FOR PRESIDENT,
That uncrowned King of every Democratic heart,

SAMUEL J. TILDEN.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
Mr. Tilden's companion in Victory and in Humiliation,

THOMAS A. HENDRICKS.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Richard Held, of Mt. Sterling, is a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, to succeed Judge Hargis—subject to the action of the Democracy of the First Appellate District.

At last the grim reaper has gathered Comte de Chambord among his sheaves.

JOSEPH COOK is lecturing to summer reporters at Chataqua. Now look out for an exodus.

THERE is talk in Pennsylvania of calling out the National Guard to disperse the Legislature.

A GOOD many people are predicting the pardon of Wm. Neal before Gov. Knott takes the helm.

MISFORTUNES come on wings of the wind, and monkey around freight trains in making their exit.

A GRAYSON county hen laid 168 eggs in 168 days and then went to the woods and suicided in disgust of herself.

A JOINT resolution passed the New Hampshire Legislature yesterday in favor of a Government postal telegraph system.

The Georgia Legislature has instructed the Georgia members of Congress to favor the establishment of postal telegraph service.

The Vanceburg Courier says that in absence of the forest fires, the crop of rattlesnakes for several years is immense in Lewis county.

BRACKENRIDGE county gains an additional delegate to State and district conventions, and possibly two, by the increased vote she gave Mr. Knott.

The Tom Jones foolishness cost Owen county the loss of one delegate in the next Democratic State convention. Failure to vote cuts its delegation from 13 to 12.

NEW JERSEY, it is claimed, is the only State where the farmers pick green blackberries, cover them with black varnish and pass 'em off as perfectly ripe fruit.

The Danville Tribune says that there are four ways of exit from Frankfort—"swim the river, climb the mountains, crawl through the tunnel, or go up in a balloon."

THERE is a rumor afloat that a lot of Arizona cowboys and Mexican desperadoes are moving toward Yellowstone to kidnap the President and his Cabinet, to hold them for a ransom.

The Breckinridge News says that "Owensboro takes kindly to new rage for scarlet, and is dyeing her garments in the red blood of murder. It is fast becoming the only living rival of Pistolville, Arkansas."

JAMES BLUE, while viewing the world from his own roof at Nevada, Mo., was shot by John Smith. Mr. Blue immediately walked down stairs and filled Mr. Smith full of lead with a shotgun. Both will die.

BALSAM, the French swimmer, thinks that the secret of swimming the whirlpool rapids lies in knowing how to plunge in. To the unscientific landsman, it looks as if the great point is knowing how to plunge out.

A COLORED woman near Yateville, Ky., tried to murder her sister, and failing in this, made a strong effort to pull her tongue out, in which she so far succeeded that the victim could be barely understood while talking.

In ye elden times, the camp meeting managers gladly reported the number of conversions as the grand result of the encampment. In these degenerate days "it has been a financial success" is the glad-some news which greets our ears."

The people of Kentucky have confidence in the integrity and ability of Proctor Knott, and they will be greatly disappointed if he does not make his administration a contrast to that of Gov. Blackburn.—[Covington Commonwealth.]

HON. JACOB RICE, who represented Boyd and Lawrence counties in the last Legislature, died at his home in Louisa a few days since. He had a stroke of paralysis while in the Legislature, from which he suffered to the day of his death.

Two Virginia doctors, West and McGill, of Danville, Virginia, fought on an island of the Potomac, Saturday. One round was fired without effect. It appears that if they had exchanged blue mass and strychnia pills in a friendly way, it would have been more effective as well as more satisfactorily to the public.

A suit has been entered at Somerset, Ky., against a ticket agent, for the recovery of the price of a ticket to St. Louis. It seems that a party wanted to go to St. Louis and agents of rival roads endeavored to induce him to take the road they represented. One of them representing the Vandalia finally captured him by promising him a berth in the sleeper on a second-class ticket. The man purchased the ticket, and was told by the agent to go through the train and he would meet him in the sleeper, and fix the matter up. He did as directed, but the agent didn't show up, and he was of course refused accommodations in the sleeper. He continued on his trip but has now returned to Somerset and commenced suit as stated.

As an evidence that the use of pistols and whisky is on the increase in producing death and destruction throughout the land, forty-six murders were committed in this State from the 1st to 22nd of the present month, besides quite a number of seriously wounded are reported. This is true to the letter, for the Louisville Post published a column list giving the day and date of each occurrence. During the same time eleven noted murderers were pardoned by the Governor. It cannot be denied that Executive clemency has encouraged the perpetration of crime to an alarming degree.

The candidacy of Judge Richard Reid, of the superior court, for the vacancy on the appellate bench caused by the resignation of Judge Hargis, gives the people of eastern district an opportunity to send a jurist to the court of dernier resort such as has not occupied the position since the days of the lamented Robertson. And they will commit a crime against the entire Commonwealth if they reject this opportunity.—[Breckinridge News.]

