It is about definitely settled that Mark Hanna will not go into McKinley's Cabinet, but will contest in the Legislature next Winter for United States Senator.

When the Turks were murdering the Christians in Armenia the Powers were so slow about interfering that they did not interfere at all; but when the Christians began murdering Turks in Crete the Powers were prompt and decisive in their action.—[Exchange.]

A DISPATCH from Havana tells of two exploits of the Cubans, in which they were practically successful. In one instance they wrecked a pay train and secured $600,000, and in the other they had an engagement in which they inflicted twice as much loss as they sustained. It is evident that Weyler is away from Havana. Under his censorship so much news was never allowed to escape.

THE Powers have addressed a collective note to Greece, demanding the withdrawal of her forces from the island of Crete, coupled with the warning that if the demand is not complied with the port of Piræus will be blockaded and general hostilities commence. It is understood that Greece has informed the Powers that she is unable to reverse her policy. The Greeks have captured Fort Aghia, and the Turks are preparing to send a fleet. See dispatches on second and third pages.

GOV. BRADLEY has named Saturday March 20, as the date for the execution of Scott Jackson and Alonzo Walling, and states that he will never, during his term as Governor, name Friday as the date for an execution. He thinks there should be no one certain day for hangings, and is thoroughly opposed to the old idea that all such affairs should occur on Friday. Gov. Bradley's right and THE NEWS heartily commends him for his excellent judgment in the matter. See Frankfort dispatch on second page.

RENTFROW'S JOLLY PATHFINDERS.
 The Maysville Bulletin Tuesday said of Rentfrow's Jolly Pathfinders, who begin a week's engagement Monday night at the Paris Grand opera house, in "Below Zero:"
 "With an audience that packed the opera house from pit to dome, the Rentfrow company were greeted last night. The opening bill, "Below Zero," certainly pleased the crowd. The specialties were all new and clever. The dancing of Miss Grace Rentfrow was the best seen here this season. Jap Rentfrow as the "tramp" was true to life, and a character that kept the audience in a continual round of applause. J. N. Rentfrow, as Harry Meek, was realistic as the hen-pecked husband. Bert Hodgkins, Harry King, Edmund Brussels and in fact every member of the company are first-class artists.
 "The orchestra was heartily applauded, and rendered some excellent selections."
 "The Jolly Pathfinders are the best repertoire company that has been here in years."

Former Parisian James Ray McCann was the magnet which drew a large and appreciative audience to the opera house Tuesday night, the occasion being Mr. McCann's first professional appearance in his native city. The play was the "Shadows of A Great City," melodrama which possesses human interest and many thrilling scenes. Mr. McCann was seen in the leading role of Tom Cooper and cleverly did he fulfill the expectations of his many old friends. At once handsome, talented and manly, Mr. McCann gave a splendid interpretation of the heroic sailor. He reads his lines intelligently in good voice and certainly deserves the success which earnest and tireless work have enabled him to attain. Lizzie Kendall (Mrs. McCann) did a neat piece of character acting in the role of good natured Biddy Roman. Julia Stuart did very effective work in dual role of Alice Standish and Nellie, and the part of Jim Farren was well cared for in the hands of Arda La Croix. Mr. McCann's friends are proud of his success and trust that better things are yet in store for him.

The Rev. John B. Culpepper at the Washington Street M. E. Church, Kansas City, caused a sensation Sunday by proposing a tax on bachelors. "When a man is 22 and unmarried," said he, "he ought to be taxed $100; when 23 he should be taxed $200. The tax should be increased $100 a year until he is thirty. Then, if he is not married, he ought to be put in the penitentiary. The average man who lives to thirty unmarried is not fit to marry a pure woman."

The Maysville Ledger Tuesday printed the following "thirteen" incident concerning Rentfrow's Pathfinders: "The unlucky '13' has another eye in mourning. The sale of tickets for last night's show at the opera house opened on the 13th, with the 13th set of tickets, as it was the 13th entertainment given this season—and it would have been impossible to have gotten another small boy into the building."

The Colorado Legislature yesterday passed a theatre hat bill, the three women representatives voting for it. The bill provides for a penalty of $10 for the first offense of wearing a high hat in a theatre and as high as $50 in aggravated cases.

"DR. MILES,
 Through His Nervine Is a Benefactor to Thousands."

A WIDELY known Wisconsin publisher, who resides at Green Bay, writes March 6th, 1895, as follows:
 "Five years ago I became so nervous that mental work was a burden. I could not rest at night on account of sleeplessness. My attention was called to Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and I commenced to use it with the very best effect. Since then I have kept a bottle in my house and use it whenever my nerves become unstrung, with always the same good results. My son also takes it for nervousness with like never failing success. I have recommended it to many and it cures them. All who suffer from nerve troubles should try it. It is free from narcotics, perfectly harmless, and yet soothes and strengthens. Dr. Miles, through his Nervine is a benefactor to thousands."
