THE FAIR.

STAGE STORIES.

Amusement Announcements, Lobby Chatter—Odd Bits of Gossip.

King Oscar, of Sweden, presented Patti with a jeweled badge the other night as she sang at a charity concert.

Five hundred women pushed and shoved to get to a bargain counter Friday at a Cleveland, O., store, and Miss Mary Weinberg suffered internal injuries and a dislocated shoulder. Mrs. Estelle Stephenson had her wrist broken and face bruised by French heels when she was carried off her feet by the rush.

HOWARD-DORSET CO.

The Howard-Dorset Company began a week's engagement last night at the Grand, presenting the play "A Winning Hand," before a packed house. The company is one of the best repertoire organizations that ever visited Paris and the performance gave good satisfaction. The vaudeville features added to the pleasure of the performance.

To-night the company will play "Papa's Boy," to-morrow night "Eagle's Nest," Thursday night "Circus Girl," Friday night "Fogg's Ferry," and Saturday night "Old Glory." A matinee will be given Saturday, with the admission only ten and twenty cents.
