

JOHN MARRS,

Of Lexington, Attempts to Kill His Entire Family.

He Slew His Four-Year-Old Son, Shot His Sister and Daughter,

And Then Took His Own Life—His Wife May Die of Prostration—He Had Previously Been an Inmate of the Kentucky Lunatic Asylum.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 15.—The bloodiest domestic tragedy that ever occurred in Lexington was enacted at 7:45 o'clock Saturday morning, when John Marrs killed his four-year-old son John, shot his 14-year-old daughter Helen, tried to kill his sister Ida and then killed himself.

Marrs was about 40 years old, and had been a member of the firm of M. Kaufman & Co., clothiers, for years. He was prominent in building association circles, owning a great deal of real estate, and was considered one of the safest and most promising of Lexington's younger business men.

When the arising bell rang Saturday morning at his residence, 129 South Upper street, Mrs. Marrs, who slept with her daughter Helen in a room occupied by her husband, arose, put on her wrapper and went down into the kitchen to send a servant girl up with warm water for her husband.

He was sleeping in another bed with his son, John, and did not awake when the bell rang. When the girl went into the room Marrs started up with such a peculiar expression on his face that she hastily set the water down and left the room.

When she was half way down the steps she heard a pistol shot. She continued to the kitchen and told her mistress that something was the matter upstairs. Mrs. Marrs and her sister-in-law, Miss Ida Marrs, a teacher in the public schools, ran up to the room. They heard shots as they were going up. Mrs. Marrs fainted at the head of the steps, just as Helen ran out of the room and fell.

Miss Ida ran into the room where she saw her brother flourishing a pistol.

He struck her over the right eye with the weapon, cutting a long gash and knocking her back into the hall. As she fell he fired at her, but the bullet flew wild. Marrs slammed the door to.

Neighbors rushed in and forced the door, when a horrible sight met their gaze. Lying on the floor, with his feet under the bed and his head toward the door that opened into an adjoining room, was Marrs in a sea of blood. His throat was cut from ear to ear, both jugular veins and the windpipe being severed.

The head was barely hanging to the body. Near his left hand was a large razor covered with blood.

On the floor was a large, old-fashioned revolver with four empty chambers. On the bed was the boy, saturated with blood. He had a bullet-hole in the center of his forehead, and his throat was cut from ear to ear. Three pieces of flesh were cut from his right cheek.

Miss Ida Marrs' wounds are not dangerous, but she was badly prostrated from the shock. Mrs. Marrs is in a precarious condition from nervous prostration. About 10 years ago John Marrs showed signs of insanity and was incarcerated in the Eastern Kentucky lunatic asylum. He was discharged as cured after six months, and returned to business in the best of health and spirits and made money rapidly for several years.

On account of depression in business his affairs of late have not been in a prosperous condition.

He was taken violently ill about a month ago with a peculiar headache and remained at home three weeks. His friend, Moses Kaufman, called to see him several times this week and saw evidences of mental trouble and had intended to take him to a doctor Saturday and have him treated.

Marrs comes from one of Kentucky's oldest and best families. His father, John Marrs, was for many years treasurer of the city of Lexington. The family has always stood high in business and social circles.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 15.—The funeral of John W. Marrs and his boy, John, jr., took place at the Central Christian church at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The church was packed with fully 1,500 people. As many more were on the outside of the building, blocking the streets for squares. Father and son were buried in the same grave.

CHAMPION CORBETT.

Dr. A. P. Brian, the Well-Known San Francisco Physician, Says He is the Most Perfect Specimen of Physical Manhood in the World.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 15.—After a thorough examination of Champion Corbett, made by Dr. A. P. Brian, the well-known physician, issued the certificate which follows:

For several days past Fitzsimmons has been insisting that Corbett should be subjected to a thorough examination as to his physical condition. This should be a complete answer.

James Corbett is the most perfect specimen of physical manhood, in my opinion, in the world to-day. I saw him in his fight with Sharkey and must say that his condition is absolutely different at the present time from what it was on that occasion.

