A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.—W. T. Brooks.

Healthy Mothers.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Eosch's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and soothing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25c; large size 75c. At all druggists.—W. T. Brooks.

HENRY C. PAYNE DEAD.

The Postmaster General Expired Early Tuesday Evening.

Funeral Services Will Be Held in Washington Friday, After Which the Remains Will Be Taken to Milwaukee For Burial.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Henry C. Payne, postmaster general of the United States, a member of the national republican committee, a stalwart of his party, with the history of which both in his home state and nationally he has been identified for many years, died at his apartments at the Arlington hotel at 6:10 o'clock Tuesday night, aged 60 years. The death and its cause was announced in the following official bulletin issued by the attending physicians:

"The postmaster general died at 6:10 p. m. He died peacefully without a struggle. Cause of death was disease of mitral valve and dilation of the heart. (Signed) P. M. Rixey, G. Lloyd Magruder, C. T. Grayson."

Mr. Payne had been in poor health for at least two years, but his last illness covered only seven days, an attack of heart trouble last week precipitating the end at a time when, after a rest, he seemed to have recovered a small measure of his vitality, impaired by years of arduous labor. Death came after nearly six hours of unconsciousness.

The last official caller to inquire as to Mr. Payne's condition was President Roosevelt, and he had been gone only about ten minutes when the stricken member of his cabinet expired. Secretary Hay had called at the Payne apartments a few minutes before the president made his visit. Neither entered the sick room. As Mr. Roosevelt was leaving about 6 o'clock he spoke feelingly of Mr. Payne to the newspaper men gathered in front of the hotel as "The sweetest, most lovable and most trustful man I ever knew." Mrs. Roosevelt, accompanied by her brother, Capt. Cowles, also was a caller at the family apartments of the Paynes during the late afternoon.

Funeral services will be held at St. John's Episcopal church, this city, next Friday morning, and at 3:15 that afternoon the body will be taken to the Pennsylvania railroad station and placed aboard the private car of President A. J. Earling, of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, who tendered the use of the car and announced that it would be here by Wednesday morning. The remains should arrive at Milwaukee Saturday evening and services will be held next Sunday at the All Saints Episcopal church there.

PAYNE'S SUCCESSOR.

It is Probable That Mr. Cortelyou Will Assume the Duties.

Washington, Oct. 5.—In succession to Mr. Payne, George Bruce Cortelyou, former secretary of the department of Commerce and labor, and now chairman of the republican national committee, will become postmaster general about December 1. Mr. Cortelyou's appointment as head of the post office department was determined on several months ago by President Roosevelt when Mr. Payne indicated to the president his desire to retire from the department on account of the precarious state of his health. Mr. Payne would have resigned the portfolio long ago had it not been for the pending investigation of the affairs of the department. In the interim the responsibilities of directing the affairs of the post office department will evolve on Mr. Wynne.

dent Roosevelt, and he had been gone only about ten minutes when the stricken member of his cabinet expired. Secretary Hay had called at the Payne apartments a few minutes before the president made his visit. Neither entered the sick room. As Mr. Roosevelt was leaving about 6 o'clock he spoke feelingly of Mr. Payne to the newspaper men gathered in front of the hotel as "The sweetest, most lovable and most trustful man I ever knew." Mrs. Roosevelt, accompanied by her brother, Capt. Cowles, also was a caller at the family apartments of the Paynes during the late afternoon.

Around Mr. Payne's bedside at the time of his death was his devoted wife, Rev. Dr. Dunlap, pastor of St. John's Episcopal church; Maj. and Mrs. W. S. Cameron, of Jamestown, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Cameron, of Milwaukee; Charles L. Jones and Miss Louise Jones, relatives; Private Secretary Whitney, Miss Marie Barbieri, an old companion of Mrs. Payne's; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mason, of Washington, old time friends of Mr. and Mrs. Payne, and the faithful colored messenger at the department of the postmaster general.

When the postmaster general had breathed his last Dr. Magruder led Mrs. Payne out of the room. It was stated that she had stood up bravely under the heavy strain.

The last day had been one during which practically all hope had been abandoned for some hours. The approach of dissolution began during the noon hour when the sick man lost consciousness and no longer recognized those whom he had attempted to cheer during his illness by saying to them that he was all right. When Mrs. Payne saw that the end was near she summoned Rev. Dr. Dunlap, of St. John's Episcopal church, and at her request he read at the bedside of the dying man Psalm 130, "Out of the

BARTHOLDI DEAD.

The Famous Sculptor of "Liberty Enlightening the World" Passes Away.

Paris, Oct. 5.—Frederick Auguste Bartholdi, the sculptor, died at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning.

His American works, besides the statue of Liberty, include the figures of Washington and Lafayette decorating the Place des Etats Unis here, the Bartholdi fountain, in the botanical garden at Washington and the bronze group of the Leisures of Peace, in New York.

The Temps, of which Bartholdi was one of the directors, says the death of Bartholdi and Geromo removes the greatest of modern sculptors and relates how Bartholdi's statue of Liberty was the Apotheosis of France's role since the revolution, which led the French government to offer the statue to the sister republic as a pledge of fraternal devotion to Liberty.

IN A STREET DUEL.

A Milwaukee Man, a Bystander, Accidentally Shot.

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 5.—During a street duel here Tuesday between J. M. Chittim, known as the Texas Cattle King, and W. W. Jones, a cattleman and banker at Beville, H. S. Elwell, a traveling man of Milwaukee, Wis., chanced within range and was accidentally killed. The bullet, it is said, was fired from Chittim's gun. Chittim was placed in jail charged with murder. Elwell worked for the H. C. Miller Co., stationers of Milwaukee. From letters in his possession it appears he has a brother in Sheboygan. Neither of the participants was injured.
