Riley Will Go On The Block.

THE Enquirer said yesterday: Colonel W. E. Applegate, the turf magnate, said yesterday that Riley Graman, the famous plunger, in a recent letter, expressed himself as "done" with making sensational plays. "Riley is going to confine himself to legitimate and conservative bookmaking from now on," said the Colonel. "The idea that he is short in funds is an erroneous one. Riley lost a great deal of money at San Francisco this winter, but he is still possessed of a small sized fortune. He has all the way from $25,000 to $35,000 left. He has doubled up with Harry Harris, and they are booking together."

The State College.

OUR State College closes next Thursday morning—June 3. We would be gratified to see Bourbon County well represented.

Bourbon County contributes $600 annually to the State College, and to get value received therefore we must send our young men and women to it.

The Scientific and Mechanical department is truly the fruit of all education. Our Garth fund can be increased in value 100 per cent in connection with our State College. The State of Kentucky invites you; it is your school.

J. B. KENNEDY,
