RUSSIANS RETREATING.

The First Part of the Campaign Considered Lost.

The Russian Army Will Reconcentrate in the North, But it Needs Several Months in Order to Fill Up the Losses.

Paris, Sept. 13.—The Journal's Liao Yang correspondent, having ridden to Tien Tsin, sends thence the following uncensored dispatch, under date of September 12:

"The first part of the campaign may be considered lost. The Russian army has retreated northward in the direction of Tie Pass, or further. The Russian army's inferiority in men, guns and enthusiasm prevented Kuropatkin's resisting longer at Liao Yang or achieving at Yental a victory which would have obliged the Japanese to fall back. The Japanese will shortly triumphantly enter Mukden.

"The Russian general staff now estimates the Japanese force at from 450,000 to 500,000. The Russian army will reconcentrate in the north, but it needs several months in order to fill up the losses in a number of corps, which must be doubled, and to replace reservists by active troops. Above all it is essential to restore the morale, affected by almost unprecedented trials and difficulties. A Russian offensive movement will be impossible for a long time.

London, Sept. 14.—The Daily Mail's correspondent at Chee Foo reports that 300,000 Chinese coolies are engaged upon Japanese entrenchments between Dalny and Port Arthur.

From Tokio the correspondent of the Standard telegraphs that the Chinese government is becoming uneasy over the fate of Manchuria. An unconfirmed report, he says, is current that Wu Ting Fang, the Chinese assistant foreign minister will leave Peking shortly on a special mission to Europe and America on the Manchuria question.

Bennet Burleigh, cabling from Tien Tsin to the Daily Telegraph, still insists that the Japanese casualties in the battle of Liao Yang were nearer 30,000 than 17,000.

New York, Sept. 15.—Inactivity of the opposing armies of Russia and Japan continues, and no fighting of a general character is reported. Information, coming from an authoritative source in St. Petersburg, is that the Russians will winter at Harbin, but the fact that there probably will be two months of good weather, for military operations before the extreme cold weather sets in, leaves room for a revision of this purpose in the light of events that may transpire. The Japanese are reported to be collecting taxes and otherwise administering affairs in Manchuria, as though that country were conquered territory. The publication of Gen. Kuropatkin's report of the fighting from August 26 until the retreat upon Mukden, has created a bitter feeling in St. Petersburg.

The report distinctly places upon Gen. Orloff the responsibility for the failure to hold the heights in the vicinity of Sykwantun, and so check the Japanese advance.

London, Sept. 15.—The Daily Mail's correspondent with Gen. Kuropatkin writes under date of September 8, an interesting analysis of Russian strategy to the eve of the battle of Liao Yang, bestowing the highest praise upon Kuropatkin's skilful handling and withdrawal of the weak, scattered Russian forces without demoralization. The correspondent says:

"It is too early as yet to speak of the appalling and almost inconceivable difficulties that faced Kuropatkin during the first campaign. Some day it will be known how many, or rather, how few troops, he had when he arrived in Manchuria and what proportion, or, rather, disproportion, were keen, ardent young soldiers of Russia. Russian will know how far Siberian levies were equipped and qualified for the task they had to perform, and when the facts are known, the world will realize the enormous responsibility cast upon this silent, resolute man, and with what strength, silence and resolution he faced and conquered it."

Paris, Sept. 15.—The Journal's St. Petersburg correspondent says: "A very high personage informs me that the emperor has received a report from Lieut. Gen. Stossel to the effect that the situation at Port Arthur is most critical. For a week there has been no meat, and only a small quantity of flour, while the ammunition there is not sufficient for a long resistance. Everything is prepared for the blowing up of the fortifications in the event of a successful Japanese assault."

Gov. Peabody Renominated.

Denver, Col., Sept. 15.—The republican state convention Wednesday renominated the following ticket: Governor, James H. Peabody; lieutenant governor, J. F. McDonald. The platform indorses the administration of Gov. Peabody. An eight-hour law is favored.

