

Semi-Weekly Bourbon News.

Independent and Democratic—Published from the Happy Side of Life—for the Benefit of Those Now Having Breath in Their Bodies. Price, $2.00 for One Year, or, $2,000 for 1,000 Years—CASH!

VOL. II. PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY: TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1883. NO. 166.

THE days and nights are now of equal length.

RATHER COOL, but watermelons are still on the market.

PUT on your winter under-duds again and lay in a supply of coal.

THE Ripley, Ohio, fair begins to-day, and will continue through the week.

A CYCLONE broke up a Masonic funeral at Nicholasville, Sunday afternoon.

PAW-PAWS only ten cents per dozen—cheaper than walking six miles for three.

ELDER J. S. SWEENEY and Collector James Brown opened up the fall fishing this morning.

SANBUSHKY & Co. have sold their agricultural implement business at Lexington, to Cassell & Wilson.

EVERYBODY will turn out for the Exposition Friday. Only $2 for the round-trip, including ticket to the "Xpo."

HERBERT RICE, a thirteen-year-old colored boy, is under arrest at Mayfield for cutting a companion of about the same age.

At a fish-ry in Webster county, in a four-handed duel, twenty shots were fired. One flesh-wound was all the damage done.

FRIDAY will be Kentucky day at the Cincinnati Exposition. Round trip from Paris, including a ticket to the Exposition, $2.00.

THE suit of Harper against Dr. Ingels and Jack Neal went against them, but an appeal will be taken. Hedges compromised.

A REWARD of $300 is offered for Fletcher Elliott, wanted for murder at Danville. He is low, heavy set, and about 23 years of age.

A FREIGHT and a passenger train collided Friday, on the C. & O., at Triplett tunnel, and several box cars were badly demolished.

WHEN the Maysville Street Car Company get to using ostriches for their cars, Paris can then certainly get up a line and use mud turtles!

A MAD dog was killed in Taylorsville a few days since, and the Spencer Courier learns that several others have recently been seen in the county.

GASS & HANLY took three premiums on agricultural implements at the Maysville fair. The "Osborne" now makes faces at the "Minnie" again.

THE explosion of the coffee-urn at the Bowling Green depot lunch-stand, created considerable commotion, but damaged nothing, except the urn.

THE recent good rains have put the ground in fair plowing order, and the farmers are turning under the stubbles and weeds with a hearty vim.

THE marriage of Miss Lelia Taylor, daughter of Edward Taylor, of Midway, to an Illinois gentleman, is announced for consummation early in October.

PROF. FRANK SMITH was compelled to close his school for a few days at Cynthiana, on account of one of his children having been taken down with diphtheria.

"CHAM" JEFFERSON took the premium in the fat man's riding ring, at the Maysville fair Saturday, with Charlie Miller second, and Henry Marr, of Georgia, third.

A WINCHESTER firm of grain speculators in Chicago, who got caught on oats, called in 10,000 bushels of it one day last week. Nine car-loads of it passed by here Friday.

ASA LEWIS sent to this office, from his farm on the edge of Bourbon and Harrison, a specimen of tobacco 3 feet 5 inches long. It is of extra quality, and he has 25,000 pounds of the same.

At High Bridge, Mrs. Joseph Lasorus, having occasion to remove a revolver off her bureau, laid it on the floor, when it exploded, killing her infant child, who was sitting near by.

THERE'S another car load of German carp in Kentucky, for general distribution. Col. E. F. Clay is the Fish Commissioner for this county, and will probably attend to all orders in due time.

A. H. RANSOM, of Covington, Grand Instructor for the order of Odd Fellows, will deliver a lecture at the lodge here on night of October 8th. All neighboring lodges are respectfully invited.

THREE land-buyers have been found for Hutsell's sale, near Millersburg, through the "News" circulation in Mason county, which proves it a good medium through which to seek them. This sale comes off Thursday.

THE new comet discovered by Prof. Brooks, at Phelps, N. Y., is identified as the long-expected comet of 1882. It is rapidly approaching the earth and sun, and will be visible to the naked eye before Christmas.

RAINS.—Two of the hardest rains that ever fell on this earth, fell at Maysville Thursday and Saturday. Good local rains have also fallen here and elsewhere during the last few days, of which the Paris precinct obtained an abundance.

