Remarkable Cats.

As one good turn deserves another, so one remarkable cat story brings out another. Sunday a conscientious Parisian told THE NEWS of a Mt. Airy cat, of the masculine gender, which stole four young kittens and brought them to his home Sunday morning. Besides having a foster father in the Tom cat a Plymouth rock hen is now setting on the same kittens and is a kind step-mother to them. The strange family spent a happy Easter together.

But speaking of cats, one of the smartest felines in Paris is Peter Pete, who lives at C. B. Mitchell's grocery. Saturday at 4 p. m. George Mitchell chased a mouse behind a box under a counter. Peter Pete was awakened and told about the matter. He watched the hiding place until 8 p. m. and caught the mouse. Peter Pete is also an acrobat and a bird catcher and drinks soda water, and refuses to accept anything but the home-made chocolate flavor—for which Mitchell's fountain is noted.

An Interesting Meeting Closed.

THE recent very interesting meeting in the Second Presbyterian Church, in which the pastor was assisted by the well-known and popular evangelist, the Rev. Joseph H. Hopper, was closed last Sabbath evening, after a continuance of two weeks. And though the weather was unfavorable during the greater part of the time, the attendance was always remarkably good, and on several occasions the church, which is one of the largest in the city, was filled to its utmost capacity, and a deep interest was manifested in all the services at all times. All the various congregations manifested the kindest interest and were largely represented. The church was greatly revived and strengthened—there were eight additions to the membership—and it is believed that the meeting will be memorable for its general and lasting benefits.

The following persons were baptized on the last days of the meeting, viz: Miss Mary Lawrence Holt, Miss Martha Davenport Clay, Miss Mary Mitchell Woodford, Miss Mamie Ray Allison and Miss Mary Agnes Quinby.

L. & N. Improvements.

THE L & N. will shortly improve its line between Cincinnati, Paris and Richmond by replacing the sixty-pound rails now in use with seventy pound rails. This is done in anticipation of increased traffic, and will greatly improve the road.

Two new passenger coaches have been placed on Conductor W. H. Kirby's passenger train, which makes the morning run to Lexington, returning to Paris at 6:30 p. m. The coaches have wire arm-guards attached to the side of the windows to prevent thoughtless passengers from being injured by thrusting their arms too far out while passing through the tunnels—and then suing the company for damages.

ELD. Z. T. SWEENEY, whom Gov. Blount recently appointed Fish Commissioner of Indiana, recently made a successful trip to Shelbyville, Ind., on official business. While driving near that city to investigate the outrageous destruction of fish by dynamite, he heard an explosion and hurried to the scene of the report. Eld. Sweeney discovered nearly a carload of fish, says a dispatch, floating on the water. Four of the dynamiters were caught and landed in jail.

Some Air Ship Stories.

PEOPLE in various portions of Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky claim to have seen an airship sailing over cities and towns last week. Citizens of Russellville and Allensville say they saw it Friday night and three Lexington men swear that they saw it land near the Cincinnati Southern railroad trestle the same night. The men—Geo. Alverson, a butcher, and Alex Oxford and Chas. Hunter, railroad employes—say they conversed with the lone occupant of the ship, who got out to get a bucket of water. They say that the ship sailed away toward Richmond.
