DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Judge Alton B. Parker Selected as Candidate For President on First Ballot.

NOMINATION MADE UNANIMOUS.

Ex-Senator H. G. Davis, of West Virginia, Was Nominated for the Vice Presidency.

Judge Parker, in a Telegram to the Convention, Expressed His Views on the Gold Standard Question, to Which a Reply Was Sent.

Thursday's Session.

St. Louis, July 8.—The democratic national convention Thursday adopted the report of the committee on rules, credentials and permanent organization. The session opened at 10 o'clock, an hour later took a recess until 2 p. m., and adjourned at 6:20 until 10 o'clock Friday.

When the result of the contest was announced the report of the committee on permanent organization was made. Representative Champ Clark, who was chosen permanent chairman, addressed the convention.

The ovation given to Mr. Bryan was one of the greatest ever transpiring at any of the notable events for which the immense Coliseum is famed.

The inconsistencies of a great unorganized body, such as is formed by the spectators, delegates and alternates making up a great political convention, was appropriately illustrated in Thursday's gathering.

The platform was presented to the full committee at 8 o'clock Thursday night, and the contest over the gold plank which had occurred in the subcommittee was soon renewed and with cumulative force.

The day was given up by the subcommittee to the consideration of the details connected with the consideration of the various planks, action on the most important of them being postponed until the closing hours of the sitting.

He was replied to by Senators Daniel and Hill, who contended that the plank presented recognizes the quantitative theory of money advocated by the democratic party.

The anti-trust, tariff and other important planks were earnestly debated and liberally amended, but, as perfected, they were generally satisfactory to all the members of the subcommittee.

After considerable discussion the full committee adopted Bryan's tariff plank in lieu of the declaration submitted by the subcommittee.

The Bryan plank is shorter and more direct than that of the subcommittee. It declares in effect that its tariff for protection is robbery and advocates a gradual reduction along lines that will not disturb business interests.

Friday's Session.

St. Louis, July 9.—The democratic national convention Friday night adopted a platform by a viva voce vote and listened to nominating speeches for president. Judge Alton B. Parker was named by Martin W. Littleton and William Randolph Hearst by D. M. Delmas.

Nominating speeches for favorite son candidates and seconding speeches for both Parker and Hearst occupied the convention for several hours.

The great climax of the convention—the nomination of a candidate for president—followed immediately upon the adoption of the platform.

Alabama was called and yielded to New York. Mr. Littleton's speech immediately pleased his audience and when he concluded pandemonium reigned.

The Parker states paraded through the convention, pushing, trampling and fighting all who obstructed their progress.

California, a Hearst state, was next in order. D. M. Delmas, of that state, was recognized and there was some cheering as he made his way to the platform, but it was not prolonged.

Vigorous applause followed Mr. Overmeyer's mention of the name of Gen. Miles, but when he continued his address after naming his candidate he was frequently interrupted by the galleries and the applause at the conclusion of his remarks was shortlived.

Handy's mention of Gray's name was greeted with faint applause.

At 1:25 Saturday morning Maine gave way to Missouri and Champ Clark, of that state, took the platform to place in nomination Senator Francis M. Cockrell, of Missouri, for the presidency.

When Nebraska was called at 2:25 there were loud cheers for Bryan.

Massachusetts called the clerk, and Patrick A. Collins, of Boston, made his way to the platform to nominate Richard Olney, of the Old Bay state.

When Wisconsin was called David S. Rose nominated Wall, of Wisconsin.

J. S. Williams, who was placed in nomination, withdrew his name early Saturday morning and seconded Parker.

St. Louis, July 9.—5:39 a. m.—Alton

B. Parker has been nominated for president. On the completion of the first ballot he received a total of 658 votes. Before the vote was announced, Idaho changed her six votes.

Washington voted from Hearst to Parker. This was followed by a motion by Champ Clark to make the nomination of Parker unanimous.

Patrick A. Collins, of Massachusetts, took the stand to second the motion to make the nomination unanimous.

Saturday's Session.

