SIR KNIGHTS JAS. STUART, C. F. Dilake, Hugh Montgomery, Dan Peed, John Feeney and J. M. Lemon, of the Couer de Leon Commandery, of this city, assisted the Cynthiana Commandery in degree work last night, and were afterwards entertained with a banquet.

EVERY service of "Uncle" Joe Hopper's meeting at the Second Presbyterian Church is being attended by large audiences who enjoy the earnest sermons to the fullest extent. The meeting will continue over Sunday. Services in the morning at 10:30 and evening at 7:30. Prayer meeting for women only held at 2:30 p. m.

CHAS. SHEA, messenger for the Postal Telegraph Company, in this city, is showing considerable talent as an artist—in drawing and working in clay. In a short time Tuesday he made an excellent figure of Corbett, in fighting attitude, and he has lately made figures of Cleveland, Bryan and McKinley. He is now working on a bust of Lincoln.

ELD. J. S. SWEENEY, of this city, has by his physician's advice cancelled engagements to deliver two addresses in June at the California State meeting of the Christian Church at San Francisco; and two addresses before the annual meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E., in another California city. Eld. Sweeney's physician has advised him to refrain from all work and take a long vacation until his health is restored.

"The New Woman and The Old Man."

COL. G. W. BAIN, a gifted Kentuckian, who has won National fame as a lecturer, will deliver his newest lecture, "The New Woman and The Old Man," Monday night at the court house. Like all of Col. Bain's efforts this will be bright, entertaining and eloquent, and will prove a pleasant evening's entertainment. Admission, thirty-five cents. Tickets may be procured from any member of the Union, or at Brooks' drugstore.

Police Court Topics.

FRANK ROBINSON, white, and Joe Humphrey, black, indulged in a court day scrap Monday and repented in Judge Webb's court. The evidence being black and white, was convicting, and the fight cost Robinson $7.50 and Humphreys $10. Jeff Bishop paid $5 for the privilege of being drunk on the streets.

Work of Tollgate Raiders.

OUT of fifty-one tollgates in Fleming county nearly forty of the number have been removed by raiders, and threats of violence were made to all of the keepers of gates visited. Eleven gates were taken Sunday morning about one o'clock by a mob of forty men divided into two squads. The county attorney tried to organize a posse to apprehend the raiders but could not get enough men to undertake the job.

Four raiders destroyed a gate in Madison, Sunday night and seriously wounded with a rock the gate-keeper who tried to protect the property. The keeper fired several times at the raiders but did not kill any of them.

The Garrard county anarchists who have been destroying toll gates are now attempting to regulate the price of flour. A warning was sent to a miller threatening to make it unpleasant for him if he persisted in charging more than a certain price for flour. The miller, however, will continue to manage his own business. County Judge Burnside has also received a threatening letter.

Threats have been made to tear down toll-gates on the gravel roads in McCracken county.

After a short suspension raiders again renewed their depredation on the toll-gates in Nicholas county Wednesday night. Four poles were removed at Sharpburg, Upper Licks, Bramblet and Locust Grave. They mistreated a gatekeeper and threatened to burn the houses and kill the other keepers if any more toll was collected.

BRUSSELLS carpets, 39 cents, at J. T. Hinton's.

Walsh's New Distillery.

MANAGER H. D. HAYNES, of the Paris Distilling Company, went to Covington yesterday to complete arrangements for building a new $15,000 distillery in this city on the site now occupied by the Paris Distilling Company's distillery, owned by N. J. Walsh, of Covington.

The new building will be a brick structure four stories in height, 225 feet long and 154 feet wide. The front and arches will be of iron and the floors cement. The work of tearing down the old distillery will be commenced to-day, and the new building is expected to be completed by July 1st.

The new distillery will use a process discovered by Mr. Haynes by which more whiskey can be distilled from a given amount of grain than is gotten by the process now in use.

The Paris Distilling Co. has warehouse room for 60,000 barrels, and has 40,000 barrels in the rooms. The distillery has not been running for some time.

In Squire Lilleston's Court.

YESTERDAY in Squire Lilleston's court Ed. Sharpe was held over in $100 bond for trial by Circuit Court on the charge of hitting Will Wright on the head with a slung shot with intent to kill. Both men are negroes. The assault occurred in jail and was provoked by Wright's singing and whistling which annoyed Sharpe.

