STORIES OF THE STAGE.

Coming Attractions, Gossip in the Lobby and Boxes.

NOT A WAR PLAY.

"Private John Allen" is not a war play, and neither author nor actor wish it to be classed as such.

The Italian Government has just completed a telephone line over the Alps making a connection between Rome and Paris.

The newest virtue of the X-ray is said to be the restoration of hair on bald heads.

The contract was recently awarded for a new elevator in the Washington Monument which is the longest elevator run in the world.

The merit reputation for curing piles, sores and skin disease acquired by DeWitt's Haze Salve, has led to the making of worthless counterfeits.

War Mantle, by Stanford, has foaled a chestnut colt by Imp. Escher at the home of Capt. James B. Clay.

You will not have a dental bill to pay for your daughter if you have her use "Antiseptaline" while she is small.

On last Thursday night, while the News force was at work on the Friday's issue of the paper, they were kindly remembered by Mrs. J. H. Creswell with a most delightful lunch.

PERUCHI-BELDENI COMPANY. About the best 10-30-30 cent show which has been at the Grand this season, was the Peruchi-Beldeni Company.

Items of Interest.

Forty miles an hour is the speed maintained by a trolley line running between Nashville, N. H., and Haverhill, Mass. The line will carry passenger, freight and baggage, and probably has the fastest schedule of any similar line in the world.

A natural spring is to be seen bubbling from the top of a trolley pole in Brooklyn, N. Y. The pole is one of the hollow ones, and the water spurts like a regular geyser.

It is reported that water from the Jordan River is being bottled by an American firm and shipped to all parts of the world to be bought by sentimental persons for religious use.

Telephone has been successfully installed on the St. Louis, St. Charles and Western Railroad for the purpose of dispatching the cars.

Carpeted street cars in Los Angeles have, it is said, stopped the disgusting habit of spitting in the cars.

The Italian Government has just completed a telephone line over the Alps making a connection between Rome and Paris.
