THE BOURBON NEWS

Published every Tuesday and Friday by WALTER CHAMP, Editor and Owner. BRUCE MILLER, Editor and Owner.

SECRETARY EDGEMONT has called for a national conference of Populists at Kansas City, Mo., February 23d.

WASHINGTON dispatches say that almost the entire time of the House this week will be devoted to the consideration of appropriation bills.

FRIENDS of Mr. Foraker at Washington say that an understanding has been reached in regard to Senator Sherman's successor, and that Gov. Bushnell will appoint Mr. Hanna.

THE bill before the Indiana Legislature for the prohibition of the sale of cigarettes has brought out the New Woman actively in the shape of lobbyists at Indianapolis.

HIS convictions that some legislation to prevent mob violence is imperatively necessary is said to have done more than anything else to cause Gov. Bradley to determine upon calling an extra session of the Legislature.

THE Senate by a vote of 46 to 4 passed the bill providing for a monetary conference. An amendment was added authorizing the President of the United States to call the conference.

DR. HUNTER's friends at Frankfort think the Doctor has been summoned to Canton to be offered the position of Postmaster General. Other gossip has it that he has been called before the President-elect for the discussion of the senatorial situation in Kentucky.

THE Louisville Times comments as follows: "Gov. Bradley's idea of using the Legislature to put down mobs is like unto that of employing a thief to catch a thief and fighting the devil with fire. It has not been a year since the Governor rang the riot alarm and called out the militia for the alleged purpose of repressing the mob spirit in that assemblage of solons."

A MAN in Tennessee writes inquiring whether he can win a prize of $50 by eating thirty quail in thirty days. If such an offer were now standing the pressure of hard times would develop a multitude of contestants for the prize. Many a man would be willing to try it for the chance of getting one good meal a day, without considering the cash price.

WHEN President Kruger, of the Transvaal Republic, was shown the speech of Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, delivered in Commons recently, in which a covert insinuation was made that Great Britain might seize upon the Republic, he arose with indignation, saying significantly: "Let them come if they want to take my country."

JUST a year ago yesterday the headless body of poor Pearl Bryan was found near Covington—and her murderers have not yet been punished owing to the law's delay. Is it any wonder that mob spirit exists when such young fiends as Pearl Bryan's murderers are unpunished a year after the crime was committed. If they had stolen a horse or a hog they would now be serving the sentence for it.

James Ray McCann, formerly of this city, is a leading man of the "Shadows of a Great City" Company which is playing in Louisville this week.

Nat Goodwin will appear at the Lexington opera house on March 18th in his new play "An American Citizen." Cissy Fitzgerald in "The Foundling" is a coming attraction.

Mrs. Bradley-Martin, of New York, has received dozens of letters from anarchists threatening all manner of violence if her $300,000 fancy dress ball is given. The writers evidently prefer that she should keep her money or spend it in Europe rather than turn it loose where it will do some good in this country.

Few entertainers keep an audience in such a rare good humour as does Polk Miller, who appears to-night at the court house. Joel Chandler Harris ("Uncle Remus") says "there is a real live 'nigger' hidden somewhere in Polk Miller's banjo, and you look for him to jump out and go to dancing when Miller strikes a string."

Misses Lucy and Bettie Munday, aged 92 and 96 respectively, live down near Harrodsburg, says the Lexington Leader. They have never had a beau or an offer of marriage, have never been ill, have never seen a train, never gossip or go visiting. They retire at dusk and arise at dawn and never use lamp or lantern. They cultivate several acres of land.

ECHOES OF THE STREET.

Odd Bits, And Comment Heard On The Corners.

"Who is Polk Miller, who lectures here to-morrow night?" asked a Paris youth yesterday. "Why don't you know," replied another urchin, "he's a brother to Joe Miller who wrote the joke book used by Seabrook, the comedian."

"I certainly expected to hear Sousa play Hell at his concert," remarked a Parisian Monday in the foyer at the Grand, "but I notice that Herr Franz Hell was not on the program for a fluegelhorn solo. The program beats Hell, don't it?"

To be lost in Chicago or even Cincinnati is not impossible, but for a native to be lost in Paris (Ky.) is remarkable. The other morning as an early-riser was going to the L. & N. depot to catch the 4:45 express he bumped into a Paris man. "Who are you, and what are you doing up at this hour?" queried the traveler. "I'm Mr. Blank," answered the Paris man, "and I'm turned around—I don't know where I'm at." The traveler passed on but looked back in a minute and discovered the Paris man lighting matches to locate himself.

is made up of the most essential elements that go to nourish the body. Where the appetite is varying or lacking, it increases it, and where digestion is weak, it aids it to perform its function in a more vigorous way. It enriches the blood, makes healthy flesh and cures chronic coughs and colds by making it possible for the body to resist disease. Our friends tell us "IT WORKS WONDERS" but we never like to overstate the merits of our remedy even when it has been tested and tried for over twenty-five years. If you will ask for it, we will send you a book telling you more about the subject than we can put in a few words.

Get to your druggist for Scott's Emulsion. Two sizes, 50 cts. and $1.00. SCOTT & BOWNE, New York.

BASE BALL NOTES

Gossip of the Diamond—Doings of Professionals and Amateurs.

An effort is being made to organize a baseball club for Lexington this year. Several merchants are contemplating the scheme, and it is likely that several of them will subscribe sufficient money to give a club good backing. If the movement succeeds Lexington will join the Tri-State League.

A Thrifty Citizen.

At the Skinner land sales in Bourbon, Tuesday, Mr. David Ready bought 270 acres at $31 per acre, says the Cynthiana Democrat. He pulled out the cash and wanted to pay for it then and there, saying he wanted to owe no man anything; but of course the money could not be accepted until the sale had been confirmed by the court. Mr. Ready is a substantial Irish citizen of Bourbon. For many years he was watchman at Townsend bridge on the L. & N. railroad. At $1 per day he laid the foundation for a comfortable fortune, and by thrift and economy has placed himself in an enviable position. His is a splendid example of what a man may do if he goes at it in the right way.

Almost Distracted?

Did you ever suffer from real nervousness? When every nerve seemed to quiver with a peculiar, creepy feeling, first in one place, and then another and all seemed finally to concentrate in a writhing jumble in the brain, and you became irritable, fretful and peevish; to be followed by an impotent, weakened condition of the nerve centers, ringing in the ears, and sleepless, miserable nights? Dr. Miles' Nervine Restores Health..... Mrs. Eugene Seales, 110 Simonton St., Elkhart, Ind., says: "Nervous troubles had made me nearly insane and physicians were unable to help me. My memory was almost gone and every little thing worried me until I was almost distracted. I really feared I was becoming a maniac. I imagined all sorts of evil things and would cry over nothing. I commenced taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and four bottles of this wonderful remedy completely cured me, and I am as well now as I ever was." Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold on guarantee, first bottle will benefit or money refunded.