After a thorough examination, I have failed to find a single flaw in his anatomy. The chest is expansive to a remarkable degree, showing the elasticity and firmness of the muscles. The capacity of the lungs indicates great endurance and especially when fortified by the fact that he has a perfect heart, the sounds of which are heard clearly and distinctly over every portion of the praecordial region.

CHAMPION JAMES J. CORBETT.

The firmness and pliability of the muscles throughout his body give unmistakable evidence that James J. Corbett has cared well for his physical health, and undoubtedly has recently passed through a hard and persistent course of training.

My examinations of Mr. Corbett were made both before and after exercise, and I can say that he showed scarcely any signs of fatigue after his violent practice. His heart showed no undue increase in action and he exhibited no signs of distress, the respiratory movements being slow, regular and full. His long, sinuous muscles are flexible and firm, without undue development in any one group. This is particularly characterized in the muscles of the chest, arms, shoulders and thighs, as well as the lower region of the back, all of which give evidence of strength and vitality. And the evidence, to my mind, which suggests a radical improvement in his condition as compared to his last visit to this coast, is the healthy appearance of the skin and mucous membrane. The latter particularly gives marked evidence of a perfectly normal and rich condition of the blood and good tone of the system, throughout. After the general examination I tested the various reflexes with the object of determining the condition of his nervous system. The result was that I found the nervous system equally as good as the muscular system. This is vitally important, as the general conditions of the body depend primarily on the healthy action of the nervous centers.

PITTSBURGH POST

Plant Destroyed by Fire—Loss About Ninety Thousand Dollars.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 15.—Fire Sunday morning burned the building occupied by the Pittsburgh Post, causing a loss of $90,000. The printing presses, one valued at $25,000 and the other at $10,000 were badly damaged. Ten typesetting machines valued at $30,000 were ruined. The Post loss will probably reach $70,000, covered by insurance. The building is owned by the J. N. McCullough estate, and the loss on it will reach $20,000, covered by insurance. The fire is supposed to have started from the crossing of electric light wires. The Post will issue its paper from the office of the Pittsburgh Leader until new quarters can be secured.

CUBAN WAR.

Spaniards Lose Over 300 Men in a Fight Near Remedios.

The Patriots Caught the Troops on a Steep Hillside and the Rout Was Complete—Spaniards Withstood a Gallant Fight, But Forced to Retreat.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—A special from Key West says:

News has been received in Havana that one of Weyler's vanguards, consisting of 500 men, was defeated by about the same number of patriots, under Col. Parc, of Garcia's army, near Remedios, on Sunday. The Spanish forces had been sent forward to explore and incidentally to capture a Cuban hospital said to be on Mount Calvas, south of Remedios. The column marched to near the place and then attempted to surprise it at night. Gen. Garcia had been informed of the Spanish approach and had forwarded reinforcements.

As the Spanish troops marched up the steep hillside paths leading to the hospital, Parc's men opened fire on them with rifles and a small field piece.

Others of his command who had mounted the overhanging rocks flung down hand grenades and packages of powder and bullets made into improvised hand grenades. The Spaniards surprised in the narrow pathways, attempted to reply, but they had to shoot by guess. The patriots threw down lighted pine knots and burning wisps of grass upon the Spanish column, giving ample light to aim with accuracy. The Spanish force stood the fire for 15 or 20 minutes and then attempted a retreat, but another body of patriots had gone around, and they now began firing into the rear of the Spanish forces. This completed the rout. The Spanish soldiers, by a desperate effort, forced their way through this last party and managed to get off clear.

After half an hour's running fight the Spanish commander retreated to Remedios. He himself was wounded and he acknowledged a loss of 75 men. He declared that the insurgents were 2,000 strong.

Cuban reports state that the Spaniards lost over 300 men, 75 being prisoners, and that the Cuban loss was not over 35. Parc notified Weyler that he would exchange his prisoners for an equal number of Cuban prisoners, and that if any Cubans are killed he would retaliate on the soldiers captured.

GREEK GOVERNMENT

Decides to Take Prompt and Decisive Action in the Cretan Trouble.

