MAJOR T. J. GLENN, trustee of the Jury Fund, is in receipt of the money to pay the Jurors for the February and May terms 1897 of the Nicholas Circuit Court, and requests that they call at Deposit Bank and get the same.

On Thursday night last the passenger depot was set on fire by lightning striking the telegraph wires. The instrument and switch board in the ticket office were destroyed. The fire was put out by H. B. Bryson and others before it did much harm. —[Mercury.]

The Mercury says: "The Fourth of July Celebration on Saturday, July 3rd, in this city, will be a grand gala day, and the program will be full of interest and fun."

The Carlisle Band will furnish plenty of good music.

Two orators will deliver orations. The children, under charge of Mrs. Jas. H. Minogue, will give a fancy patriotic drill.

The State Guards will give a military drill and a sham battle.

The little boys will make a comic march through the streets.

And everybody will have a good time.