Will Not Evacuate Mukden at Present. Berlin, Sept. 15.—The Tageblatt's correspondent at Tie Pass, cabling under date of September 14, says the evacuation of Mukden by the Russians is not considered at present, and that the field of operations seems to be moving eastward.

Departure of Baltic Fleet Deferred. Berlin, Sept. 14.—The Tageblatt's St. Petersburg correspondent telegraphs that the departure of the Baltic squadron has at the last moment been deferred for several days, apparently to await news from the far east.

ASSAULTED A JAIL GUARD.

Desperate Attempt to Escape From the Baltimore Prison.

Baltimore, Sept. 14.—A daring attempt at jail breaking, in which three or more prisoners, headed by Roland B. Rigor, were involved, occurred at the jail in this city Tuesday. When Jail Guard H. A. Lecorn went into a cell occupied by Harold Brewer, he was suddenly struck on the back of the head with a club in the hands of Rigor. Lecorn, though partly stunned, grappled with his assailant, and after a desperate struggle, succeeded in choking him into insensibility. In the meantime Brewer escaped from the cell and was in the yard making his way to the outer gate when he was captured. He confessed that there had been a conspiracy to disable Guard Lecorn, take his pistol, lock him in a cell and fight their way to freedom.

Roland B. Rigor is one of the gang that held up a suburban street car at Lakeside, near this city a few months ago, robbing and shooting the conductor. Rigor was arrested last July at Columbus, O.

Cincinnati, Sept. 14.—The C. H. & D. Chicago flier early Tuesday afternoon was wrecked south of Glendale, when it ran through an open switch and crashed into a freight train on a siding.

Engineer George Greenland, of the Chicago flier, was pinned in the debris of his engine and crushed to death, while his fireman, Joseph Staub, was fatally injured. The latter was removed from the wreckage shortly after the accident, but it was some time before Greenland's body was removed. His home was at Hamilton, Ohio.

Fireman Staub died from his injuries Tuesday evening in a hospital at Hamilton, O.

Joseph Briggs Identified as the Man Who Did the Deed.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Joseph Briggs, who was arrested early Tuesday morning on suspicion of being connected with the murder of Harold Peterson, the tobacco dealer, who was killed in his store by robbers Monday night, has been positively identified as the man who did the shooting. William Portee, the colored porter, who is lying in the hospital with a bullet through his lungs, was confronted with Briggs Tuesday afternoon, and he swore that he saw him shoot Peterson down. Briggs has been in the hands of the police before, but never for any serious offense.

RHODE ISLAND LEGISLATURE.

It Condemned Gov. Garvin for Calling an Extra Session.

Providence, R. I., Sept. 14.—The effort of Gov. Garvin to obtain three amendments to the state constitution, the first to provide for constitutional initiative; the second, a moderate veto to power for the governor and the third, permitting registry voters to vote for city councilmen, was frustrated Tuesday by the failure of the general assembly to act on any of them, although there was a spirited debate in both branches. Both branches, however, passed a resolution condemning the action of the governor in calling the extra session and calling for an adjournment until November 15.

JAPANESE PROTEST.

Object to Russian Cruiser Remaining at San Francisco.

The Vessel Put in There For Repairs—Will Probably Be Dismantled and Detained Until End of the War.

Washington, Sept. 13.—The expected protest of Japan against allowing the Russian auxiliary cruiser Lena, which arrived at San Francisco Sunday to make much needed repairs, to remain longer than 24 hours, came Monday when the Japanese consul in that city, through the collector of customs, made formal demand that the vessel be required to leave at the end of that time.

San Francisco, Sept. 13.—In an interview Monday with Navigating Officer Speckneck, of the auxiliary cruiser Lena, he was asked how long he would remain here, he said:

"The Lena will probably remain here until the war is over. We expect that the officers and crew will be sent home by the way of New York." On the deck were between 200 and 300 sailors. An inspection of the decks of the converted cruiser, to which no objection was made, revealed the fact that she had 25 mounted guns.