The battle-flag of the 3rd Iowa Infantry, which was captured before Atlanta by Gen. Pat Cleburn and presented by him to Miss Laura J. Massengale, then living near Columbus, Ga., has been returned to the adjutant-general of Iowa by that lady's brother. The flag was accidentally found in a chest, where it had lain undisturbed for the last twenty years, and is sent back just in time to receive an ovation from the survivors, who are to hold a reunion at Cedar Falls, on Sept. 13.

The trial of Frank James promises to furnish no end of sensations. The latest excitement is over a threatening letter received by two "prominent citizens" who are to be called as witnesses against James. The people of Gallatin are said to be very indignant over this attempted intimidation on the part of James' friends, while James' counsel exhibit equally warm indignation over what they call a trick of James' enemies to excite popular enmity against him.

From Away Off.

A friend has handed into this office a copy of the Semi-Weekly Bourbon News, published at Paris, Bourbon county, Ky., Bruce Champ, editor. It is a spicy, red-hot journal, of the purely Kentucky style, and its motto is both novel and interesting, being "Independent and Democratic—published from the happy side life—for the benefit of those now having breath in their bodies. Price, $2.00 per year, or $2,000 for 1,000 years—cash!"—[Montpelier (Vt.) Argus and Patriot.]

Judge Black's Last Words.

"Oh, Thou, beloved and most merciful Heavenly Father, from whom I had my being and in whom I have ever trusted, if it be thy will, grant that my suffering may end, and that I speedily be called home to Thee; and oh, my God bless and comfort thee, my Mary."

An exchange says: People go to a watering place, take a bath and feel better. At home it rarely occurs to them to benefit themselves in that way. They go to the Hot Springs, quit drinking, live like Christians and grow young. They will not do that much for themselves at home and the springs get the credit for it.

The Mexican woman who killed her four-year-old son, stewed his flesh and gave it to husband to eat, is a sample of devoted housewifery among the "Greasers." There nothing like devotion and self-sacrifice, in order to please some fastidious husbands. That woman ought to be encouraged—with a rope.

The Lexington Advertiser will bloom out into a daily evening paper this morning. W. H. Polk, formerly of the Daily Transcript and other journals will be managing editor. The Advertiser is not a year old, but has met with phenomenal success, now having a circulation of over 4,000.

AFTER a severe thunder storm near Montemorelos, Mexico, which occurred recently, a shepherd who had gone to shelter, while returning to his flock discovered and killed in a field a fish over five feet long, which apparently had fallen from the clouds.—[Your Cousin Joe.]

Gov. BUTLER proposes to make a southern tour, during which he will visit New Orleans. It is suspected that votes, not spoons, are what Ben is after this time, and the inhabitants of the Crescent city need feel no anxiety for the safety of their siver on his account.

WHEN you see a man on the street with glistening beaver and sparkling diamond, don't uimagine that he is Jay Gould or Vanderbilt. He is simply a country editor doing the city.

MILLERSBURG.

Mrs. J. C. Miller has gone to Covington to visit her parents.

Bob McClelland took several blues at Cynthiana last week.

Mrs. Dr. Hurst is up and walking about with her broken limb.

Only a few persons from this place attended the Cynthiana fair.

Rev. J. M. Capertown lectured Saturday night on "Old Mexico."

Our town will turn out several Jumbo sight-seers at Lexington, Saturday.

Roy Smith and Willie Longmire had the biggest fight of the season, Saturday.

Mrs. Chapin, of Cincinnati, is the guest of Mrs. I. B. Sandusky, at Jno. S. Vinton's.

The Johnson House fed all of the Baptist delegates free that stopped there during the association.

Mrs. James Collier returned home from Hot Springs, Ark., last Friday, almost fully restored to health.

Anton Ambs, barber and confectioner, has opened a news depot in connection with his other business.

T. B. Brady, of the firm of Miller & Brady, of Atlanta, Ga., is the guest of R. P. Milam, and will take in the fairs this week and next.

Jack Hitt has returned from Santa Fee, New Mexico, and is now rivaling Jim Warford in the lecture business, on the subject of "Greasers and Life on the Frontier."

The following officers of the Baptist Association, were elected to fill offices for the coming year: R. B. Yancy, of Mayslick, Moderator; C. J. Hall, Clerk; R. B. Garrett, Carlise, Treasurer.

The case of Rev. Bent did not come up before the Association here last week, as it was said that he was not the proper place for an investigation. Query: where on earth would be the proper place then?

James Conway has an Alderney calf, which measured only 17 inches in height and weighed but 15 pounds at two days old. It is sound as a dollar, happy as a dudine, and has a real "ficy" disposition.

The boy baby of Mrs. Robt. McVey, Jr., of Moorefield, formerly Miss Willie Conway, of this place, took the premium last week at the Cynthiana fair. Mrs. Curran's baby, of Harrison county, took the second premium.

Frost Rose, colored sentenced for a term of eight years, for an alleged attempt to outrage a little Miss Steers near two years ago, was pardoned by the Governor last week, and is at home again. There has from the first been a considerable impropriety of the sentence, in the minds of many of our best citizens.

BEN ALEXANDER, a stranded colored attache of O'Brien's circus, hanged himself in the Oldham county jail, where he was confined for carrying concealed dead-ly weapons.
