GOSSIPY PARAGRAPHS.

Theatrical And Otherwise—Remarks In The Foyer.

Mr. Theodore Hamilton who has for many years been acknowledged as one of the leading actors of this country, has never appeared in a part which has gained him so much fame and favor as that of "Pudd'nhead, in the dramatization of Mark Twain's great story of the South "Pudd'nhead Wilson." The play will be seen here next Friday night, and a strong supporting cast is promised. Mr. Hamilton is probably as well known in the south as any prominent actor of the present day. His early triumphs in the histrionic art were achieved in Washington, where he was born. He was the boyhood friend of Edwin Booth, John Sleeper Clark, Maggie Mitchell and John E. Owens. During the late war Mr. Hamilton served throughout the entire struggle as a Confederate soldier. In later years he has appeared with the leading celebrities of the stage. His Macbeth to Charlotte Cushman's Lady Macbeth is one of the historic portrayals of the role.

One of the most popular young men in Paris society figured in a queer incident the other night. Just after preaching home he discovered that he had lost his night key. He visited the hotels but they were full, so he had to climb a friendly tree to get into his room.

E. S. Willard, the noted English actor, will play "The Middleman" in Lexington, March 5th. Nat Goodwin and Chauncey Olcott will also appear there in March.

Rev. J. H. W. Harris, of New York, has quit the pulpit for the vaudeville stage, and will appear in a one-act burlesque, "Antony and Cleopatra."

We take the liberty of giving THE NEWS an item from a business letter of Mr. C. J. Daniels, of Los Angeles, Cal.: "I don't find money growing on trees, but the climate is very nearly perfect. We have vegetables the year around—plenty of strawberries, beans, radishes, lettuce, etc., now. The days are very much the same as in June in Kentucky. There is a high mountain several miles off. It is covered with snow, and I think I could tell a man on the top. If he was only up there. I saw Henry Butler. He says R. C. Skillman is at Phoenix."

Launching of The Battleship Kentucky.

For the launching of the battleship Kentucky at Newport News, Va., the Chesapeake & Ohio railway will make the following low round trip rates from points named. From Lexington, $12; Winchester, $12; Mt. Sterling, $12; Paris, $12; Frankfort, $12; Richmond, $12.75; Lancaster, $13; Stanford, $12.25.

Correspondingly low rates from all other Central Kentucky points. Reduced rates have been made at the hotels at Newport News and Old Point Comfort, which is only a few miles distant and connected by electric car service.

No other trip ever offered as many soul-stirring events as does this one.

People from inland Kentucky have the rare opportunity of witnessing combined army and navy life at the most historic spot in the United States.

Think of the great events associated with this place: The landing of the Jamestown settlers, the Pocahontas and Capt. John Smith incident, Cornwallis surrendering his British forces, the battle of the Monitor and Merrimack, and last, but in the same class, the launching of the most powerful battleship in our navy, and it will be called "Kentucky." Think of it.

As soon as the date of launching is settled on, it will be given wide publicity in the papers. Make your plans.

Through sleepers will run from Lexington. For detailed information write or call on any agent or Geo. W. Barney, District Passenger Agent, Lexington, Ky.

Beware Of the Knife.

Mr. Lincoln Nelson, of Marshfield, Mo., writes: "For six years I have been a sufferer from a scrofulous affection of the glands of my neck, and all efforts of physicians in Washington, D. C., Springfield, Ill., and St. Louis failed to reduce the enlargement. After six months' constant treatment here, my physician urged me to submit to a removal of the gland. At this critical moment a friend recommended S.S.S., and laying aside a deep-rooted prejudice against all patent medicines, I began its use. Before I had used one bottle the enlargement began to disappear, and now it is entirely gone, though I am not through with my second bottle yet. Had I only used your S.S.S. long ago, I would have escaped years of misery and saved over $150."

This experience is like that of all who suffer with deep-seated blood troubles. The doctors can do no good, and even their resorts to the knife prove either fruitless or fatal. S.S.S. is the only real blood remedy; it gets at the root of the disease and forces it out permanently.

PUBLIC SALE

OF VALUABLE

Bourbon Co. Land

BOURBON CIRCUIT COURT.

M. H. Current, Plaintiff, vs.
S. L. Yager, etc., Defendants.

In obedience to a judgment and order of sale in the above styled case rendered at the December term, 1897, of the above court, the undersigned will, as Special Commissioner, expose to sale to the highest bidder, at the Court-house door, in Paris, Kentucky, on

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1898, at 2 o'clock p. m., standard time, a valuable Bourbon County farm, containing 245 Acres.

DESCRIPTION—This land is known as the Butler-Hall farm. It is located on the turnpike connecting the Jackstown and Cane Ridge turnpikes. The soil is of the celebrated Cane Ridge variety, noted for its strength and productivity. The farm has on it a splendid two-story frame house of ten rooms, and with all necessary outbuildings. It has two barns; one of them a tobacco barn large enough to house, with ease, ten acres of tobacco, and a large stock barn recently arranged for the special care of fine horses. All of the land is susceptible of cultivation, and there is no better tobacco land in Bourbon County. It adjoins the farms of James Clay, Webb Keynolds and Thomas Woodford, and the neighborhood is noted for its healthfulness and the morality of its people. The land will be offered in two tracts, one tract of 100 acres adjoining the lands of James E. Clay, and the other 145 acres containing the dwelling and improvements, and then it will be offered as a whole.

TERMS—The land will be sold upon a credit of six, twelve and twenty-four months, and the purchaser or purchasers will be required to execute bonds with approved surety, bearing interest from day of sale, or the purchase money may be paid upon the confirmation of the sale.

Mr. James H. Letton, who resides on the Jackstown pike at the intersection of the short pike above referred to, and within one mile of the land, will take pleasure in showing prospective purchasers over the farm, giving them the metes and bounds, or they may call at the law office of J. Q. Ward and Harmon Stitt, in Paris, Kentucky, who will give them all the information desired.

The sale is absolute and the title perfect, and the proceeds arising from the sale is an asset belonging to the assigned estate of M. H. Current, and the creditors of that estate are urgently requested to attend the sale and do all they can to protect their interests. This farm will afford a delightful and profitable home to those who are seeking farm land, or a fine investment for capitalists, as the rate at which said land rents will furnish a good return on the investment.

Possession given March 1st, 1898.

H. C. CURRENT,
Special Commissioner and Assignee.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

All persons having claims against C. F. Clay, deceased, will present the same, properly proven according to law, to the undersigned Administrators.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to C. F. Clay, deceased, will please settle promptly with the Administrators.

B. J. & S. B. CLAY,
Administrators of C. F. Clay, deceased.
