What MITCHELL Says

Now, I just want every Candy Eater in the county to call at my store and take a look at my case of Fine Candy.

It is the finest lot of Bating Bon-Bons ever brought to the city. 40, 50, 60 and 65 cents per pound.

Yours Truly,
C. B. MITCHELL.

CUPID'S ARROW.

—Wednesday evening the marriage of Miss Tillie Engman and Mr. George Stoll will be celebrated at 6 o'clock in Christ Church Cathedral, Rev. Baker P. Lee officiating. The wedding will be beautiful and brilliant, the details having been mentioned before. After the ceremony at the church the bridal party and immediate relatives will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Engman at their home on South Broadway and the couple will go for a trip.—Lexington Leader.

—The marriage of Miss Pattie Letton, of Falmouth, formerly of this city, to Dr. Frank S. Martin, of Muncie, Ind., will take place to-day. Owing to the recent bereavement in the family the wedding will be quietly celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Woolms, in that city. Miss Letton has many friends here at her old home, who wish her all the success she deserves in her matrimonial life.

—Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock the marriage of Miss Anna Wallace to Mr. Ford Brent, of this city, will be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents in Versailles. The wedding will be a conspicuous event in the social history of that city and about two hundred invitations have been issued. Rev. G. H. Rout of the Presbyterian church will be the officiating minister. A number of Paris friends will attend. Mr. Brent and Miss Wallace are very attractive and widely known and they have received a large collection of elegant presents.
