BRIEF NEWS ITEMS.

A LITTLE tale I would relate
About a bit of unkind fate,
I bought a brand new mackintosh,
And now it never rains, b'gosh!

FRIDAY, MAY 9th—Sun rises at 4:53 a. m. and sets at 6:59 p. m.

FOR SALE.—A good second-hand typewriter. Apply at this office. 2944t

JOCKEY.—Domingo Garcia, the young Portorican, who has been in the employ of Frank & Co., of this city, has gone to Louisville, where he expects to become a jockey. He is a bright young fellow, who will make friends with all whom he meets, and we wish him unbounded success.

GOOD WORK.—The souvenir program to be used at the May Festival performance at the Grand Opera House to-night, were gotten out in this office. Like everything the Elks' do, the work of the program, is in keeping and is a neat piece of typographical art.

SOCKS.—500 Dozen Men's Fast Black full seamless Half-Hose sold at 10 cents a pair, will be sold to-day, Saturday and Monday at 5 cents per pair. No more than six pairs will be sold to each customer. These goods can only be found at the O. O. D. Store.

GOOD PROSPECTS.—The prospects for the Elks' May Music Festival to-night are that they will be greeted with a large and fashionable audience. There are a few good seats left and those who expect to attend and have not yet procured their seats would do well to secure them early, as the house will undoubtedly be filled. At the last rehearsal held last night, everything passed off smoothly and they will give one of the very best musical entertainments ever given in this city.

SIGNS OF SPRING.—The street scavengers were out yesterday, cleaning the thoroughfares, there was a wagon load of home-made willow baskets on the market and numerous babies were out in perambulators enjoying the sun baths, while the small boy who played truant from school could be found on the classic banks of romantic Stoner with his rod. Verily, the Springtime has come, gentle Annie.

CHURCH CHIMES.

GOOD SEATS.—Two desirable front row dress circle seats for the May Festival to night can be had by calling at this office. (1t.)

SWELL.—The audience which will assemble at the Grand tonight to the Elks' May Festival will be one of the swellest that ever gathered within the walls of that house.

FINED.—Hester Faulkner, colored, was arrested on the charge of petit larceny, having stolen some dishes from Mrs. F. R. Armstrong, and received a sentence of thirty days in jail.

GOSPEL MEETINGS.—An itinerant preacher has been giving daily sermons to the people in front of the News office for several days, with gospel hymn accompaniment.

JUST received another large invoice of those beautiful Wall Papers, which we are selling our new way. All borders the same as side walls. It will pay you to see these before placing your order. S. E. BORLAND.

FARE.—The fare from Lexington to Georgetown on the Georgetown & Lexington Traction road will be only 25 cents and the round-trip fare 40 cents. The cars will start to running some time next week.

THE bottom has been knocked out of the meat trust and I am now selling at the old figures. I would like to have your country produce, for which I will pay the highest market price. G. W. GARDNER.

THE WAY TO RIDE.—The Winchester Sun, says: "The ladies of the circus here last week both in the rings and street parade, rode astride. It is an innovation, but it's the way to ride, and the day is not far distant when it will be in vogue with all people."

LOST.—On Tuesday night, between the Odd Fellows' Hall and the Cook Grocery Co., a Ladies' Silver Open Faced Watch, marked "H. M. D." A suitable reward will be given if returned to 9May2t. GEO. R. DAVIS.

SOLD OUT.—Paul Shipp has disposed of his stock of merchandise at Morning View, and has been appointed General Manager of The Hartford Type-Writer Co., of Hartford, Conn., for the State of Illinois. He will open a large office in Chicago and will have forty men engaged under him.

A SURPRISE.—On Wednesday night, thirty-nine members of the Baptist church met at the residence of Rev. G. W. Argabrite and wife, and surprised them with a beautiful supply of luxuries in the way of provisions and a most enjoyable evening was spent. The occasion was the eighteenth anniversary of the marriage of the popular couple.

ARRESTED.—Sandy Howard, of African decent, the proprietor of a dance hall and whisky joint in the wicked village of Claysville, was arrested by Officer Hill, and in the police court, His Honor, Judge Hinton, fined him $50 and costs, on the charge of selling red liquor without the required license. This will probably hold him for awhile.

MUCH CHEAPER THAN COAL.—On a fair test a Gas Range will cook the same things in less time, and at about one-third the cost of coal. On an actual test, the cost of fuel, using coal, at $5.50 per ton, was almost twelve cents. By using gas, in a Gas Range, with gas at $1.20 per thousand feet, the cost was reduced to a trifle over four and a half cents. These figures are official, and give you a good basis of comparison as to fuel cost.

CUPID'S ARROW.

A wedding, which is being kept a secret, will occur in this city at noon to-morrow. The bride to be, is now making her home in Chicago, but was born and reared in this city. The happy pair will leave on the afternoon train for their home in the windy city.
