meet in Lexington Thursday.

M. B. Miller, Louisville, says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters with great success for general debility and dyspepsia."

DINGUS, Morgan county, and Freestone, Rowan county, are the names of new postoffices established during the past week.

No. 196 drew the watch offered to the trade by J. T. Nesbitt, who says that the owner must call in 30 days, or it will be forfeited.

The next session of the Kentucky Conference will be held at Cynthiana, beginning September 12th, Bishop Keener presiding.

YESTERDAY was an extremely dull court-day at Carlisle. Scarcely any stock on the market, and small crowd in attendance.

THOMAS JONES was sentenced at Owenton, Friday, to fifteen years in the penitentiary for the killing of Ben. Bromley, in February, 1882.

The Democratic State convention will be held at Louisville to-morrow. A good delegation from this county will leave on the 11:30 train to-day.

FRANK MONDAY, colored, was fined $15 and costs for breaking a street lamp maliciously, and also got indicted for carrying concealed weapons.

GEN. D. C. BUELL had the lower half of his jaw bone taken out at Nashville last week. It had been injured by the fall of a horse several years ago.

A. R. CLARKE has been re-nominated as the Democratic candidate for State Senator from the Falmouth district over W. T. Simmons, by 1,500 majority.

ERNEST RULE left this city on Sunday one week ago, and has not been seen or heard of since. His friends are uneasy about him. He is about 20 years of age.

MISS RUTH REB, Maggie Nichols, Howerton and Master Jerry Foster joined the Christian Church Sunday morning and were immersed in the evening.

The Republicans of Hart county have instructed their delegates to the convention to meet at Lexington May 23d, to cast their votes for W. C. Goodloe for Governor.

The Rev. DeWitt Talmage, of New York has been engaged by the Parks Hill Camp-meeting Association to preach a series of sermons during the coming meeting in August.

J. R. BASCOM's tobacco barn burned down near Sharpsburg, last Thursday night, and 8,000 pounds of tobacco was lost. Insurance, $1,300. The tobacco had been engaged at 15 cents per pound.

T. C. COLLIVER informs us that quite a number of others are raiding the creek for a mile or more above and below his premises on Hinkston, and that very few fish can be caught in that section in consequence.

EARLY Saturday morning the residence of Capt. W. E. Simms, situated eight miles east of Lexington on Todd's road to Winchester, was entirely destroyed by fire. Loss, about $2,500. No insurance.

MR. BROOKS, the money power behind the Paris, Frankfort & Georgetown railroad, has bought forty miles of iron for this new road, at $37 per ton. Mr. Trabue says that contracts will be let on the road in a few days.

JOHN NORTON, while monkeying with a pistol last Friday, fatally shot George Rollins through the bowels. Both parties were colored laborers in the employ of Rick Thomas, sawing logs on the Jos. K. Redmon farm. Rollins died Saturday.

TWO BROTHERS named Reeves, tenants on the Mrs. E. V. Rogers farm, fell out over some land Saturday, and one who thought the other was advancing on him with a knife, fired a pistol and caused a serious wound below the heart of the other.

MRS. LITTLEBERRY BEDFORD didn't get robbed of $25 at the circus, but got imposed upon by an unauthorized employe receiving 75 cents and passing her into the tent before the doors were opened, thereby being compelled to purchase a ticket and enter again at the proper hour.

Mrs. Wm. Talbot, formerly Miss Mattie Colville, step-daughter to Jos. Neely, died at the residence of her uncle, Amos Turney, Saturday, of malarial fever. She had been married to Mr. Talbot but about three years, and was the favorite niece of Judge Turney.

It is said that the Republican convention here Saturday was a regular picnic. Col. Tom Brown was the chief orator of the occasion. The Saratoga split extended clear down to this convention, and we are informed it was a clear case of "sit down" on one wing of the party by the other—the Goodloe party being largely in the minority of the Swope party. Several street quarrels were the result of the bitter meeting.

P. BORIOTTI desires to announce that hebuys first-class fruits from the importers, and never deals in their cast-off goods such as are sold to street hucksters to keep from spoiling. Street hucksters have lately been arrested by the health officers and fined for selling stale and partially decomposed goods. Mr. B. expects to live in Paris and do business in the future—therefore, he ignores the idea of competing with street hucksters with cast-off goods.

