OBITUARY.

Respectfully Dedicated To The Memory Of The Dead.

Miss Carrie M. Hutchison, the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kern, died Friday night about twelve o'clock after an illness of only a few hours duration, though she had long been in delicate health. Friday afternoon after packing her trunk preparatory to making a visit in Mt. Sterling, she laid down to rest and became unconscious. She was soon discovered and medical aid was summoned, but she never regained consciousness. The deceased was seventeen years old and was a most estimable young lady—modest, gentle, amiable and womanly. Funeral services were held at three o'clock Sunday afternoon by Eld. J. S. Sweeney at the Christian Church, and her remains were laid to rest in the Paris cemetery beneath a profusion of floral tributes. The pallbearers were Messrs. E. O. Fretwell, Thos. Fisher, Amos Turney, Nathan Bayles, Jr., J. J. McClintock, John Roseberry, E. B. Hedges and Frank Walker.

Col. Sanders D. Bruce, of New York a famous ex-Confederate and editor of the American Star Book, and the Turf Field and Farm, was paralyzed at Lexington. His condition is regarded as critical.
