III From Blood Poisoning.

Hungry Thieves.

BOLD thieves have been operating lately in Bourbon. They butchered and stole three shoats from the farm of Hon. C. M. Clay, Jr., the other night. Mr. Clay offers $50 reward for evidence that will convict the thieves. Thieves also stole thirty-five hens several nights ago from Young Moran.

Several nights ago a thief entered the kitchen at C. A. Daugherty's, on Mt. Airy, and stole one of the two pans of uncooked rolls which had been made up for breakfast.

Toll-gate Raiders At Work.

IN Fleming county Thursday night sixty men removed five toll-gates. The raiders went at their work quietly, making no effort to conceal their identity. At the first gate the raiders made the gate-keeper furnish the ax to destroy the gate. The raiders say they propose to push the matter to a finish, and will not stop until all the gates are made free. They have warned the keepers not to collect any more toll, and have threatened to wait on the County Judge and County Attorney.

Turapike raiders resorted to arson in Lincoln county Friday night. They burned the toll house on the Hall's Gap pike, where toll was being collected after the gate had been twice removed.

Sunday night raiders committed a diabolical deed near Harrodsburg. They set fire to a toll-house and at the point of a pistol compelled Mr. Erricon, the gatekeeper, to stay in the house until the roof was ready to fall in. It is reported that Cal Atkinson was shot while defending his gate.

The Bourbon County Infirmary.

THE report of Clarence Huff, keeper of the Bourbon County Infirmary, shows that the total expenditures for the year ending March 1, 1897, were $4,017.71. Of this amount the sum of $1,470.58 was expended for furniture, supplies, farming utensils, horses, cows, etc., the stock now at the place; $160.30 for permanent improvements, and $506 for live stock and poultry; $800 salary to Mr. Huff, and $178 for services of a farm hand. The total expenditure—$4,017.71—is about a $1,000 less than it was the previous year. There are 39 inmates—24 white and 15 colored—at the infirmary. The male inmates have lately built a macadam road from the infirmary to the Millersburg, Ruddles Mills and Cynthiana Turapike, and have assisted in the farm work.

A Literary Event.

ONE of the most interesting literary events of the season will be Dr. Leon H. Vincent's lecture Thursday evening at the Court house on "Emerson, The Man." Dr. Vincent is too well known to require commendation by THE NEWS. The lecture will be under the auspices of the Paris Literary Club and is one of a delightful series to be given by Dr. Vincent. The other dates and subjects are: March 26, "Thoreau and His Wooden Inkstand;" April 2, "Lowell as a Critic and Letter Writer;" April 9, "Oliver Wendell Holmes." Course tickets, $1; single tickets, 35 cents. These lectures should be liberally patronized.

Prof. Boone in Cincinnati.

A DISPATCH from Cincinnati says: Prof. Ed Boone, the hypnotist, will try to hypnotize either Jackson or Walling to find out where the head of Pearl Bryan was concealed after the night of the murder.

He believes that Jackson has hypnotized Walling, and that if he shall be permitted to talk to the prisoners separately he would be able to bring Walling out of his hypnotic state.

Boone, during the last week, has been employed as an operator by a local detective agency, and is now in Cincinnati.

Jim Ingels, Edgar (Matt) Minter, Frank Jacobs and Chas. Dudley, wheeled to Cynthiana via Newtown and Leesburg, Sunday.

The Commercial-Tribune says of an ex-Paris player: Captain Ewing has the highest regards for Mike Kehoe's ability as a ball player. He thinks that he has the making of a star catcher. "I like the way Kehoe goes at his work. He is always on the go. If he ain't catching one of the pitchers he is working in the outfield. I hope that Mike will show speed enough to justify me to keep him in Cincinnati," is what Buck said regarding Mike.
