Summer Corsets.

Now is the season when a light, cool corset is appreciated. Not only must the corset be light, but the model must be spotless, and can only be free from rust stains by being absolutely proof against perspiration. We guarantee the

Warner Bros. Corsets

to be absolutely Rust Proof, and if after continuous wear in the warmest temperature a corset branded "Warner's Rust Proof" becomes spotted or stained the daintiest underlines, the wearer is entitled to a new corset or money refunded.

The qualities and models are too varied to give a definite description of each; and they come in light, soft batistes and dainty summer nets. Each model is ornate with laces and soft ribbon corresponding to the quality of material.

STOCK AND CROP.

PARIS COURT.

M. J. Murphy & Co., report: About 800 sheep and 350 cattle on the market.
Sheep sold from $2.55 to $2.75 per head.
There were 25 yearlings sold at $25 per head. Trade very dull.

Drake Thompson sold 75 ewes for $2.75 per head.

It is estimated that the mint beds of Jefferson county, Ala., yield $5,000 during the julep season.

McIntyre & McClintock shipped one car load of sheep to New York and one car of hogs to Cincinnati this week.

A handsome engraved card received in this city, makes the following announcement:

"Mr. E. J. Tranter, of Buffalo, N. Y., and Mr. Frank P. Kenney, of Lexington, Ky., in their corporate name, The Tranter-Kenney Company, announces to the horsemen of America and Europe, the incorporation of the new company with the Secretary of State of Ky., for the purpose of conducting sales of High Bred Horses at Auction. Inaugural sale Nov. 3d to 8th, at Lexington, Ky."

Mr. Frank P. Kenney, of the above firm, is a native of this city, and is thoroughly acquainted with the horse interests of the country and the new firm will certainly thrive in their undertaking. Mr. Kenney is one of the most popular young horsemen in the state and The News extends to him its best wishes for success.

AMUSEMENTS.

WHO? WHAT? WHEN?

—Lovers of genuine refined Minstrelsy will not easily forget the appearance here last season of the Who, What, When Minstrels, who gave such general satisfaction that they were prevailed upon to cancel their engagement in another town and repeat their performance the next night here in Paris.
The people with one accord, pronounced it one of the best minstrel shows that ever graced the boards of the Grand and the announcement that they will appear here again on Friday evening next is a sufficient guarantee that the house on that occasion will be well-filled.
Since last here, the company has been greatly strengthened, if that were possible, at any rate, many new features have been added and the show this season is brimful of good acts.

They present a really meritorious performance and the rapid-fire jokes of the comedians, the singing of the different vocalists and the olio of good things is calculated to drive dull care away and make you feel that you are really glad that you are living.

LADIES, don't forget to call and examine my line of Laird-Schober Fine Shoes. The best ever sold in Paris for years.
GEO. McWILLIAMS.

THE LATEST.—Everything in the Millinery line at Mrs. Corney W. Baird's this season will be of the very latest pattern and design. She has brought on nothing but the very swellest thing, and it will pay the ladies to inspect her stock, which is large and most complete in every particular.

The Turf.

Paris horses came to the front again yesterday. At Hartford, Jas. Dodge's horse, Gail, won in a six-heat race, with a purse valued at $10,000. Rhythmic, Jesse Turney's blind horse ran second in a six-heat race.

At Harlem, (Chicago,) Turney Bros.' Glenwater won. Maud Gunne ran second. John Bright was scratched, as was also Hal Woodford's Bad News.

Tucker's assigned stock of Dry Goods and Notions, on Wednesday, Sept. 3d, at 10 a. m.

CLASS IN PIANO.—Miss Nelly Buckner will open a private class in piano, September 1, at her music studio, Number 232 Seventh street. (12aug-1mo)

Two Big Wedding Fees.

When Collis P. Huntington was married for the second time, Henry Ward Beecher performed the marriage ceremony. Huntington's first wife had been dead less than a year, and he desired the second marriage to be kept a secret until his return from Europe. He gave Mr. Beecher a marriage fee of $1,500. When Huntington returned some months later, he went through a public ceremony, and Beecher again officiated. He gave Beecher another fee of $1,500. The great preacher had his humor aroused by the second fee.
Turning to Huntington, he said,
"Collis, I do wish you were a Mormon!"

The Possibilities Developed.

The success of the Disc type of Graphophone which uses flat, indestructible records, is largely due to the fact that the Columbia Phonograph Company, pioneers and leaders in the talking machine art, has developed the possibilities in both the machines and the records beyond all expectations. It was able to do this because it is the only company in the talking machine field having a complete laboratory and a manufacturing plant on a broad and comprehensive basis. Its facilities for experimentation and for manufacturing are on a very large scale. It does not have to rely on inexperienced manufacturers for any part of the product it offers for sale. It makes its own machines and its own records from start to finish which is a fundamental advantage of the first magnitude.

The Disc Graphophone is made in three types, selling at $15, $30 and $50.
Seven inch records 50c each, $5 pe-dozen; 10 inch records $1 each, $10 per dozen. The Graphophone and Columbia Records were awarded Grand Prize at the Paris Exposition in 1900.

The Columbia Phonograph Company, 110 E. Baltimore street, Baltimore, headquarters for graphophones and talking machine supplies of every kind, will send you catalogues on application.
