VOL. II. PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY: FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1883. NO. 161.

The fair ground trotting track is a daisy. SEVERAL side-shows on the Fair Grounds this year. SEEMAN gives away 103 elegant presents every night. SEEMAN charms the ladies of his audience each evening. POPULAR prices for the people is the motto of Seeman. SEEMAN will appear at the Opera House Sept. 13, 14 and 15. GEORGETOWN college opened up Monday with 250 students. SEEMAN gives away an elegant china tea set of 46 pieces Sept. SPECIAL POLICE from Maysville are on duty at the Fair Grounds. THE grass is getting burned all along the road between here and Lexington. BULGER swung off promptly at 12 o'clock Tuesday, and died confident of glory. PARIS is to be favored with the great magician, Seeman, and his combination. A THIEF stole a case of shoes from the front of Muth's shoe store Tuesday morning. If you fail to see Seeman you will miss the finest entertainment Paris has ever had. CONDUCTOR JOE MARTIN is running the extra playing between here and the fair grounds. BULGER, the colored rapist, was hanged at Maysville, Tuesday at noon, by request of the law. THE 'buses and hacks are doing a big business taking passengers to the fair grounds this week. SEE some of the elegant presents now on exhibition at J. C. Croxton's, to be given away by Seeman. THE NEWS' job office has been running day and night, averaged 20,000 impressions per day for several days. BOURBON sent 1,000 persons to see Jumbo Saturday last at Lexington, 800 of whom bought tickets at the Paris depot. FLORAL HALL shows off handsomely in the array of pretty things, but we haven't space to brag on everything therein. PHIL. KNOX carved his uncle John Bradford at Lexington, because Bradford gave him a beating which he justified him. JUDGE JERRY MORTON, Circuit Judge of this district, is holding court at Georgetown this week, and is acquitting himself with much credit. THE lodge of Knights of Honor of this city, has paid an insurance policy of $2,000 on the life of James McCartney, to his brothers and sisters. THE Press says that Barnum took away $20,000, and that the people who patronized the town and show left $80,000 in the city of Lexington. J. M. BEALERT left some fine melons at this office—among them a double nutmeg melon, the seed of which were furnished by Smith Kenney. BOB TUTTER, brakeman on the switch engine at this place, got his foot terribly mashed Wednesday while coupling cars. A cat wheel ran over it. THE receipts of the Lexington fair fell $1,475 short of that of last year. The present set of officers will kill it in one more year, and but few will be sorry. THE Carrie Stanley troupe threw up their engagement here for the week, on account of a lack of patronage. They showed two nights to very slim audiences. THE fair is being largely attended, and things are passing off pleasantly. The gate receipts on the turnpike have largely increased over previous years of late. THE grand-stand of the Bourbon Fair Grounds is large and conveniently arranged, the booths, dining hall and other conveniences are all of the improved plan and are very opposos. SEVERAL hundred loafers are paying five cents a lick for striking a sucker machine with a maul in order to try their strength. The same fellows couldn't be hired at five dollars a day to use the same maul in making rails. WE want a good man to handle our New No. 8 Wheeler and Wilson Sewing Machine in this county. Liberal arrangements will be made with a good man. A sewing machine man preferred. Address—J. C. OTT, Lexington, Ky. DURING the theatrical performance of the Stanley troupe Tuesday night, one of the actors got shot in the face with a lump of tallow. The tallow was melted and dropped in on the powder at the time the pistol was loaded. The tallow had to be cut out of the cheek like a bullet. PROFESSOR Seeman's performances were declared, on all hands, to consummate in skill, and his address, not merely that of the magician, as he is unusually known and seen, but of a gentleman possessing all the witting graces so admirable when natural.—[New York Herald, June 23, 1880.] WE call attention to the advertisement of the Falmouth fair, which commences next Tuesday. They offer a large and attractive premium list—among them several large special premiums. Their grounds are conveniently located, being right on the K. C. road, ought to be liberally attended by the Bourbon folks. THE survey of the Kentucky Union has been completed from Winchester to Red River Lumber Mills which has been laid off for a city, and is now called Clay City. There is but one tunnel on the route, and that is but 300 feet in length. Contracts for grading are now being let, and the 20 miles will be built by Sept. 1.

Reunion Notes.
A good many visiting comrades from other commands were present. The next reunion will be held at Elizabethtown, the 19th of next September. The Commanders of the First Brigade were Gen. John C. Brackenridge, Gen. Roger Hanson (killed at Stone River), Gen. Helm (killed at Chicamauga), and Gen. Joseph H. Lewis. In the afternoon the Command formed in a column of fours and marched to the cemetery, escorted by the College Cadets and Lexington Guards, and decorated the graves of Generals Brackenridge and Hanson. Charlie Herbst, of the 2d regiment, had his scrap book along, in which was probably the rarest collection of Confederate relics in the South. He constantly adds to his collection from week to week and year to year, as he can obtain things rare and hard to get.

