Late Frankfort News.

A TELEGRAM from Frankfort says that it has been decided to give Whiteaker Caleb Powers, W. H. Colton and Capt. Davis, charged with being accessories to the murder of Gov. Goebel, a speedy trial.

No new arrests have been made.

Political Chatter.

The sub-committee of the Democratic National Committee, in charge of the arrangements for the National Convention practically completed the arrangements at its meeting in Kansas City Wednesday, and adjourned to meet again May 7. Tammany representatives closed contracts for 125 rooms at one hotel.

Matthew L. Harbeson, law partner of the late Gov. Goebel, was elected to fill the seat in the State Senate made vacant by the assassination of its former occupant, at a special election held in the county of Kenton, Wednesday. His majority, with two precincts estimated, is 508 over his opponent, Leslie Cressley, who ran as a Republican, with the indorsement of the Brown Democrats. Goebel's plurality last November was 2,210. Former Mayor Joseph L. Rhinock, who wanted the nomination which went to Harbeson, exerted his influence to elect Cressley. He was assisted by Judge James P. Tarvin, who aspires to leadership, but their efforts were in vain.

Mentioned For Congress.

State Senator J. M. Thomas, of this city, is receiving much favorable mention as a probable candidate for Congress from this district to succeed Hon. June Gayle. Senator Thomas has made an active State Senator and would make an acceptable Congressman.

Speaker Trimble, of Frankfort, and Hon. John B. Allen, of Lexington, are also being mentioned as probable candidates. Congressman Gayle, it is said, will not be a candidate unless the convention is deadlocked.

A Successful Company.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York gives in to-day's News some interesting figures regarding the funds held for payment of policies.

A comparison shows that this fund exceeds by over one hundred and twenty-five million dollars the combined capital of the Bank of England, Bank of France, Imperial Bank of Germany and Bank of Russia.

The Mutual's large business in Kentucky and Tennessee is a most flattering testimonial to the public's confidence in the company and its agents. Mr. Biscoe Hindman is the agent for Kentucky and Tennessee, and Mr. Wm. Myall is the Paris agent for the company.

Rev. Z. T. Cody, of Georgetown, will preach at the Baptist Church Sunday morning, Rev. Eberhardt will fill Rev. Cody's pulpit in Georgetown.

A column account of the fall of Bloemfontein is printed on page five. Lord Roberts' troops were cheered as they marched in the city.
