GEO. McWILLIAMS,

To The Deaf.

A rich lady, cured of her deafness and noises in the head by Dr. Nicholson's Artificial Ear Drums, gave $10,000 to his Institute, so that deaf people unable to procure the Ear Drums, may have them free. Address No. 4,572, The Nicholson Institute, 780 Eight Ave., New York.

The Chinese ask "how is your liver?" instead of "how do you do?" for when the liver is active the health is good. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are famous little pills for the bowels. W. T. Brooks.

GLOBE TELEGRAPH COLLEGE, Lexington, Ky.

Wilmington, Ill., Sep. 21st, 1898.

Dear Sir:—I take great pleasure in adding my testimony as to the efficacy of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin as used in our home. We use it in all cases of Constipation and indigestion. Respectfully, Eva J. Sweet, Nurse. Soldiers' Widows' Home.

Millions will be spent in politics this year. We can't keep the campaign going without money any more than we can keep the body vigorous without food. Dyspepsia used to starve themselves. Now Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and allows you to eat all the good food you want. It radically cures stomach troubles. W. T. Brooks.

Unless food is digested quickly it will ferment and irritate the stomach. After each meal take a teaspoonful of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and will allow you to eat what you need of what you like. It never fails to cure the worst cases of dyspepsia. It is pleasant to take. W. T. Brooks.

Swell Banquet.

The Detroit (Mich.) Tribune of July 19, the day after the M. and M. Stake was won by Lady Geraldine, published the following story of celebration in honor of the victor of the Lady:

"Here's to the health and happiness of Col. Goff and the hope that Lady Geraldine will win the Transylvania." Col. Wilson of Lexington held up a glass of champagne and a score of famous horsemen arose and drained their glasses to the last drop. Then they resumed their seats and the wine flowed again and the blue smoke from choice cigars circled the hundred lights.

The songs of old Kentucky were in the majority. They assisted in removing the label of the State by refusing rare old whiskey and devoting themselves to the wine.

Among those who helped Col. Goff celebrate the victory were: James Butler the millionaire grocer of New York, owned of Anacond, Direct, Klatrwah and a score of others; Col. James E. Clay of Paris, Ky., owner of Gillette, Mahala, Annorean and a member of the old Clay family, respected in war and peace for many decades; Col. H. W. Wilson, of Lexington, Ky., famous in the Blue Grass region for his gallantry; Thomas Keating of California; M. E. McHenry, Joe L. Thayer of Lexington; T. L. Brady, noted Tammany man from New York; Ben Kenney, who gave Nancy Hanks her great record; Charles C. Vanmeter, of Kentucky; Chas. Thomson, Yonkers, N. Y.; "Old Bill" Reilly of Chicago, famous sport; H. S. Lewis, Detroit; Dr. W. H. Kirk, Milwaukee; Harry Hamlin Buffalo, known by horsemen; Charles Burch, Capac, N. Y. Dell Dinehart, Billy Andrews, Editor Will Logan, Jr., F. W. Cole, New York; Fred Beachy, Lexington; Jas. Hukill, Paris, Ky.; Joe Hubinger, the millionaire starch manufacturer of Connecticut; Will Hukill, Paris Ky., and Al Swearingen of Kent city.

THE FARM AND TURF.

News For the Farmer, Trader and Stock Raiser.

George Jacoby, of Hutchison, sold to Frank Bedford, of Paris, 11 head of 1,400-pound cattle, at 5 cents.

In Cincinnati last week, Moore & Everman, of North Middletown, sold 11 hds. of tobacco at $13.25, $10.75, $11.25, $11.50, $11.25, $12.50, $11.70, $10.75, $11.75, $10.75 and $11.75.

Lieutenant Gibson has been fired, and when able for shipment, will be sent from Chicago to Lexington.

Bob Tucker, of Fayette, has three crops of wheat on hand, and is waiting for a dollar man to come around.

The hog crop in Pendleton and adjoining counties are reported very short. A Chicago packer predicts that side meat will bring 16c to 17c wholesale before January 1st.

Clay Bros. sold Surmise, two-year-old colt by Sir Dickson, for $800. He had won two races and is a phenomenal colt.

More than 100,000 bushels of wheat remains unthreshed in the county, and the continued wet weather is very discouraging to those whose wheat is yet in the shock.

Sidney G. Clay has bought 67 feeders to be delivered in October from Hopkins & Bryant at $4.40.

Doug Thomas' Hettie G. won the 2:10 pace, $2,000 purse at Columbus, O., Wednesday. Time, 2:05 1/4, 2:06, 2:06 1/2.

Kind of Winter We Will Have.

"Prof." Asa K. Martin the weather prophet of the Blue Grass, has already prognosticated for the coming winter. Here is the way he says things will go: There will be nineteen snows for this winter, the first falling on November 25, 1900. There will be five zero days. There will be two ice spells. In one ice will be 2 1/2 inches thick and the other 4 inches thick. There will be two big sleets—also, one in December and one in February. There will be a great deal of winter for the poor man, but tough on the coal man. Several days in January the thermometer will be up to 70 and 80 degrees. The first frost will fall September 20, 1900. There will be a heavy snow Christmas week.
