TRANS-POSING PIANO.

Piano Playing Made Easy

To play music in any key other than that in which it is written is difficult for most performers.

Norris & Hyde Pianos

instantly transpose any song to suit any voice. They are the only pianos which transpose a full chromatic octave. With them any player can just as easily play any piece in any or all other keys as in the original key, and any singer can sing any song in exactly that key in which the voice sounds best. Instrumentalists may play in any key easiest for them.

This adds great value to these instruments, which are also superior in all other respects. They suit the most exacting critic, and are endorsed by prominent musicians everywhere. Any child can operate the Movable Key-board, and it cannot be gotten out of order. While pre-eminently instruments for the home, voice teachers, singers, churches, schools, and theaters, find them an indispensable convenience. Our Catalogue No. 55 tells all about them. Send for it free.

We are also Sole Representatives for the Celebrated Steinway Pianos. ERNEST URCHS & CO., 121 and 123 West Fourth St., CINCINNATI.

Operations at the Chancellor quarry have been resumed by the County's rock-crusher and a big lot of rock will be taken out. The extreme dry weather has interfered with the work of the willipus-wallipus. A certain amount of moisture is necessary to the most effective work. John Clay is now at work near the Nicholas line. Main Street will be a very superior road when the work is completed.

We see that Mrs Laurie Wilson James, who now conducts the Female College at Cynthiana, has engaged Miss Annie Rankin, of Bourbon, for Vocal and Instrumental Music teacher. She could not have made a better selection. Twelve years' study at the Millersburg Female College and at the Conservatory of Music, Cincinnati, has made Miss Rankin one of the very best musicians of the land, and her lovely contralto voice, cultivated to the highest degree, enables her to charm an audience as well as to teach with perfect accuracy and ease those committed to her care. We congratulate the College upon such an acquisition.