ATHENS, Feb. 12.—The government has formulated a notification to the powers setting forth that Greece can not remain a mere spectator of the events which are taking place in Crete, and that the ties of race and religion compel her to intervene in behalf of oppressed and outraged Christians in that island. In the chamber of deputies Premier Delyannis said that either the port would be prevented by the powers from sending reinforcements to Crete or would persist in sending them there.

KING GEORGE OF GREECE.

In either case, the premier declared, the Greek government had decided to take action promptly and decisively. When Crete demanded a union with the mother country he said Greece could not remain indifferent. At the conclusion of remarks by M. Delyannis, the leader of the opposition assured the premier that the government would have the heartiest support of the opposition, which assurance evoked prolonged cheers.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 12.—The porte has communicated by telegraph with the powers asking their support in the efforts of Turkey to restore order in Crete, and the ambassadors are conferring upon the question of exerting concerted pressure upon Greece to compel the recall of the Greek fleet from Cretan waters.

CANEA, Crete, Feb. 12.—It is stated on good authority that the governor of Crete, Georgi Pasha Berovitch, is desirous of resigning his office, but that the porte has expressed the wish that he should remain here.

The entire Moslem population about the city of Heraklion have entered that place, where they attacked the Christians and pillaged their shops. The prefect of Sitia reports that 300 Moslems have been killed in that district by Christians.

It is reported that the Moslems at Retimo have blown up with dynamite a number of houses owned or occupied by Christians. No mention is made of loss of life being caused by the explosions.

It is reported that the Christians are massacring Moslems in the villages around Sitia and that 13 of the villages are burned.

The Paris Bourse Panicky.
PARIS, Feb. 12.—A very panicky feeling prevailed at the opening Thursday morning, but later there was an improvement on the report that the powers intended to prevent Greece from intervening in the Cretan trouble.

GEN. GOMEZ

Says They Will Continue to Fight Until the Independence of Cuba is Won.

KEY WEST, Fla., Feb. 13.—Five houses were burned in Regia, across the bay from Havana, Thursday night, by a small band of patriots, who dashed into the city at midnight. A Spanish patrol encountered them, and for a few minutes there was a sharp encounter in the streets. Five of the patrol were killed and one wounded. The patriots lost three men killed and four captured. The latter were shot by order of the commander of the patrol a half hour afterward, being lined up at the side of a house with their faces turned to the wall.

GEN. MAXIMO GOMEZ.

Two Cuban residents there were shot for interfering, though they merely made a request that a trial be given the men.

Two battalions of Spanish volunteers are reported in revolt near Mariel over poor food and no pay.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—A dispatch to the Herald from the district of Sancti Spiritus, Santa Clara province, gives the following statement signed by Gen. Maximo Gomez: "The enemies of Cuba have circulated in the United States the rumor that I am disposed to accept autonomy as a basis of settlement or solution of the present war. The constitution of Cuba absolutely establishes in its Article XI, that peace is to be negotiated on the basis of the absolute independence of Cuba. It is to obtain independence that we have been fighting for two years and will continue to fight until victory be ours."

"All the statements which have been heretofore or may be in future published to the effect that we are willing to accept any other solution short of independence should be regarded as false."

HAVANA, Feb. 13.—A dispatch from Port Caibarien, in the Santa Clara province, says that Capt. Gen. Weyler has donated to the public treasury the sum of 2,000,000 francs out of his private funds towards meeting the expenses of the government in prosecuting the campaign against the Cuban insurgents.

MUST HANG.

The Petition for Rehearing in the Jackson and Walling Cases Overruled by the Court of Appeals.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 13.—Jackson and Walling will hang. The court of appeals has overruled a petition for a rehearing.

The decision was to have been handed down at 11 o'clock Friday, but at the last minute before the court convened Friday morning it was decided to delay the official entry in the case.

It is not believed that the governor will hesitate to issue a mandate fixing the time of execution as soon as he shall have received official notice of the court's action, although he is allowed by law 30 days in which to decide the matter.

