STAGE STORIES.

Amusement Announcements, Lobby Chat—Odd Bits of Gossip.

Miss Viola Allen in "The Christian" is the leading theatrical attraction in Cincinnati, this week, appearing at the Grand. The stock company at the Pike is giving an excellent production of "Quo Vadis." The characters are well cast.

"The Little Minister" Company which played here recently, is playing in Louisville this week. Maude Adams finishes her season in Chicago Saturday night and will give up the delightful comedy for a new French play in which Barnhardt has made a hit. She will have a boy's part in the new production.

When Mrs. Marcella Sembrick sails in June for Dresden she will take home $95,000 in good American money which she earned in six months, by appearing seventy times in opera and concert. She has engagements in Berlin, Vienna and St. Petersburg which will bring her earnings up to $100,000 before the season closes.

Religious News.

Mrs. J. D. Booth and Misses Nannie Goff and Edna Talbott were immersed at the Christian Church Sunday night by Eld. Lloyd Darsie after the regular services.

The Easter services at the Catholic Church were attended by an audience which filled the Church to overflowing. The choir composed of Mrs. Fanniebell Sutherland, soprano, Miss Julia O'Brien, alto, Judge H. C. Howard, tenor, and Dr. Frank Fithian, basso, rendered a well selected program in excellent style. Prof. Roode, of Lexington, was the organist.

Special programs were well rendered at the morning and evening services at St Peter's Episcopal Church by the vested choir. Miss Elizabeth Rash, the soloist, sang in excellent voice.

A duet by Miss Blanche Hudson and Mrs. Walter Clark was a pleasing feature of the evening service at the Baptist Church Sunday.

There was no special program of music at the Christian Church Sunday, but the large audience at the morning service was especially favored in hearing a solo by Mrs. Raymond Babcock, of New York. Her selection was "The Holy City," which was beautifully rendered, though she was suffering from a cold. Mrs. Babcock's voice is a wonderfully sweet and clear soprano of great range and volume, which is pronounced by New York's leading teacher to be one of the best voices in that city. Misses Sallie Joe Hedges and Lucy Downey sang a pretty duet at the morning service, and at night Mrs. Sutherland, a Paris favorite, sang a sweet solo in her usual pleasing way.

Mrs. J. V. LITTLE was called to Maysville Saturday by the serious illness of her aunt, Mrs. Ellen Cunningham.
