WITH the issue THE BOURBON NEWS enters on the eighteenth year of its existence. We believe we have achieved success because we deserved it. We have worked hard and unceasingly, early and late, to give our readers a good service, and shall continue to pursue the same methods.

Our course has at all times been a conservative one, and we are proud to be able to say we have retained on our lists many readers who at times have been at variance with our views.

THE NEWS extends to all its patrons hearty wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year.

SENATOR J. M. THOMAS and representative John T. Hinton left yesterday for Frankfort to be present at the Democratic caucus and assume their duties as members of the Kentucky Legislature. In these two gentlemen Bourbon is represented by two conservative and successful business men who can be depended upon to look after the interests of their constituents.

A Lexington minister preached sermons Sunday at Lexington from the subjects "What Are We Here For," and "Where Are We At." Peter Vinegar is now due for a sermon on the subject "There'll Be A Hot Time In The Old Town To-night."

SENATOR TELLER will this week introduce a resolution in Congress to reaffirm the Stanley Matthews resolutions interpreting the word coin to mean gold and silver, or either, at the option of the government.

THE Hon. James Corbett should address his challenges for the championship to Mrs. Robert Fitzsimmons. She wears the belt in the Fitzsimmons home.

HANNA lost the first round of his fight yesterday. His opponents organized the Senate and House of the Ohio Legislature.

THE Mayor of Milwaukee is a man of letters—and a good many of 'em. His name is Rauschenberger.

THE Cynthiana Democrat is thirty years old, and the Jessamine Journal has rounded out a quarter of a century—but both are as gingery as two-year-olds.

Editor W. T. Havens has sold the Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat to Judge Ben R. Turner and Squire Turner. The new proprietors have been in newspaper harness before, and will keep the paper lively.

Messrs. J. O. Cooper and W. E. Railey have taken charge of the Midway Clipper. THE NEWS wishes them much success.

W. W. Longmooer is writing charming sketches for his paper, the Frankfort Ledger. They are as dainty as water color paintings.

DARKEST AMERICA.

There is a charm in the singing of southern songs by negroes that never fails to please all. Darkest America, the big negro exhibition, to be seen at the opera house, Thursday night, has twenty singers and shouters, to say nothing of other interesting features. The brass band and orchestra, the military company and all the people who take part in the performance are genuine southern negroes. The object of the exhibition is to show the home life of the American negro as it was on the old plantation before the war and as it is at present. Jno. W. Vogel, the organizer of this novel exhibition, has made a study of the negro character, and the performance is given under his personal supervision. A spectacular street parade will be given at noon.

A pretty feature of the Lexington German Club's New Year's cotillion was innovated as the New Year was rung in. At the first stroke of twelve the lights were turned out, to flash away at the last stroke. Then the leader, holding aloft a floral crown of pink and white hyacinths—typical of love and innocence—and announced a number, and stated that the gentleman who held its duplicate should crown some fair lady, other than his present partner, queen of the New Year. Mr. Shreshley Berryman, who held the lucky number, took the wreath, knelt before Miss Genevieve King, of San Francisco, then placed it on her head, and waltzed away with her.

John Philip Sousa, who conducted the Marine Band at Washington for six years at a salary of $30 per week, gets $400 per week in royalties from his opera "El Capitan," and the royalties on his marches net him $25,000 per year. Besides this he gets the lion's share of the earnings of his band. Sousa's mother was a Maryland lady, and he was born in Washington. His father was a noted Spanish musician. Sousa's new opera "The Bride Elect" has made a hit.

J. Waldere Kirk, a New York dude, is spending a few days in Cincinnati, stopping at the St. Nicholas. His mission is to study the style of the swell male dressers of Cincy. Kirk has twenty-six overcoats and innumerable suits. He makes three changes every day.

James Lane Allen, who is now living at Washington, is at work with a new novel. It will be a story of Washington life with a Kentucky flavor. The Choir Invisible is now in its sixtieth thousand.

Slam Jones is stirring things up this week at Owenboro. Sam's slang and sensationalism will make church members "cuss" in most any town.

Patti is fifty-five years old and still receives $4,000 for a concert. She has a castle in Wales and is worth over $1,000,000.

Paderewski, who has been writing an opera, has about completed the work.

Consumption

Will SCOTT'S EMULSION cure consumption? Yes and no. Will it cure every case? No. What cases will it cure then? Those in their earlier stages, especially in young people. We make no exaggerated claims, but we have positive evidence that the early use of

of Cod-liver oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda in these cases results in a positive cure to a large number. In advanced cases, however, where a cure is impossible, this well-known remedy should be relied upon to prolong life surprisingly.

GETTING READY

Every expectant mother has a trying ordeal to face. If she does not get ready for it, there is no telling what may happen. Child-birth is full of uncertainties if Nature is not given proper assistance.

Chronic Dyspepsia Cured.

AFTER suffering for nearly thirty years from dyspepsia, Mrs. H. E. Dugdale, wife of a prominent business man of Warsaw, N. Y., writes: "For 23 years, I was a constant sufferer from dyspepsia and a weak stomach. The lightest food produced distress, causing severe pain and the formation of gas. No matter how careful of my diet I suffered agonizing pain after eating. I was treated by many physicians and tried numerous remedies without permanent help. Two years ago I began taking Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and Nervine. Within a week I commenced improving, and persisting in the treatment I was soon able to eat what I liked, with no evil effects. I keep them at hand and a single dose dispels any old symptoms." Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR.
