The Pan-Am is a Twentieth Century Fair.
Don't say "late style," "up-to-date," but twentieth century. That's an abbreviation for twentieth century. The Pan-American is twentieth century. The Akron Route is also twentieth century. It abbreviates distance to Buffalo. Fares over it are twentieth century. They abbreviate regular rates. But there's no abbreviation to pleasure for those who go to Buffalo, Niagara Falls and St. Lawrence River resorts over the Akron Route. This fact will be made clear by C. H. Hagerly, D. P. Agt., Louisville, Ky., or Geo. E. Rockwell, A. G. P. Agt., Cincinnati, O.

For Sale. - Seven or ten (17) shares of stock in Park, Ky., Water Company at a bargain, as I wish to use the money. A good prospective investment. For particulars address
Geo. W. JENKINS,

Malden, Mass.

Half Rates to Kansas City.

Iceland Produces coal.
A Copenhagen correspondent writes that a firm in that city has exhibited the first samples of coal from the large Icelandic coal bed recently discovered at Nordfjord. The coal is considered equal in quality to Northumbrian. Samples are being sent to the Danish Royal Agricultural society to be examined; also to Stockholm and Christiania. It is expected that the new coal bed will be valuable, at any rate, for local purposes.

But First China Must Pay, Pay, Pay.
There is a growing disposition among diplomats, says the Washington Star, to let China settle down and try to save up some money.

THE HOUSE THAT JACK BUILT.

This opera, to be presented at the Grand Opera House on Friday evening and Saturday afternoon of this week, is one of the most effective entertainments from a musical and educational standpoint that has ever been produced by children. The libretto is a clever story and the plot is interesting throughout. The curtain rises upon a garden scene. Then appears a lot of fairies, who sing and dance about until they discover the House That Jack Built, but they scamper away when Mother Goose and her son appear. Mother Goose tells Jack that she intends giving him a birthday party. They talk over the plans and separate, Jack to give the invitations and Mother Goose to buy the refreshments. During their absence the naughty Blackbirds steal the keys of the pantry, when the Empty Dumpty (eggs) have been placed. Later the guests begin to arrive—Bo-Peep, Boy Blue, Jack and Jill, Mother Hubbard and a host of others with whom we are familiar, and the introductions in chorus, pantomime and dances bring the first act to a merry close. When the curtain rises again it is upon the scene of the lawn fête. The guests are resting and the moon slowly rises over the tops of the trees. The dance by the Stars and Clouds, a solo and chorus are given while the guests await the coming of King Cole and the Queen of Hearts with their train. Trumpets announce the approach of the royal party. They follow in tragic succession the capture, trial, sentence and escape of the culprit Blackbirds, after which the festivities resume and the musical climax.

How To Go To Buffalo.

Millions of dollars have been expended to make the Pan American Exposition at Buffalo an interesting and instructive affair. The end has been accomplished and persons who witness the grand display will be impressed by the magnitude of the project. It is purely an "All America" enterprise and all Americans should see it.
Information about fares may be secured by applying to any Passenger or Ticket Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines. Their duties include assisting intending travelers to arrange trips. If not convenient to call at ticket offices, send a postal card to the nearest Pennsylvania Lines Agent, who will promptly give desired information about the cost of tickets and time of trains. He will also furnish official information for the Pan-American Exposition.
All tickets to Buffalo over the now Akron Route are good for stop-over at Chautauqua Lake; and all tickets over this route via Buffalo to St. Lawrence River and Canadian Resorts and eastern points, including New York, can be made good for stop-overs at the Pan-American Exposition and Niagara Falls. C. Hagerly, D. P. Agt., Louisville Ky is waiting to tell you about it.