Bob Prather, who was arrested in Mason by Deputy U. S. Marshal Perry Tucker for stealing a horse from John Johnson, of Crane Ridge, pleaded guilty, and was held over for trial by the Circuit Court. His bond was fixed at $500, in default of which he was taken to jail. The horse was recovered in Mason by Marshal Tucker.

LAST night at the court house Mr. Leon Vincent delivered the fourth of his series of lectures given under the auspices of the Paris Literary Club. The subject was "Oliver Wendell Holmes" and was charmingly handled by the polished, witty and eloquent lecturer, who held the closest attention of the audience. It is to be hoped that Mr. Vincent will be secured for another series of lectures in Paris.

PRICES on ingrain carpets lower than the lower than the lowest. Quality better than most peoples'. Do not be deceived by flashily worded advertisements. I have as big a stock as you can find in Kentucky and will sell as cheap as you can buy anywhere. J. T. HINTON.

—Mrs. Rachael Crosthwaite and granddaughter, Miss Fessie Breeden left yesterday for New Paris, Ohio. Miss Breeden, one of Bourbon's handsomest and most amiable young ladies, who has lately been making her home with Mrs. Crosthwaite, will in future reside with her mother, Mrs. W. W. Aker. Mrs. Crosthwaite will probably remain in New Paris.

—Hon. C. M. Thomas and wife sailed Wednesday from Marseilles for New York and are expected to arrive in this city the latter part of next week. Mr. Thomas resigned his position as American Consul at Marseilles about six weeks ago. They will be warmly welcomed home by hundreds of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas are being accompanied to America by Miss Sallie Withers, of Lexington, who has been abroad for several months.

A Clever Entertainer.

PROF. WILLIS IRWIN, of Cincinnati, who is said by the press to be an exceedingly clever monodram artist, will give one of his novel entertainments Tuesday night at the court house under the auspices of the Methodist ladies. The admission fee will be thirty-five cents. Prof. Irwin delighted a Cynthiana audience last week, and was unhesitatingly praised by competent critics.

Rev. H. M. Scudder, of Carlisle, commends Mr. Irwin as follows to Carlisle people: "I do not hesitate to commend the entertainment to be given by Mr. Willis Irwin on the 15th, as a unique combination of instructive and pleasing such as is rarely furnished. Having had the privilege of hearing him on his last visit to Carlisle, I am persuaded that he is deserving of the plaudits he has received from the press of the country and from the cultivated audiences he everywhere delights. The ladies of the Christian Church have done well in securing him."

You should see the line of matting J. T. Hinton is showing. Nobody can touch him. Prices from 8 1/2 cts. per yard, up.

NUPTIAL KNOTS.

The K. P. A. Annual Meeting.

THE Executive Committee of the Kentucky Press Association will meet in a few days to arrange for the annual meeting of the Association which will be held at Middlesboro, in June. After the editors have transacted the business of the association, and enjoyed the banquet and ball at Middlesboro, they will take a trip to Nashville and view the Centennial sights. This promises to be a very pleasant junket for the newspaper boys.

Echoes Of The Street.

"The electric car project should not be given up because a few croakers say it will not pay," remarked an enterprising citizen yesterday. "There are always persons who cry down every proposed enterprise. The road should be built—it will pay and its construction will give work to fifty or seventy-five men."

"If I fall and break my leg on this pavement," said a Main street man, as he passed through Eighth street, between Main and Pleasant, "I shall certainly sue for damages. This sidewalk is a disgrace to Paris and a danger to pedestrians."

Bystanders at the Paris postoffice could easily tell it was a love letter she expected—and didn't get. She sighed as she turned from the general delivery window. "Sigh on, poor heart, but do not break," remarked an impudent drummer. "Think on, poor fool, but do not speak," retorted the maid, her eyes flashing angrily. And the drummer didn't speak for two minutes—but he thought several things.

Said a Paris merchant yesterday: "I know twenty men who will contribute to a fund to send to Africa the burly negro man who makes himself obnoxious by shrill whistling, alleged imitations of animals, loud laughing, and frightening small children. The impudent and disgusting fellow should be declared a nuisance and squelched by the city authorities."

FOR SALE.

SIXTY PEWS out of the Paris Methodist Church. Half of them are eight feet long and half six feet long. Each pew has one panel, pine end, and cherry molding. Seat is poplar and back is pine. The 8 ft. pews meet in the middle against a board partition, thus making a row 16 ft. long. The 6 ft. pews fit against the wall and form a row on either side. They are good pews. Price $3.50 per pew. They are quite cheap at that. E. G. B. MANN, Paris, Ky.