THE Northern Presbyterian Synod will meet at Danville October 10. The Southern Synod meets at Harrodsburg on the same date. The two Synods will unite in celebrating at Harrodsburg the centennial of Presbyterianism in Kentucky.

NINE passenger coaches with over 700 passenger of the "Merry Young Bachelors" excursion, passed here from Covington to Lexington Sunday. As many more also passed up the Cincinnati Southern railroad. The fare was only $1 for the round trip.

J. L. BISHOP, aged thirty years, a white man, formerly from East Tennessee, has been held over at Winchester, for outraging a eleven-year-old sister-in-law, a daughter of Wiley Brookshire. Bishop is also the fenshish father of an illegit child by a Mrs. Hogan, a married sister-in-law. His neck will be very properly called for at or before the next Circuit Court.

JOHN DAVIS, a young man near Wyoming preparatory to cleaning out his rifle, put his foot on the hammer and cocked it, and blew into the muzzle to see if it was loaded. It was, and went off, the ball passing through his head. He is not yet dead, but his case is hopeless.

A SOUTHERN expressman wears a No. 14 1/2 shoe, it being thirteen and three-quarters inches in length and four and a half inches in width, and a fifteen-year-old negro boy in Dooly county, Ga., boasts a foot which is thirteen inches long and five and a half inches in breadth.

A LOT of cow boys had possession of a smoking car bringing up the rear of the fair Saturday night from Maysville. On arriving at a station in Fleming county (where several of them got off) one yelled out: "Change cars for Frogtown, Buzzard Roost and Hell's Half Acre!"

JIM WALL, of Cynthiana, made a discovery a few years ago that he really owned the entire road-bed and all of the running stock of the Kentucky Central Railroad, and has of late discovered that he owns the site of the Maysville water-works. Jim will probably run across some possessions in the moon, next.

Notice to the Tax-Payers of Bourbon County. Your State and county taxes for the year 1883 are now in our hands for collection. Please call and settle, and oblige

J. B. HOLLADAY, S. B. C. F. R. ARMSTRONG, D. S.

P. S.—Those who are in arrears for their taxes for 1882 must settle the same at once.

MISS MAMIE MCARDLE CONWAY, daughter of David D. Conway, won the $200 premium for being the prettiest girl baby at the Maysville fair, Friday. Hon. Joe C. S. Blackburn made a beautiful presentation speech when the premium was tendered the happy mother, and Jeff. Elgin's big heart loomed up great big tears in his eyes when he went up and kissed the baby and offered his congratulations.

HAVING noticed the Maysville Bulletin's great hog antipathy, we counted the hogs and cattle on the street whilst riding in from the fair Saturday. Our bus driver whipped 25 hogs, it cows and three flocks of geese out of his way down to the Central Hotel, and yet half the town wasn't traversed. As it was pouring down a flood of rain, it is but fair to presume too, that only a few hogs were out from shelter. When the City Council have their annual "round up," we'll wager one of Clarence Stanton's pipes that 500 of the dirty scavengers can be produced, and not half a try.

Joe's Baby Speech.

At the Maysville Fair Friday a special premium of $200 was given to the handsomest baby. Six judges were appointed, three ladies and three gentlemen, and Joe Blackburn appointed to deliver the premium. Joe pointed out to the three ladies a baby which became the winner, and the mother being sent for, came with tears in her eyes. Harry Clay says that Joe's speech on this occasion was the best of his life; and what wonder! with the handsomest baby and his handsome mother before him for inspection. The ribbon was awarded to Mamie Conway, daughter of David Conway, of Paris, Ky.—[Lexington News.]

A Small Shooting Affray.

ONE day last week "Rick Thomas and Mrs. T. O. Bashford had a misunderstanding of some kind, and it is alleged that "Rick" struck her in the face. On Friday night, "Rick" again appeared at Mrs. Bashford's door, and Tom Bashford banged away with a pistol through the door glass and shot him through one of the fingers of the right hand. "Rick" being unarmed, retreated and was fired on twice more in quick succession. On Saturday afternoon, "Rick" armed himself with a shot gun and lingered near Tom's residence, and things were a bloody outlook for awhile, until Marshal Mernaugh captured the gun. Friends of both parties, however, swore out peace warrants, and both combatants were bound over in the sum of $300, each to keep the peace for one year. To-day the shooting affair will be tried in court.

