AMUSEMENTS.

That charming play "When We Were 21," as interpreted by a strong company, is meeting with overflowing houses everywhere. The story is replete with humor, and the audience alternate the evening in laughter and tears. It is no unusual thing for the management to receive letters from people who have witnessed the performance and who frankly write the play has not only opened their hearts, but their pocket-books as well, in imitation of the kindly Dick Carewe and his "Trinity." As to the acting in this glorious play, there is only one thing to be said; it is perfect.

"When We Were 21" company will appear at the Grand on next Monday, and from all the newspaper notices received by Manager Porter, it is safe to say that no other attraction will equal this. Carriages may be ordered for 10:40.

Most managers object to having husbands and wives in their employ, but Messrs. Morris & Hall take an entirely different view of the matrimonial question. In their "When We Were 21" Companies they have four married couples: Mr. and Mrs. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Tilton and Mr. and Mrs. Martin. The unmarried ladies of the organizations, Misses Tennant, Booth, Wheatly and Hall are rather pleased at the liberal views of the management, as it permits each young lady to have at least six Cavaliers, who would no doubt be willing to cast down their cloaks (if they wore them) as Raleigh did for Elizabeth.

"King Dodo" is the kind of a beauty show which is in great demand at this time. The old-time chorus girl who was so much joked about by the humorists, not without some reason, has been gradually disappearing from the stage, and the call now is for young woman-kind of prepossessing personal appearance. Mr. Savage has done much in securing girls of good appearance for his "King Dodo" company, which will be seen at the Grand on Friday, Jan. 31.

Not Obligatory.

[Communicated.] It is not obligatory that the Trustees of the Bourbon County Schools should purchase the Primary Language Series that are being sold throughout the county. These charts are good, and will be a great help to the schools, but the purchase of same is left to the discretion of the Trustees.

It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two billion bottles sold annually. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price, 75c. Trouble At Flemingsburg.

The little city of Flemingsburg was in a state of wild excitement Tuesday night, caused by the return of the negro, Chas. Gaskin, who killed James H. Rion on the streets of Flemingsburg, last May. Gaskin has been in the Covington jail for safe keeping since May and was taken home Monday for trial, and the friends of Rion could not withstand the temptation to swing Gaskin to a limb, and at once formed a mob and proceeded to the jail for that purpose and demanded admittance which was refused.

Later in the night one of the guards discovered a burning fuse to a dynamite blast under one corner of the jail, and only saved the wrecking of the building by grabbing it and pulling out the fuse.

Several shots were exchanged between the mob and guards, and one man is said to be seriously hurt.

Several of the guards were shot and several of the mob.

The Sheriff went to Frankfort Wednesday morning and asked for the Frankfort State Militia to be sent to Flemingsburg at once, and the Governor granted his request and ordered the Frankfort Company to go to Flemingsburg, and to stop at Lexington and get the Artillery.

They passed through Paris on a special train about 8:00 o'clock on Wednesday.

The Jailer of Fleming county is Mr. John Morris, and is the father of Mrs. C. W. Fothergill and an uncle of Mr. Dan Morris, of this city.
