AMUSEMENTS.

"TWO MERRY TRAMPS."
While the comedy, "Two Merry Tramps," as presented by Wood & Ward's Company, has been pronounced a bright satire by the press throughout the country during the past two years, the play in itself is of minor importance, the specialties and musical numbers introduced almost continuously during the action of the comedy, being the features that have placed this organization at the head of its class. Some twenty pleasing, tuneful and novelty specialties are given, among the most noted being the "Hobo Two-Steps," by Wood & Ward and the Elmore Sisters, the rage of New York; "Tell Us Pretty Ladies," as sung in "Florodora," "My Blushing Rosie," with chorus by entire company; "The Big Detective," a musical satire on Sherlock Holmes; the Bowery Quartette in "The East Side Belle;" the Indiana Opera, and numerous individual specialties. The abundance of bright and pretty costumes, tuneful music and scenery make the production of "Two Merry Tramps" so closely resemble an elaborate extravaganza that theatre-goers scarcely realize that they are witnessing a farce comedy, it being so entirely different from the ordinary play of its class. It will be seen here Thursday night. Seats go on sale this morning.

The distinguished dramatic artist, Mr. Richard Mansfield, will appear at the Lexington Opera House on the evening of February 22. He will present his most recent, and in many respects, his greatest success, Beaucaire. The engagement will prove one of the events of the season at Lexington, and as Mr. Mansfield has never yet failed to be welcomed by a large audience in that city, one of the best houses of the season is expected to greet him. As usual, he is supported by an excellent company, numbering forty people, and the production in all respects is elegant and elaborate.

Elliott, preached at the Christian Church, at Riddles Mills, last Sunday.