Col. Strader Kills a Man.

COL. R. S. STRADER, a noted turfman near Lexington, shot and killed a colored man Saturday morning at 3 o'clock, who had been degrading around his stable. Foster, who was an eccentric, cranky individual, had turned a stallion and a two-year-old filly loose together, and the animals severely kicked and injured each other. Strader turned him off, and he re-appeared at the stables again with a pistol, and fired at one of the heads as he ran away. At this, Strader took up his watch at the stable for the night with his gun. When Foster returned with a pistol in his hand, Strader ordered him to halt three times and fired with a fatal result. On an examining trial, Col. Strader was acquitted on the grounds of a justifiable homicide. Foster was found with a pistol in his hands loaded, and several cartridges in his pocket.

Only a Beckeye Blossom.

putting on a fierce look, swung a weapon round his head, but instead of making it descend on the creature's neck, struck it with force into the block! Shouts of "Beckeye!" were heard, and in a few minutes last Saturday, in consequence of Judge Turney refusing to say the few necessary words to join the two glory-panting souls together. The Judge's old colored neighbor, Bill Manuel, who has been living with an unmarried wife for thirty years or more, and had raised a house full of children and a few grand children, appeared before him and asked a "few words said which would lift the burdens of the past from his shoulders," by marrying him to Ann McGowan, a new-found love. The Judge declined the honors with great indignation, but the gay Lothario sought fields afar and found a colored brother that wedded him cheaply and quickly to his dear Mary Ann, and now the Judge threatens to prosecute his old friend Manuel for self-admitted adultery for thirty years duration, and the desertion of his morally yet immorally wedded spouse. Verily, the course of true love is peculiar, and went do to gamble on.

SCINTILLATIONS.

It took a slow mule at the St. Joseph, Mo., fair, ten minutes to run the mile, and was three minutes behind it's faster competitor.

MRS. A. E. GARDNER having rented the dress-making rooms connected with W. H. Ingels & Co.'s store, announces that she is prepared to do all kinds of dress and cloak-making.

COL. O'NEAL, the politest hotel steward in America, who has so long been the chief directing element of the Thurston House, this city, has accepted a situation under Capt. Shirley, proprietor of the Garnett House, Richmond, Ky., and left yesterday for his new home. The Colonel will still make this his voting place and call it his home, however, to the gratification of his many friends. Capt. Shirley may well be congratulated on securing the services of so popular a man.

THE Kentuckian recently dropped 500 subscribers from its list, on account of arrears on subscription. "Many of them," says the foreman, "were the best men in the county." This office is also loaning money out to many who are worth from $100.00 to $500.00, but we are too poor to drop them and lose what we have already loaned. Gentlemen, come in and make yourself No. 1 in our little book. Two or three dollars is a trifle to one man, yet in the aggregate of delinquents it amounts to a large sum to a poor printer.

A Small Railroad Accident.

Last night as the passenger train for Lexington was passing the Richmond junction, the brakeman in charge of the switch changed its position before the train had all passed from the main line, which threw the front half of the last coach on the Lexington branch and the rear half on the Richmond branch. The consequence was that the car was rapidly thrown around and bounced from the trucks, creating quite an alarm among the passengers, and slightly wounding several, among whom was Joe Kimbrough, of Lexington.

RHEUMATISM! Immediate Relief in all Cases by Dr. RUSH'S Blood ROOT OIL.

Cured of Rheumatism in Two Hours. BUFFALO, N. Y., May 2, 1882.

Dr. Rush's Medical Association:

GENTLEMEN—I have been troubled with rheumatism for two years. I tried all the best advertised oils and liniments, and they did me no good. The last Dr. I visited recommended Dr. Rush's "Blood Root Oil." I purchased a large bottle for fifty cents, and applied it in two hours I was relieved and now I am entirely well. Its effects are wonderful, and I believe it the only thing in the world which will cure rheumatism. Truly Yours, JOHN HUTCHISON, 80 Erie St., Buffalo, N. Y.
