Behind the Bars at Last.

Edward Callahan, Sheriff of Breathitt county, indicted jointly with James, Alex and Elbert Hargis for complicity in the murder of James Cockrill surrendered to the Jailer of Fayette county. He arrived from Breathitt unaccompanied by an officer. Before Judge Parker motion was made for bail for the Hargises and Callahan, and Monday, March 20, was set for hearing testimony and arguments on the motion. Magistrate James Edwards, of Jackson, died suddenly of heart trouble. It was Magistrate Edwards who issued the warrants charging the Hargis brothers and Callahan with complicity in the murder of James Cockrill. The proceedings of his court were declared void by the Court of Appeals on the ground that they were taken solely for the purpose of depriving Fayette county of jurisdiction.

He gave two drafts to the Phoenix National Bank, one for $200 and one for $50 which were returned to the bank with the statement that no such concern as the Southern Chemical Company was in existence.
