NEW HOME.—The Elks' lodge purchasing committee of Lexington, closed a contract for a lot of ground on which it is proposed to erect a $30,000 club building. The price was $11,000. The property is on Broadway and adjoins the opera house.

HARD ON PARIS.—It is reported that the L. & N. has decided to remove its division headquarters from this city to Livingston. This would cause many train employers to move from Paris to Livingston and would result in the pay roll now distributed in Paris, amounting to $15,000 a month, being transferred to Livingston.

CALL at Mrs. Keith McClintock's and examine her beautiful line of Franco-American Hygienic Toilet Articles. Absolute purity guaranteed. (14oct1m)

CAN MARKET QUAIL.—A misapprehension exists as to whether or not the Legislature passed the bill introduced at last session prohibiting the sale of quail killed in the State between the open dates for quail shooting, November 15 to January 1. The bill, it appears, failed to pass the Senate, hence there is nothing this year to keep Kentucky hunters from marketing their quail in this and other cities in the State.

FOR RENT.—Two nice centrally located rooms, unfurnished. Apply at NEWS office. (28oct3t)

BUSINESS CHANGE.—Mr. John Bower, who has been connected with the train dispatcher's office, of the L. & N., in this city, for the past eleven years, has accepted a position in the dispatcher's office of the L. & E. road at Lexington, and has entered upon his new duties. During Mr. Bower's stay in Paris, he has made many warm friends, who regret to see him leave, but who wish him all the good luck that may come his way. We recommend Mr. Bower to the good people of Lexington.

RESIGNED.—Thos. Roche, who has been a valued employe of the Dow-Hayden Grocery Company, in this city, has resigned his position with that firm and accepted a place with W. & F. Flach, wholesale grocers, of Cincinnati. I will go on the road as a commercial jurist. Mr. Roche is a young man who is well versed in the grocery business, and will no doubt build up a good trade in his territory. He is a young man in who has many warm friends and deserves to succeed in any undertaking.

Divorces.

Petitions have been filed in the November term of the Circuit Court, for divorces, as follows: Sallie Bedford Hedges against Joseph E. Hedges; Walter H. Zimmerman against Norah Zimmerman and Carrie W. Halsey against Alonzo Halsey.

Judge Smith's Court.

James Washington, Son Kennedy, Wm. Fisher and John Batts, all colored, who were arrested by Constable Jos. Williams, were arraigned in Judge Smith's court, yesterday morning, on the charge of trespassing on the farm of Mr. Berry Bedford. They were assessed a fine of $10 and costs each.

Let Others Do Likewise.

THE BOURBON NEWS has placed on its subscription list the name of the Confederate Home, at Pewee Valley, Ky., and will send to that institution a copy of our paper from now on gratuitously. This is the first paper in the State to do this, and we would suggest that every other paper in the State do likewise. The old veterans camped there will surely appreciate it.

ECLIPSE.—An eclipse of the sun is to come off on Friday.

LOST.—Saturday night, on the Winchester pike, a large book, entitled: "Curiosities and Anomalies." Return to Dr. Usery and receive reward.

FOOT BALL.—A game of foot ball will be played between a team from Cynthia and Paris, at Bacon's Park, in this city, next Friday, Oct. 31. The game will be called at 3 o'clock.

CAPTURED.—Howard Williams, colored, who escaped from the rock pile several weeks ago, and who had seven months to serve, was captured on the farm of Brooks Clay, by Jas. A. Gibson.

LET EVERYBODY VOTE.—All persons, regardless of politics, should vote for the issue of the Court House bonds. It takes a two-thirds vote to carry, and everybody, both Democrats and Republicans, are urged to vote for the issue.

LOST.—On Ninth street, between Mrs. Minnie Wilson's and Dr. J. T. Vansant's, or between the depot and Mr. Brice Steele's, on Pleasant street, a Gold Buckle, about six inches long. Finder please leave at Mrs. Parker's millinery store and receive reward.

CATARRH OF STOMACH.—Caleb Powers, who is confined in the Georgetown jail, is suffering from catarrh of the stomach. He is being treated by Dr. J. B. Marvin, of Louisville, who says he is in no immediate danger. Motion for a new trial is now pending before the Court of Appeals.

THE LATEST STYLES.—George McWilliams, the up-to-date shoe man, has an unusually large stock of fine shoes, which he is selling at living prices. He is carrying a large line of Laird-Shoebert Shoes for the ladies, which give the best of satisfaction. If you want the best goods at the lowest prices, see him first.

ALFRED CLAY THE CHAMPION.—Alfred Clay, of Ansterlitz, this county, is the champion wing shot of Kentucky. He won this title Saturday afternoon at the Kentucky Gun Club grounds, at Louisville, in an exciting contest for the Kentucky State championship. Alfred Clay, Quincy Ward, of Paris, and Jake D. Gay, of Pine Grove, scored twenty straight kills, and they were compelled to shoot off this triple tie in order to settle the championship. They started on a five-bird shoot-off, but each made a straight score, and another shoot-off of five birds was called for. In this shoot-off Mr. Ward missed his fourth bird, while Mr. Gay missed his fifth bird. Mr. Clay killed five straight, and this made him champion. He was presented with the handsome cup, emblematic of the State championship, while the crowd cheered.

Will Recover Bonds.

A dispatch from Cincinnati, says: "The Sinking Fund Trustees were Friday requested to pay $13,000 to the owner of five C. S. Ky. bonds in the denomination of $1,000 each, which were stolen in a bank burglary twenty-two years ago. The request was made by C. S. Brent, of Lexington, who accompanied by Attorney H. B. Mackay, of Covington, called upon Secretary Louis Carroll. Mr. Brent explained that the bonds were stolen when the Citizens Bank, of Paris, Ky., was burglarized. He produced affidavits to substantiate his claims. There were ten bonds stolen, but five later turned up in the hands of innocent purchasers. The remaining five were not again head from. Corporation Council Hunt was called into consultation and he gave his opinion that Mr. Brent is entitled to the principal and interest on the five bonds, which amount to $13,000.
