Turney Bros. Horse.

TURNERY BROS.' Derby horse Dr. Catlett ran second in the Clark stake, which was won at Louisville Wednesday by Ornamet. Turney Bros got $350 out of this race besides taking $100 purses with Pete and The Socman. The latter was entered to be sold at $800 but was "boosted" to $1,400 by Jockey Griffin, when Ed. Simms raised him $5 and got the horse. Mr. Simms later let Turney Bros. have the horse at that price.

Will End To-morrow.

THE long and tiresome campaign for the Democratic nomination for county offices will end to-morrow in the primary election. The canvass has been persistent but there has been little ill-feeling so far engendered among the candidates or voters. The indications are that a fair sized vote will be polled, but it is a wise man who can pick the winners. The candidates for County Judge will speak to-night at the court house.

You will be surprised and greatly pleased when you learn the prices on straw matting at J. T. Hinton's. Immense display now in the show windows—see them.

Important Notice To Voters.

FRANKFORT, KY., May 17, 1897.

MISS KATE EDGAR, Paris, Ky. Dear Madam:—There can be no doubt as to the legal right of women to serve as County Superintendents.

I have talked with Judge Taylor (the Attorney General) on the subject on different occasions and he thoroughly agrees with me in this opinion. Very respectfully, W. J. DAVIDSON, State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The Kentucky Chautauqua.

The tenth annual session of the Kentucky Chautauqua Assembly will be held at Woodland Park, Lexington, June 29th and continues eleven days.

Among the many interesting attractions will be Gen. John B. Gordon, Henry Watterson, Prof. W. D. McClintock, Rev. Thos. Dixon, Fred Emmerston Brooks, Geo. W. Bain, Rev. Dr. Parkhurst, Saxton's band, Rock band, two quartettes, Maxmillian Dick, violinist, and other noted entertainers.

The Toll-gate Problem.

As everybody expected, the Mercer grand jury failed to indict the tollgate raiders arrested last week. The courts seem to be powerless to cope with the raiders.

The raiders continue their depredations in Bath county.

Mason county will vote in November to issue bonds to free the turnpikes. Raiders have ruined the value of toll roads in that county.

The Woodford County Fiscal Court has made free four more turnpikes, two acquired by purchase and two by donation.

WHEEL NOTES.

Ex-President Harrison now rides a bike.

Maysville wheelmen will have a road race next Thursday from Maysville to Flemingsburg.

Eddie Bald defeated Owen Kimble, the Louisville rider, Monday at the Fountain Ferry track. Bald won only by a few inches.

As horse racing has long been called the "sport of kings" so will cycling be known as a "recreation of royalty." Among the late converts to the bicycle are the king and queen of Wurtemberg, the Princess Paulina, the Czar of Russia, Li Hung Chang, and the Ameer of Afghanistan.