Gov. Blackburn and wife were present. Several empty sieve and pants legs were discernable. There were 41 comrades of other commands present. Col. H. McDowell was re-elected President, and Capt. Ed Bell, Secretary of the Association. The old battle flags, full of bullet holes, that hung on the wall reminded the boys of the days gone by. The two hundred "Orphans" present yesterday goes to show that Gen. Hanson's seven thousand men had no child's play in the "late unpleasantness between the States." Mrs. Hauson was present, to see the surviving soldiers who followed her brave husband into the jaws of death in front of six pieces of artillery at Murfreesboro, on the fatal January 2nd, '63. On one occasion Col. Harvey McDowell was leading a skirmish line, and the men didn't move along briskly enough to suit him. He cried to them: "Move up, men, move up! Do you want to live forever?" The splendid portrait of General Roger W. Hanson, hanging in Masonic Hall, belongs to Clark county, having been painted by order of the Clark county Court to hang on the walls of the court room at Winchester, along with those of other distinguished citizens of the county. The name "Orphan Brigade" was given to the command by Gen. John C. Brackenridge, from the fact that on two occasions all the brigade and line officers, down to a few Captains and Lieutenants, were killed in battle—the battles being Chicamauga and Murfreesboro. This was indeed a baptism of blood and fire, but the orphans were true grit and fought bravely to the last. No colors in the trots again today. It is shocking. UNION SERVICES at the Southern Presbyterian Church Sunday night. Roe Leer sold twenty nine red feeding cattle to J. H. Graves, of Fayette, at a nickle per pound. CHARLIE MILLER's boy baby, of Millersburg, and John Waller's girl baby of Hutchinsion, took the premiums yesterday. Over 7,000 attended the fair yesterday, 1,000 of whom came up the Maysville branch. Fayette county is but sparsely represented, but the other surrounding counties send full delegations.

SCINTILLATIONS.
—Gen. S. B. Buckner took in the fair yesterday. —Howard Parker, of Fayette county, is visiting B. F. Pullen. —Miss Mary Phelps, of Madison county, is the guest of Mrs. Roe Leer. —Miss Lena Atchison, of Newport, is visiting at the Bourbon Female College. —Col. Morey and W. J. Kehoe, of Cynthiana, are numbered among the Pilgrims at our fair. —Col. Ed. McGrath, Harrison county's candidate for sergeant of Arms, is taking in our fair. —Mrs. Walter Potts and the only baby in Nicholas county are the guests of the Rev. Mr. Yarden. —Mrs. Capt. Hugh Henry will leave for Louisville next Tuesday to spend several weeks visiting her brother. —Mrs. Sam Richardson, of Covington, and Miss Mary Watts, of Woodford county, are the guests of W. A. Parker. —Gen. Abe Buford is taking in our fair and the hops, and is only one year less spry than he was at this time last year. —Misses Lula and Nettie Bronston, of Richmond, sisters of Hon. J. C. Bronston, are the guests of Mrs. Landath Fretwell. —Horace Taylor and wife, of Carlisle, and the Misses Layson and Miller, of Millersburg, were the guests of the News yesterday. —An American lady, well known in society in Paris, made a sensation by appearing at the ball of a foreign count in a costume of white kid, fitting like a glove. —Mrs. Sidney Clay, of Bourbon, has leased Dr. Dudley's residence on the corner of Main and Walnut streets, and will move his family into it this week.—[Lexington Transcript.] —Dr. Ed. Ray and Charlie Offutt, of this city, attended the inaugural ceremonies of Governor Knott, Tuesday. As they were two of his three original Knott men, it would be safe to bet on them having a colonel's commission somewhere about their old clothes. —To remove grease from wall paper, lay several folds of blotting paper on the spot and hold a hot iron near it until the grease is absorbed. This is also recommended for removing grease from the seat of a boy's pantaloons, provided he has them on at the time.—[Louisville Argus.] —A young lady in a Philadelphia seminary was heard to remark of the hot weather, that "it made her sweat." One of the teachers, a lady of the old school, reproved the wayward miss thus: "My dear, bear in mind that horses sweat, men perspire, and young ladies get in a glow." —The hops at the Bourbon House are being largely attended by Kentucky's best society people. As usual, the ball costumes range from the toniest outfits in the reign of fashion, down to the rich, rare and peculiar. The News will, however, deviate from the Adame way of reporting hops this time, and will say in justification thereof it cannot afford to put up its hard-earned sleep from 11 o'clock to daylight against crushed strawberry silks and satins, Paris mulls and diamonds—whether borrowed or owned, but will leave its readers to imagine the same old routine of affairs—banged, gored, twisted and looped a little different from that of last season—the ladies all understand, and the gentlemen don't care to know, or even wouldn't know if we told them exactly. There are many strangers from a distance in attendance, but we know not who they are; it's just as we said, our sleep is worth more to us than their names would be to the public, in way of general information.

