There is no profession, whose labors so severely tax the nervous system, as that of the ministry. The derangement of the nerve centers of the brain by over work, frequently brings on attacks of heart trouble, and nervous prostration. Rev. J. P. Kester, M. D., Pastor U. B. church, London Mills, Ills., himself a physician, writes Feb. 26, 1895: "Heart affection and nervous prostration had become so serious last fall that a little over work in the pulpit would so completely prostrate me that it seemed certain I must relinquish the work of the ministry entirely. Heart palpitation became so bad that my auditors would ask me if I did not have heart disease. Last November I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure alternately with Dr. Miles' Nerve and derived the greatest possible benefit. I have just closed revival work of 10 weeks, preaching nearly every night and twice on the Sabbath. I can speak for hours without suffering as I formerly did. Hard working ministers should keep Dr. Miles' grand remedies on hand." Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold on guarantee, first bottle will benefit or money refunded.

Ministers Should Use Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

Resolutions of Respect.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church, Paris, Ky., on the death of Mrs. Mary E. Bashford:

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from our midst our beloved friend and co-worker, Mrs. Mary E. Bashford, and while we bow in submission to His will, knowing that He doeth all things well; therefore, be it Resolved, First, That we, as a Society, deeply mourn the loss of one whose character combined the qualities of sweetness and strength, and whose labors for the Lord were signalized by wisdom and graciousness. Her purity of life has been unsurpassed. She was an example of patience during her long and painful illness, which ended in her removal to the home where sickness is no more.

Second, That while we feel that her death is an irreparable loss to all with whom she came in contact, in whatever relation of life, her faithfulness has shown forth as a beautiful light, and while placing the crown of flowers on her casket, we know it is typical of the crown that is hers throughout eternity.

Third, That we extend to the bereaved family our sincere sympathy, in this, the dark hour of their affliction, praying that He may be a father indeed and sustain them with His love.

Fourth, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, also for publication in the Paris papers. Mrs. ALICE WOODWARD, Mrs. A. T. F. BRYTH, Miss TILLIE JAYS, Committee.

PARIS, KY., Jan. 18, 1897.

Free Pikes Wanted in Harrison.

The Cynthiana Democrat says: "Cynthiana is already feeling the effects of free turnpikes in Bourbon county. Great numbers of farmers close to the Bourbon line have learned to trade at Paris and it is a matter of only a short time until the force will be greatly augmented. But Harrison can do nothing now. The county is already taxed to the constitutional limit, a result of liberal contributions to turnpikes now in existence and upon which the people must pay toll. The Magistrates, to secure free pikes, would have to submit a bond proposition to the people and it would require a two-thirds majority of the votes of the county to become effective. There is no question but that the people want the pikes made free, but it will be a long time before they get them."

SOUSA'S BAND.

The artistic balance of Sousa's Band is admirably maintained by Mr. Sousa's soloists. They have always done him credit, and the promise of their appearance at the Grand in a matinee concert next Monday afternoon, brought with the assurance of satisfaction. In his soprano, Elizabeth Northrop, Sousa has a voice and personality that command success. She sings with a beautifully finished style, and her voice is simply refreshing. Martina Johnstone, the violinist, is one of the gentler sex who has distinguished the violin by her playing of that great solo instrument. Arthur Pryor, trombone, the announcement of whose name is sufficient, and Frantz Hell, flugel-horn soloist, complete the admirable quartet of Sousa's virtuosi.

A Philadelphia woman is trying to get a divorce because her husband refuses to let her make pie. The case should be dismissed, with costs on the plaintiff.

The famous—or rather infamous—Seeley dinner in New York is being burlesqued at the Olympia, under the title of "The Silly Dinner." The sketch has been aptly described as a "take-off".

The noted Seeley dinner at Sherry's in New York was a very costly affair. The dinner only cost Seeley $1,000, but Sherry says he will lose $500,000 by it. One of the guests will lose a wife and her $750,000, because his fiancée has broken her engagement on account of the scandalous affair. The police investigation will cost $4,000.

Sol Smith Russell, everybody's favorite comedian, will appear Thursday night at the Lexington opera house in "A Bachelor's Romance," a splendid play, by Martha Morton, and will be given a hearty welcome. "The Lady Slavey," one of the biggest musical productions of the season, will be the matinee attraction Saturday at Lexington.