At the executive office the officials have refused to make public the petitions asking for clemency in the Jackson and Walling cases. It is learned on the outside, however, that attorneys in both cases have asked a hearing before Gov. Bradley. This is against the recently established rule that "no personal interviews for pardons will be allowed."

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 13.—The corpse of R. L. Sharp, aged 50 years, president of the Keystone Milling Co., was found in Forest park Wednesday evening. There was a bullet hole through the brain. The clothing on the corpse was wet and muddy, indicating that an attempt had been made at drowning in the shallow park lake. For a year the deceased has been suffering from nervousness and insomnia. His personal effects were undisturbed and the only explanation is suicide. Deceased lived with his wife and grown daughter at 4496 West Pine boulevard. He was very wealthy and his business affairs were in good condition. Three years ago Mr. Sharp came here from Oswego, Kas. The mills of the company are scattered through the timbered section of northern Arkansas.

IRON AND STEEL

Further Consideration of the Schedule by the Committee.

The Several Paragraphs Relating to Copper, Gold and Silver Restored to the McKinley Rates—Many Other Matters in the Schedule Considered.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—A further consideration of the iron and steel schedule was had Thursday morning by the republican members of the ways and means committee. The chairman laid before the members a letter from the treasury department suggesting that a provision be inserted in the new bill permitting ores containing lead to enter the country in bond and to be assayed at the nearest assay office to the point of destination, instead of collecting the duty at the port of entry. The suggestion was adopted and the duty was fixed at one and one-half cents per pound.

The committee next turned its attention to a number of minor matters in the schedule upon which ad valorem duty is now levied. These include cut nails and cut spikes of iron or steel; horseshoe nails, wire nails, spikes, nuts, washers, and horse, mule and ox shoes; cut tacks, brads or shrips of all kinds, knitting and sewing machine needles, crochet needles and tape needles and all other needles; engraved steel plates, stereotype and electrotype plates and engraved or lithographed plates; railway fish plates, iron and steel rivets, cross cut saws, wood screws, umbrella and parasol ribs, wheels for railway purposes and ingots, cogged ingots, blooms or blanks for same. Upon all of the foregoing the rate was made specific and substantially the same duty was imposed as now exists.

The several paragraphs relating to copper, gold and silver were restored to the McKinley rates. Copper in rolled plates, called braziers copper, sheets, rods, pipes and copper bottoms, also sheathing of yellow metal of which copper is the component of chief value and not composed wholly or in part of iron ungalvanized, 25 per cent ad valorem. Gold and silver bullion and metal thread of gold, silver or other metals, not specially provided for, 30 per cent ad valorem.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—House elections Committee No. 1 Thursday unanimously agreed to the report written by Mr. Bartlett, of Georgia, declaring that the sitting member from the Tenth Georgia district, Mr. Black, is entitled to his seat in the contest brought against him by Mr. Watson, the late populist candidate for vice president. The report shows that the contention raised by Mr. Watson of extensive frauds in Richmond county is not sustained by the evidence.

SPECIAL SESSION

Of the Ohio Legislature to Be Called for the Purpose of Selecting a Successor to Senator Sherman.

CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—A Tribune special from Columbus, O., says: A special session of the legislature is to be called to elect a successor to John Sherman. The call for the meeting of the legislature is to be issued on Friday, March 5, and that body is to convene at 10 a. m. on Tuesday, March 9. The sole purpose of the special session is to be the election of a United States senator to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Sherman and Gov. Bushnell is to be the man. This information has got out from a source that leaves no doubt as to its authenticity. The call for the special session of the legislature is to be issued by Gov. Bushnell from Washington. The governor will of course be at the nation's capital on March 5 to attend the inaugural. On March 5, according to the usual custom, the newly inaugurated president will send names of members of his cabinet to the senate for confirmation, and Gov. Bushnell will be conveniently at hand to personally receive Mr. Sherman's resignation. Then the call for the special session of the legislature is to be issued. The announcement from Canton that there will be no more appointments made for the cabinet before inauguration, lends color to the view that a place is being kept for Hanna.