Bill Rankin's Calf Story.
WM. RANKINS, formerly clerk of the Deposit Bank of this city, has been telling a calf story to our citizens during the last few days, which has been doubted by several of our noted horsemen. Below we give the story verbatim, from the Philadelphia Times:
Wabash, two-year old colico calf that is credited with a mile racing record of 2:23, was brought to Philadelphia on Monday by his owner, Colonel Charles J. Barnes, of Evansville, Ind. Wabash has won seven races off the reel this summer, and was only beaten once, on that occasion he fell down at Bedford Park, on Wednesday last, he easily beat J. C. Mason's blk. g. "The Monitor" a mile in 2:23. After the race Colonel Barnes declined to accept an offer of $1,500 for his feet-footed bovine. The calf is nearly full grown, and a half hand high, his legs are like those of a giraffe, and his horns are tipped with nickle plated knobs. Colonel Barnes bought the calf when a yearling from an Indiana farmer, who was driving the split-foot trotter to a sulky and beating all ordinary roadsters with ease. Hittened to a light wagon Wabash trotted to Belmont Park yesterday afternoon, and was sent around the track several times at a three minute gait. The calf's wind and legs are perfectly sound, and his owner says he has driven him forty miles a day without making him turn a hair. Although Wabash is fast and steady in harness, he is much speedier when running under saddle. To show the calf's speed he was saddled and mounted by a 115 pound jockey yesterday, and Mr. Horton's m. m. Corinna, with a record of 2:24, was started against him. Corinna went away in the lead when the word was given, but Wabash, who was riding like a calf, quickly clapped spurs into his sides, and with a bound that could be heard a mile off, Wabash hoisted his tail like a jack-knife, and set after the trotter. While on the back stretch his legs seemed to sprang out on all sides at once, and he bowed his neck like a sailing bronco, and blew a cloud of steam out of his nostrils, and came like a locomotive, passing the bewildered mare, and was lapping into the home stretch before another horse's driver could induce her to trot. Wabash won by an eighth of a mile, and was cheered by every spectator except Mr. Horton, who was rightly indignantly to his driver: "Well, don't it beat you?" The calf will race at Point breeze of Suffolk Park on Saturday.

Cincinnati Exposition and Latonia Races.
Of course you and your children, and your uncles and your aunts, will rush off frantically to witness these two great episodes in your country's history, and of course you will have to eat in order to keep up your avortipods, and you will have to enjoy the embraces of old Morpheus in order to preserve your nervous system; therefore we advise you to stop at the Arrington House, Covington, Ky., where our genial friend, Mr. Sam T. Doby, and his estimable lady, will see that you are taken good care of; then you will avoid the "Cincinnati Squeeze," and live to thank us that you read this in the BOURBON NEWS. Remember that the street cars pass the Arrington House every few minutes, for Fountain Square, Cincinnati, and that the price of the NEWS is $2 for one year, or $2,000 for 1,000 years.

Blunders.
To the wife of Sweeney Ray, a son. Last night.

Neal Harvey, a tramp tailor, who has been all over the world, and was well known here, died in Columbus, Ohio, a few days ago. He was much given to drink, and probably died in consequence thereof.

James Lyng, a clever young up-town groceryman, will wed Miss Bettie Roche, next Wednesday, at the Catholic church.

W. H. Thomas lost a fine Strathmore mare by being gored by a bull. Warren Rogers sold a saddle horse Tuesday, to Capt. Byars, of Va., for $300. There is a horse named Callian that is being slightly heard from this week. FOR SALE—Finest saddle and harness horse in the county. Address, Jas. N. Stone, Little Rock, Ky. 4. Tifford Balls has received in Nicholas county, 43 Texas ponies, and is feeding them for sale, at Charlie Donnell's. In the pacing race yesterday, Pattie Macy won with ease, over Maggie Croxton, Joe F. Bulldozer and Lurry's Blue Bull mare, Tim, 2:40. In the 27 class yesterday, was hotly contested between Cyclone, Reville, and Mike, Reville and Cyclone won two heats each, and Mike one, and the last heat was a dead one between Cyclone and Reville. Best time 2:20. The race will be finished this afternoon. Lady Cromwell, of Harrison Chief, property of Charlie Donnell, of Nicholas county, took the premium at our fair yesterday, over seven entries—all world-beaters. This is her fourth premium at fairs this season, she is too pretty for this earth—just the thing for Gen. Abe Buford to go to heaven on.
