Gov. Bradley says in a dispatch from Frankfort that the statement that Col. Forrester says he is in Washington engaging his rooms, horses, etc., must be a mistake and that he has no idea of being able to attend the inauguration, much less be in the inaugural parade.

A few Kentucky banks may fail, says the Baltimore American, but those on which the wild mint grows will continue to flourish like the green bay tree.

GOSSIPY PARAGRAPHS.

Theatrical And Otherwise—Remarks In The Forum. THE MAGNISCOPE. Parisians will have an opportunity to-night and to-morrow afternoon and night to see the beautiful pictures made at the opera house by the wonderful magniscope, the marvel of the age. Motion is depicted so naturally in the pictures projected on the canvas that the people and objects appear to be endowed with life. Every picture is an exact reproduction in size and action of the original from which it was photographed.

The charm of the music made by John Philip Sousa, the "March King," and his superb band, attracted a splendid audience to the Paris Grand yesterday afternoon despite the zero weather which prevailed. The band played the classic selections in perfect form, and put the usual contagious magnetism in the King Cotton and El Captain marches. The vocal solo by Mrs. Elizabeth Northrop, and violin solo by Miss Martina Johnson, were artistic triumphs and were well received. The trombone solo by Arthur Pryor was a most delightful number. The band plays in Maysville this afternoon.

Lillian Nordica, the famous American singer, will appear in a concert at the Lexington Opera House, on Feb. 13th. Nordica's real name is Lillian Norton and she was born at Farmington, Maine. She received her early musical instruction in Boston and afterwards in Italy, where she made her debut in 1883. She sang at the Bayreuth festival of 1894 and has a repertoire of forty operas in which she has never known else but success.

Polk Miller, who has entertained so many Kentuckians in his inimitable way at the Lexington Chautauqua, will give "An Evening of Story and Song," in this city next Tuesday night under the auspices of the Methodist ladies. Chaucer Depew writes: "I take pleasure in certifying to the ability of Polk Miller and the excellence of his recitals." At the court-house; admission, fifty cents.

Mrs. Corinne Moore-Lawson is creating quite a furore in New York with her sweet voice. She contributed to the programme Tuesday morning at the Bagby musicale, at the Waldorf, where there was the usual gathering of Gotham's society people.

Remembering the esteem in which the people of America held Alexander Salvini, his father, when the body was laid on the bier, had him enshrined in the American and Italian flags.

Mayor Swift, of Chicago, has signed the ordinance prohibiting high hats at theatres, and it is now a law.

At Lexington last night Sousa's band played a two-step composed by Cal. Morgan, of Lexington.

Richmond has a military band.

SCINTILLATIONS.

An Interesting Jumble Of News And Comment.

Lexington is enjoying a coal war, and dealers have cut 12-cent coal to 8, and 10-cent coal to 6.

A young man is in jail in Letcher county for riding a horse into a church during the progress of a meeting.

Two Mormon elders who had been preaching in the mountains are accused of having jumped a board bill at Whitesburg.

Polly Feltner, whose mysterious disappearance from her home in Leslie county almost led to the lynching of a negro suspected of murdering her, has been found in Perry county, where she has leased a farm, donned masculine dress and gone to work.

Miss Sopronisba Breckinridge, daughter of Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge, was granted a license to practice law in this state by a committee of the Judges of the Court of Appeals of Frankfort Friday afternoon. Miss Breckinridge is a worthy representative of her talented family, and is well fitted for a high standing in her profession. She is a graduate of Wellesley College, and has studied law several years with her father and at a law college in Chicago. She will practice in conjunction with the law firm of Breckinridge & Shelby.

Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair, DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

is made up of the most essential elements that go to nourish the body. Where the appetite is varying or lacking, it increases it, and where digestion is weak, it aids it to perform its function in a more vigorous way. It enriches the blood, makes healthy flesh and cures chronic coughs and colds by making it possible for the body to resist disease. Our friends tell us "IT WORKS WONDERS" but we never like to over-state the merits of our remedy even when it has been tested and tried for over twenty-five years. If you will ask for it, we will send you a book telling you more about the subject than we can put in a few words.

Go to your druggist for Scott's Emulsion. Two sizes, 50 cts. and $1.00. SCOTT & BOWNE, New York.

"DR. MILES, Through His Nerve is a Benefactor to Thousands."

A WIDELY known Wisconsin publisher, who resides at Green Bay, writes March 6th, 1895, as follows: "Five years ago I became so nervous that mental work was a burden. I could not rest at night on account of sleeplessness. My attention was called to Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve, and I commenced to use it with the very best effect. Since then I have kept a bottle in my house and use it whenever my nerves become unstrung, with always the same good results. My son also takes it for nervousness with like never failing success. I have recommended it to many and it cures them. All who suffer from nerve troubles should try it. It is free from narcotics, perfectly harmless, and yet soothing and strengthening. Dr. Miles, through his Nerve is a benefactor to thousands." A. C. LEHMAN, Editor and proprietor of DER LANDSMAN. Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold on guarantee first bottle will benefit or money refunded.

SOME members of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations freely express the opinion that the protest of Nicaragua against the canal bill will have a bad effect on the Anglo-American Arbitration Committee, many Senators professing to believe that Great Britain inspired Nicaragua's action. The friends of the Nicaragua Canal Bill will probably amend that measure to meet the objections urged by Minister Rodriguez.
