Waterworks Bids Rejected.

The Carlisle City Council decided to reject all bids for the construction of a waterworks plant in Carlisle. The bids will be re-advertised for in the near future, as soon as the legality of the question of the bond issue can be settled. The Clerk, J. W. Powling, having refused to sign the bonds, a mandamus suit will at once be brought compelling him to sign them. The court meets Sept. 26.

Rev. Mann Very Ill.

Rev. E. G. B. Mann, of Lexington, returned home Wednesday from Campton, where he went to hold a quarterly meeting. He went thither Saturday and preached that night. After service he was taken violently ill and continued so until Tuesday, suffering excruciatingly with locked bowel. For a while the physicians despaired of saving his life, but by heroic efforts and treatment he was finally relieved.

Give Us a Hospital.

It is strange that our people do not take some interest in having a hospital in Paris. The matter has been agitated by this paper on numerous occasions, but no move in that direction has ever been taken. At the present time there is advertised for sale a piece of property, the G. G. White residence, that would make an ideal hospital. By actual count there is from twelve to fifteen people from Paris and Bourbon county in the Lexington and Cincinnati hospitals nearly all the time, and we believe if one was here it would be filled constantly, for there are many that would patronize one at home that do not go to any now. Our doctors are the best that can be found anywhere on earth, and it is strange that they do not take some interest in this matter. The money invested by the city and others in the Public Library would have done a great deal more good for humanity and the citizens of this city and county if it had been put into a hospital. We are not against libraries, but we think Paris needs a hospital far more than a Carnegie library.

Paris Boy a Hero.

Clay Sutherland, the 19-year-old son of Mrs. Wannabelle Sutherland, of this city, who is a cadet in Kentucky State College, at Lexington, committed an act of almost unprecedented heroism in that city Tuesday. While running to a fire the hook and ladder wagon struck an obstacle and threw the driver to the ground. The driverless horses dashed on with the wagon through the crowded streets. Sutherland jumped on the wagon, and striding one of the horses he gathered up the lines and succeeded in stopping the runaway team. The heroic act of this young man no doubt saved the loss of human life, for no telling what damage the four high-strung horses would have done if they had not been stopped. We are proud of you, Clay.

The Clay-Washington Wedding

We take the following from Newport items in yesterday's Enquirer: "The marriage of Mr. E. F. Clay, Jr., of Paris, Ky., nephew of the late Cassius M. Clay, and Miss Anna Lee Washington, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. George Washington, was very quietly celebrated last night at the residence of the bride's parents on East Fourth street. Rev. Dr. Robert Nelson officiated in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. The wedding presents were very rich and beautiful. At the conclusion of the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Clay left for the East, where they will spend their honeymoon, and upon their return will make their home near Paris, Ky., where Mr. Clay has a large stock farm."

Will Close Monday.

My clothing store will be closed on Monday on account of Yom Kippur, a Jewish holiday. TWIN BROS., L. WOOLSTEIN.

Negro Burglar Captured.

Jim Smith, colored, of Pine Grove, Pa., was doing a little burglarizing in the Kiserion neighborhood and got landed. On Wednesday, he broke into the residence of Bud Hutchinson and Sunday into Jim Kiser's store. He was caught and arrested by Hutchinson, who telephoned to county officials, "shall I bring him to jail or hang him?" The officials answered: "Use your own judgment." Bud used very bad judgment and brought him to town and turned him over to jailer Judy.

Notice.

My butcher shop will be closed Monday on account of a Jewish holiday. Persons wishing meat on that day will please order day before and it will be delivered on Monday morning. H. MARGOLEN, The Butcher.

A Swell Line.

Mrs. Corne Watson Baird, the leader in fashionable millinery, has a very swell line of suit hats. The very latest thing for this season is for the ladies to have everything to match in their wearing apparel. Mrs. Baird desiring that Paris and Bourbon county ladies should not be behind the times ordered a most complete line of these suit hats. If you desire to have a hat to match your dress, call at Mrs. Baird's fashionable Millinery Emporium and you will find what you want.

PUBLIC SALE.—The G. G. White residence, which will be sold Sept. 24 contains 17 rooms; the place contains 61 acres of $300 land, which has had $40,000 worth of improvements put on it.

St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Sunday, Sept. 18, 1904.

Holy communion and sermon at 10:45 a. m. Evening prayer and confirmation at 7:30 p. m. The Rt. Rev. L. W. Burton Bishop of the Diocese, will preach at both services. In the evening he will administer the Rite of Confirmation. All are cordially invited to attend the services. The Rev. Robt. Caswell, lately called to the work in St. Peter's Parish, will take up his duties the first of October.

FINE FRUITS.—I have an elegant line of fresh California Fruits at all times. J. E. CRAVEN.

The Day Law Attacked.

In a petition filed in the United States Circuit Court at Covington, the trustees of Berea college attacked the constitutionality of the Day law, which was passed at the last session of the general assembly. This act prohibits the co-education of white children and negroes.

Accepted Call.

The Rev. Jos. S. Malone, of Baltimore, Md., has accepted the call as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, in this city, and will arrive to take charge October 1st. Mr. Malone was born at Cynthia, Ky. He is a good preacher and true type of the Kentucky gentleman. Mr. Malone has been from his native State many years and we welcome him back to his "Old Kentucky Home."

This is one instance where the preacher does not feel he is called to the church that gives the biggest salary, for Mr. Malone had the preference of accepting a call from a church that offered him $3,000 a year and one that only pays $800, and he has accepted the $800 charge. It looks to us, that in these days when the greed of gain is so rampant in the world, to find a man like this you have found one that will be a blessing to any community.

An Exciting Game.

One of the fastest ball games of the season was played yesterday afternoon between Paris Blues and Cincinnati Blue Licks, resulting in a victory for the visitors by a score of 7 to 3. It took eleven innings to decide the game and up to the eleventh the score stood 3 to 3, and the game had been exciting, but the home boys had to go up in a balloon and by errors gave the visitors four runs.

The same teams will play this afternoon and should be well patronized for they put up fast ball and we can guarantee that you will witness a first-class game. Swearingen and Dempsey will be the battery for Paris this afternoon. Paris will play the Cumminsville Blues, of Cincinnati, Sunday at Bacon's Park.
