

Miraculous Benefit RECEIVED FROM Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure.

ELI P. BABCOCK, of Avoca, N. Y., a veteran of the 3rd N. Y. Artillery and for thirty years of the Babcock & Munsel Carriage Co., of Auburn, says: "I write to express my gratitude for the miraculous benefit received from Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I suffered for years, as result of army life, from sciatica which affected my heart in the worst form, my limbs swelled from the ankles up. I bloated until I was unable to button my clothing; had sharp pains about the heart, smothering spells and shortness of breath. For three months I was unable to lie down, and all the sleep I got was in an arm chair. I was treated by the best doctors but gradually grew worse. About a year ago I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and it saved my life as if by a miracle."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

GOSSIPY PARAGRAPHS.

Theatrical And Otherwise—Remarks In The Foyer.

"MY FRIEND FROM INDIA." That most amusing farce, "My Friend From India," which will be seen to-morrow night at the Paris Grand Opera House, comes with the prestige of being the funniest and most popular farce now before the public. The fun is clean and wholesome and fast and furious, and the piece does not depend upon the usual songs and dances to hold the interest of the audience, for there is not a dull moment in the play. The editor of THE NEWS saw the piece produced in New York and unhesitatingly recommends it to the theatre-goers of Paris. The sale of seats is now in progress at Brooks' drug store, and it is expected that "My Friend From India" will be greeted by a large crowd.

The remains of Margaret Mather were buried at Detroit. She was buried in the gown she wore as Juliet, which was of white satin, trimmed with pearls. Her coffin was covered with white hyacinths and Easter lilies. The pall-bearers were chosen from members of Otis Skinner's Co. and The Geisha Co. Miss Mather left a five-year old daughter which is with it's father, Gustave Pabst.

Cha. Scott, the capable manager of the Lexington opera house, will leave to-morrow for New York to book attractions. His attractions for next season will be better than ever.

Wm. Barry, the clever Irish comedian, who has been seen here in McKenna's Flirtation and "The Rising Generation," died in New York Friday.

Primrose & West have dissolved partnership, and Primrose and Lew Dockstader will be partners next season in a new minstrel company.

Creston Clarke, who appeared here early this season, has made a distinct hit in New York, in "The Last of His Race."

Lillian Russell is under contract for a concert tour through Germany, Austria, Russia and Holland.

Elita Proctor Otis will go into vaudeville, appearing in a piece called "A Wild Idea."

The Neill Stock Company is playing "Trilby" at the Pike, in Cincinnati, this week.

SUBURBANITE MEMORY.

Devices Employed by Wives to Remind Husbands of Errands.

"Talking of memory systems," said the suburbanite on the accommodation train, "I can't for the life of me see how a man who is unable to remember one thing is helped by having to remember two. If I tie a string around my finger, I must recall the purpose of wearing it, which I never can do. If I must always think of rain when I want to carry an umbrella, I have double work. Now, my wife wanted me to remember something today, and she gave me a word to say over to myself, and I've forgotten the word."

"Pooh! It's easy enough to remember things if you give your mind to it," said another suburbanite. "My wife told me to be sure to order some—now what the mischief was it? Soap? Bluing? Well, that's funny. I thought I would be sure to remember."

He plunged his hands into his overcoat pockets to cover his chagrin and pulled out of one a rough bit of scantling with a memorandum in lead pencil attached.

"Well, I vow! My wife must have stuck that thing in there. Oh, yes, I see. It was a load of kindling she wanted me to order. But one could hardly be expected to remember a thing like that."

"I wish I could find a reminder of what I am to get as easy as you did, but my wife doesn't believe in giving a sample to help out a poor memory. Hello, old fellow, how's that?"

He had pulled a little rubber shoe out of his pocket and was regarding it with loving eyes.

"Sammy's overshoe, by all that's queer! And here's something inside: 'Length, five inches.' Bless his little heart, I'd have forgot all about them if it hadn't been for this memory lesson. There's something in the system after all."—Chicago Times-Herald.

SENT TO SWEAR AGAINST PA.

Because His Ma Didn't Dare to Leave Her Living Seat. He was a mere stripling of a lad. He might have been 7 years of age or he might have been 9. Nobody could tell by looking at his face. The only mark of certainty about the youthful countenance was the sure sign that some of his ancestors had come from old Ireland. The little fellow walked hastily into the office of the warrant clerk of Recorder Finnegan's court. He did not notice the four persons standing in line waiting to get affidavits made out against some bothersome relatives, but the youth pushed through the crowd and disengaged the attention of the clerk with this odd demand:

"I want to make an affidavit against my pa," said he and pushed his little red head around the side of the desk. "You want what?" queried the clerk. "I want to swear against pa," said the boy again. "What has your pa done?" "He has just been in a prizefight with ma."

"Well, why don't your ma swear out the warrant against pa? My boy, you are too young; you won't fill the bill."

"My ma can't come, and she wanted me to fix it up for her."

"Why could she not come?" asked the clerk, getting interested in the youngster's story. He could not imagine why the wife would not be only too willing to swear out the warrant.

"My pa and ma they got in the fight in the kitchen. That is how it happened. My pa made a drive for her, but didn't land, and then my ma she grabbed up the rolling pin and floored the old man. She is now setting on him, holding him down, and that is why she couldn't come to swear against him. She sent me."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Colonel Kit Chinn.

A St. Louis footpad attempted to hold up Colonel Kit Chinn of Kentucky one night recently, and the aforesaid footpad hasn't done anything since. If there is a man on earth whom footpads should shun as a temperate man shuns a blind tiger, that man is Kit Chinn. He is a born fighter, and his favorite weapons are the ones which the Creator endowed him with at his birth. He is one of the few men in Kentucky who hold the use of pistol or knife in contempt and is totally devoid of fear. He has fought a wildcat in the open with nothing but his bare knuckles and come out winner, and it is said that upon one occasion he offered to fight a rattlesnake and give him the first bite.—Glasgow (Ky.) News.

Time's Changes.

"Did you ever," asked the young husband, "have your wife look you in the eye when you came home and ask you if you had not forgotten something?" "Many a time, me boy," answered the old married man. "She does yet. In the early days it used to mean a kiss; now it is usually a reference to wiping my shoes."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Just the Word For Him.

"In your letter to me about the post-office at Sorreltop," said the senator, "you spoke of Higgin's as the 'present incumbence.' You mean, of course, the 'present incumbent.'"

"Incumbence" is the right word, senator," replied the man who was after Higgin's job somewhat stiffly.—Chicago Tribune.

The late Professor George M. Lane, Harvard's greatest Latin scholar, won more fame by composing a bit of doggerel called "The Lone Fishball" than by anything he ever did as an educator. "The Lone Fishball" has been one of the commonest college songs for the last 40 years.

An American lady went into a chemist's shop in Nice and asked for a bottle of the finest perfume sold there. She was informed that the price of the best scent was $25 an ounce.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO. There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you use a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent free by mail, upon receipt of three two-cent stamps to cover cost of postage on the bottle. Mention The Paris (Ky.) News and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer. (25p-1m0)