St. Louis, July 11.—The following telegram was received from Judge A. B. Parker, by the democratic national convention Saturday afternoon just as the democratic national convention was about to finish its work and nominated a candidate for vice president:

"I regard the gold standard as firmly and irrevocably established, and shall act accordingly if the action of the convention of to-day shall be ratified by the people. As the platform is silent on the subject, my views should be made known to the convention, and if it is proved to be unsatisfactory to the majority, I request you to decline the nomination for me at once, so that another man may be nominated before adjournment. A. B. PARKER."

The convention then adjourned until 7 o'clock Saturday evening. On reassembling the convention partially granted Mr. Parker's request by sending him the following telegram:

"The platform adopted by this convention is silent on the question of monetary standard because it is not regarded by us as a possible issue in this campaign, and only campaign issues were mentioned in the platform. Therefore, there is nothing in the views expressed by you in the telegram just received which would preclude a man entertaining them from

The New Boon for Woman's Ills. SILENT suffering from any form of female disorder is no longer necessary. Many modest women would rather die by inches than consult anyone, even by letter, about their private troubles.

Wasp Stings.

A lady writes as follows: "I read recently a paragraph in the newspaper about a farmer who died from the effects of a wasp sting. It cannot be too widely known that turpentine, applied to the place where a wasp has stung, will reduce the swelling immediately.

Ten Ways to Say "Ough."

A correspondent points out nine ways of pronouncing the letters "ough." These are, written phonetically as in coffee, cauf (each is allowable), enuff, thaut, tho, through, hiccup, the Irish lough and the Scot's pronunciation of sough, "such," the two final consonants in the last two words representing the corresponding gutturals in German.

Onion with Meat.

All white meats gain in flavor from a delicate onion admixture with the gravy. The onion is to be grated and put over the meat before it has just finished roasting and then blended by basting. In this way one avoids the burnt onion slices, which sometimes result from other methods, and which have, in a way, caused the addition of onion to be regarded with disfavor.

To Remove Ink Stains.

A much-used writing desk sometime becomes inkstained. An application of niter is said to do wonders in removing these stains. Mix six or eight drops of niter to a teaspoonful of water, drop on the stains, and rub quickly with a damp cloth.

The coffee tree reaches its maximum of production in about 12 years, and should continue in full bearing for 50 years, though some trees are known to be as old as 82 years.

Heart-Beats.

The heart of a vegetarian beats on an average of 58 to the minute; that of the meat eater 75. This represents a difference of 24,000 beats in 24 hours.

A BACK LICK

Settled the Case with Her.

Many great discoveries have been made by accident and things better than gold mines have been found in this way, for example when even the accidental discovery that coffee is the real cause of one's sickness proves of most tremendous value because it locates the cause and the person has then a chance to get well.

"For over 25 years," says a Missouri woman, "I suffered untold agonies in my stomach and even the best physicians disagreed as to the cause without giving me any permanent help, different ones saying it was gastritis, indigestion, neuralgia, etc., so I dragged along from year to year, always half sick, until finally I gave up all hopes of ever being well again.

"When taking dinner with a friend one day she said she had a new drink which turned out to be Postum and I liked it so well I told her I thought I would stop coffee for awhile and use it, which I did.

"So for three months we had Postum in place of coffee without ever having one of my old spells but was always healthy and vigorous instead.

"Hubbard kept saying he was convinced it was coffee that caused those spells, but even then I wouldn't believe it until one day we got out of Postum and as we lived two miles from town I thought to use the coffee we had in the house.

"The result of a week's use of coffee again was that I had another terrible spell of agony and distress proving that it was the coffee and nothing else. That settled it and I said good bye to coffee forever and since then Postum alone has been our hot mealtime drink.

"My friends all say I am looking worlds better and my complexion is much improved. All the other members of our family have been benefited, too, by Postum in place of the old drink, coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Ten days' trial of Postum in place of coffee or tea is the wise thing for every coffee drinker. Such a trial tells the exact truth often where coffee is not suspected.