WE are in receipt from Col. A. P. Dodge, of Lexington, a handsome pamphlet on the Kentucky Union Railway. It is an able expose of the mineral resources of the Eastern Kentucky, illustrated by charts, maps, geological surveys, &c. The document is an exceedingly handsome one, and will prove a valuable means of advertising Kentucky, which Col. Dodge styles the heart of the United States of America. Work will be commenced on his road in a few days, and some day, soon or late, it will be pushed through to Eastern connections in Virginia, and will become a grand through route East.

Mr. Benj. B. Wilson, of Lexington, and Miss Alice Hancock, of Cincinnati, were wedded last Thursday.

A Salt Lake citizen who owed a widow $80, which he could not pay, settled the business by making her wife No. 2.

At Paris, France, last week, a wedding procession was halted by a jealous lover, who shot and killed his rival and then poisoned himself.

A widower in Worcester, Mass., named Frank Mann, shot the lady to whom he was engaged to be married, and then shot himself.

Two precocious babes, one a boy of seventeen, and the other a tender school girl of sixteen, have been permitted to marry in Alabama, this being the lad's second venture in matrimony.

Ed Ingles killed four squirrels at one shot last week.

Harvey Ardery is quit ill again, and appears to be growing weaker.

Lambs are selling here generally at 5 cents per pound, or $4 per head, for June delivery.

Nicholas county has a white and black spotted crow, also a black and red one, and Robertson county has a belled buzzard. All are wild.

Our reporter was premature in announcing the compromise of Thomas McClintock with Mr. E. Stoner, of Pennsylvania, for damages in the case of the mules dying with glanders. Mr. Stoner brought suit Saturday in the Cynthiana court, for $3,000 damages.

Jimmie Miller well known as "Murdy," second son of Jos. W. and Adella Miller, died Saturday morning, of galloping consumption. He was apparently as sound as a dollar six months ago, but rapidly went into decline about three months ago, whilst visiting a friend in Ohio. His burial took place Sunday, at 4 P. M.

Saturday at noon, just as Jas. Collier was about to board the train at Maysville to return home, a big, stout man named Leach, called him a "d—d rascal" for not receiving some tobacco which was brought in in a damaged condition. Collier struck him, when Leach grabbed a middle finger of Collier's in his mouth and bit it until Collier gouged him in the eye with his thumb. They then scuffled and scratched for about a minute, when a brakeman separated them. Collier said that he felt as light as a kitten compared to the big fellow, and thought that the brakeman never would get to them, though his damages were but slight—a scratched ear and neck and a bitten finger. Leach will wear a red eye for several days.

I started to the city of Cincinnati, O., the 27th day of last April, to take a job with a wholesale house on Second street. While there, I did what lots of other good fellows will do—got into a little trouble—lost my money bucking against the tiger. Thursday evening I had just 50c in my pocket; wrote a letter home that I would arrive the next day; had to go over to Covington to mail it in time to catch the 8 p. m. train; about 10:30 p. m. I was unfortunate enough to fall in with two cranks from Dayton; at this time it was hail fellow well met. I took up with them; the next thing we were all arrested by the brave policemen of Covington, who generally run in kids from 10 to 15 years old. Next morning the cranks were tried before the Right Hon. Mayor Athey, and fined $10 and released. I was put in jail, and was told that my trial would come off at 3 p. m. I waited for 6 long days; finally got tired waiting, wrote to N. O. Brooks, who came down and got me out. I think we live in the 19th century and if Mr. Athey thinks that he is the only man in Kentucky that knows anything about law, he is deceiving himself, and he will find out before he is much older that he can't arrest a gentleman without any cause, confine him 6 days without trial and then go scott free, for the man from Kentucky will jump up before him when he is not looking for him—look out, Mr. Athey, you will either pay me $200 damages, or it will cost you $400 to get out of it, and then not with clean skirts! A word to the wise is sufficient.

A. C. CORRINGTON.

At the sale of Roy Cluke's livery effects Saturday, carriages brought $75 to $775, buggies $100 to $250, harness $10 to $180, horses $75 to $325. The sale footed up $10,000, or rather more than the appraised value of the property.

TAKEN UP.

A BAY HORSE, three years old, 15 1/2 hands high, came to my place near Millersburg, about one week ago. The owner can have same by proving property and paying charges.
