

THE BOURBON NEWS

(Twenty-first Year—Established 1881.)

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY

WALTER CHAMP, }
SWIFT CHAMP, } Editors and Owners.

Twenty-one Years Old.

With this issue THE BOURBON NEWS enters upon its twenty-first year. On February 1st, 1880 the first issue was printed in the town of Millersburg, by Bruce Champ, father of the present owner. R. S. Porter, now city editor, did the mechanical work. After publishing it a year in that city it was removed to Paris. THE NEWS was a success from the beginning. In the twenty years of its existence it has never missed an issue. While other papers have suspended or deferred publication on account of holidays, etc., THE NEWS has never failed to appear on its regular day of publication. Its object has always been in the past, as it will be in the future, to advocate everything which it thinks will be for the welfare of Paris and Bourbon county and its people. That the people have been appreciative of this is shown by our constantly increasing subscription list and the extreme liberality of our advertisers. To merit the continuance of this patronage will be our aim. Commencing with our next issue, we will discard the patent inside, change the style of the News to a four page folio, and print the entire paper at home. This will give us much more space with which to accommodate our advertisers and enable us to give a different class of reading matter to our subscribers. The serial story which has been running for some time will be continued until its finish.

PROF. TESLA, the electrician, claims that Miss Mars is making goo goo eyes at us.

ANDREW CARNEGIE threatens to create a steel trust to fight the one now in existence. "When Greek meets Greek, then comes the tug of war." The people will get whatever benefits accrue from the struggle.

ENGLAND'S sorrow springs from its realization of the noble character of Queen Victoria and her sincere desire to promote every interest of her subjects. Among all the potentates of this age, she has been the only one to realize that the people are the true foundation of the greatness of the empire.

LIEUT. GOV. GILBERT, the presiding officer of the Indiana Senate, has ruled that the Stillwell resolution concerning the Kentucky fugitives was out of order. An appeal was taken, but the chair was sustained by a party vote with the exception of Mr. Wood, a Republican leader, who refused to vote.

Mr. W. Walton, editor in chief of the Lexington Morning Democrat, has sent in his resignation to the Board of Directors to take effect to-day. Mr. Walton found the duties of daily journalism too severe on his health and was compelled to resign on that account. His successor has not yet been appointed.

ALAS, poor Kentucky. Is there no end to your sufferings? Mrs. Nation, the cyclonic female, who is pulverizing the Kansas saloons, has been discovered to be a Kentuckian, and, worse and worse came from the bluegrass region about Versailles, and oh, horrors, once went to school with our own Joe Blackburn. The camel's back is broken.

MRS. CARRIE NATION has lectured the Governor of Kansas, smashed several yards of plate glass, assaulted a Sheriff, punched and been punched, been horse-whipped, been hauled to a dungeon cell, has made several tons of speeches and a whole series tableaux, scenes, living pictures and trouble, and all because, as she says, "the saloon-keeper stole her husband." There are a whole lot of women in Paris who would give all they possess to be rid of their's. Women are curious critters, anyway.

REPUBLICAN papers, with their usual inconsistency, are comparing the action of Gov. Beckham in sending the militia to Corbin, with that of Gov. Bradley in sending them to Louisville. There is all the difference to be imagined. Gov. Beckham acted on the request of the proper authorities, and by his prompt action prevented a riot with its accompanying bloodshed. Gov. Bradley sent the soldiers to Louisville against the protests of the city and county officials, when about the only use for them was the intimidation of Democratic voters.

THE FARM AND TURF.

News For the Farmer, Trader and Stock Raiser.

At the Hereford sale Friday at Kansas City, Carnation a 3-year-old, brought $3,700. This is said to be the highest price every paid in this or any other country for a Hereford cow.

In the past six weeks, Marion county traders have shipped South, mostly to Atlanta, Georgia, between nine hundred and one thousand mules.

In Clark county James W. Tanner purchased 65 acres of John G. Willis at $100 per acre. Jesse Glover sold to Mate Bean 26 acres for $2,500. Ten shares of Clark County National Bank stock sold at $168.55 per share.

Trading was dull at Lancaster Monday and only a few of the 100 or so cattle at the pens were sold. A few yearlings went at $3.85 and a bunch of heifers at 3c. Mules sold at $75 to $120. Horses dull.

There were fewer cattle on the market at Winchester Monday than ever known before, not more than 150 cattle being on hand. There was a good demand for yearlings and some good ones brought 4 cents. James Engle sold 172 20 steers at 4 cents; a number of heifers sold at 3 to 3 1/2 cents.

Auctioneer Forsyth rented on Wednesday for Claude M. Thomas, receiver, the lands belonging to the estate of Thos. Woodford: 224.81 acres to Prichard & Fretwell, at $4.80 per acre; 116 acres to Redmon Talbott, at $5.40; 74.3 acres to J. D. Ockerman, at $4.60; 147.36 acres, to J. J. Redmon, at $4.75; 132.40 acres to Robert Gilkey, at $5.15; 100 acres to J. D. Ockerman, at $4.70; 147.8 acres to John Goff, at $4.70; 78.58 acres to John Stewart, at $4.05; 30.05 acres to Robt. Gilkey, for $381; warehouse to Robt. Gilkey, at $41. All the lands to remain in grass except the last tract, which is allowed cultivation.

The Cincinnati tobacco market has continued without much change since last report, though by some it was considered the best week of the year. Receipts are still gradually increasing, as are the offerings of the new crop, though the falling off in the sales of old goods keeps the volume of brakes about the same. There was a better distribution of the week's offerings than for a long time, but there is still room for much improvement in this respect.

At the Farmers' and Shippers' House 56 hhd. of Bourbon county tobacco were sold at $4.14 to $10 3/4.

On the Louisville brakes receipts and sales continue to be on a very large scale, with prospects of large sales for some time to come, owing to the accumulation of stocks of new Burley from the country. Receipts this week were 5,552 hhd. against 5,837 hhd. last week, and 5,387 same week last year.

Fine Bourbon Farm FOR SALE.

I will offer at public sale on the premises, on Tuesday, February 12th, 1901,

my farm containing 325 acres, situated in Bourbon County, Ky., near Elizabeth station, on the Kentucky Midland Railroad, six miles from Paris, 14 miles from Lexington, one-half mile from depot, stores, blacksmith shops and post-office. School and churches near. The land is fine for grass and for cultivation. There is on the farm 75 acres of growing wheat, 15 acres rye, 70 acres stubble land, 25 acres orchard, and over 100 acres of grass land which would raise tobacco.

All kinds of fruit in orchard, but mostly peaches, which show a fine prospect for a crop this season. The farm is well watered. A splendid cistern at kitchen door, four wells, three never-failing, and one has been full of water since it was made five years ago, but has never had a pump in it. Also pools, springs and ponds.

The house is a good one, very convenient—I made it to live in. Six rooms, kitchen, store-rooms, pantry, closets and presses, and has just been repaired and nicely painted. A fine flower pit, extra good meat-house servants' house, stable, corn-crib, granary, work-shop, ice-house, carriage houses, hen-houses—in fact, more out-buildings than generally found on a first-class farm.

There is a good turnpike along the front of farm.

Possession can be given March 1st, 1901.

TERMS.—One-third cash, one-third in one year, one-third in two years—last two payments to bear 6 per cent. interest.

Persons desiring to see the place will call on either the undersigned. Sale at 10 a. m.