San Francisco, Sept. 14.—Acting under instruction from Collector of the Port Stratton, Capt. J. K. Bulger, United States inspector of hulls and boilers, Tuesday inspected the boilers of the Russian transport Lena. It is understood that he found them in need of repairs, and recommended that the commander of the vessel be given time enough to put them in seaworthy condition.

The impression prevails among those best informed that the Lena will be dismantled and remain here until the end of the war.

Washington, Sept. 14.—The development of the day, so far as it related to the Russian cruiser Lena at San Francisco, was the clearing up of the official muddle arising out of the doubt as to which of five departments of the government should deal with it. It was finally decided by the president that the state and navy department should treat the case, acting jointly, a decision calculated greatly to simplify its handling.

Over night came a telegram from Adm. Goodrich, at San Francisco, showing that on his own initiative he had caused one of his expert officers to make a preliminary examination of the Lena, that temporary repairs would occupy six weeks time, and that new boilers would involve eight months delay. The president approved the admiral's action, and decided that he should continue to handle the case in San Francisco, under instructions from the state and navy departments.

No defense was made and no evidence was introduced to support the charge. The court listened to the reading of the complaint, which consumed about ten minutes of time, and, no answer being forthcoming, ordered the decree prayed for by the plaintiff. It was also ordered by the court that the agreement entered into between the plaintiff and wife be made part of the decree. Under the agreement Mrs. Phipps obligates herself to convey to Mr. Phipps the property at Pittsburg now occupied by her as a residence, and also the property in Denver occupied by Mrs. Phipps as a residence. HAD TO GIVE UP.

Suffered Agonies from Kidney Disorders Until Cured by Doan's Kidney Pills.

George W. Renoff, of 1933 North 11th St., Philadelphia, Pa., a man of good reputation and standing, writes:

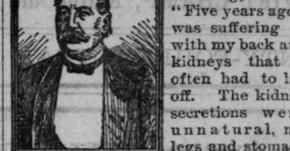

"Five years ago I was suffering so with my back and kidneys that I often had to lay off. The kidney secretions were unnatural, my legs and stomach were swollen, and I had no appetite. When doctors failed to help me I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and improved until my back was strong and my appetite returned. During the four years since I stopped using them I have enjoyed excellent health. The cure was permanent."

Rubber for Tires.

Automobile makers are beginning to worry already over a possible substitute for rubber for tires. It is claimed that the demand for this material has increased rapidly the last few years, the importations into the United States alone the last year being $9,000,000 over those of 1903. This means, it is said, that rubber trees are being over-taxed and that there is danger of their dying out. The consumption of rubber for vehicle tires is phenomenal in its magnitude.

Self-Made Men.

An erroneous idea prevails among some people that self-made man is a success and the college-made man is a failure. Many men fall—some of them are college men and some are not. It all lies in the man and his determination to win. This determination leads him, if a college man, to apply his learning; if not a college man, to acquire the necessary knowledge by special study and application. One thing is certain, the unqualified man never wins.—Common Sense.

WHAT'S THE USE

To Keep a "Coffee Complexion."

A lady says: "Postum has helped my complexion so much that my friends say I am growing young again. My complexion used to be coffee colored, muddy and yellow, but it is now clear and rosy as when I was a girl. I was induced to try Postum by a friend who had suffered just as I had suffered from terrible indigestion, palpitation of the heart and sinking spells."

"After I had used Postum a week I was so much better that I was afraid it would not last. But now two years have passed and I am a well woman. I owe it all to leaving off coffee and drinking Postum in its place."

"I had drunk coffee all my life. I suspected that it was the cause of my trouble, but it was not until I actually quit coffee and started to try Postum that I became certain; then all my troubles ceased and I am now well and strong again." Name furnished by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason. Look in each package for a copy of the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."
