THE BOURBON NEWS.

To the Democracy of Bourbon.

PARIS, KY., March 25th, 1905. It had been my purpose to personally call on you and ask your support and influence in my candidacy for Circuit Judge, at the primary election to be held Wednesday, April 5th, but the business of the Court here is such that I now see that it is impossible for me to see you in person without neglecting my duties, and this I am not willing to do. I therefore take this method of addressing myself to your favorable consideration.

Hoping you can see your way clear to support me for the Democratic nomination for the remaining portion of the term, I am, Yours Truly, R. L. STOUT.

A Good Thing.

Mr. Lea C. Clarke, of Lexington, has been here for several days taking orders for the Gibbs Automatic Sash Lock, which is without doubt a good thing. Every part of the lock is made of cold rolled steel, so there is nothing to break or wear out. It is the only absolutely burglar-proof lock on the market. It locks both sash together and to the window casing at the same time and at any point, with window lowered or raised, so that a room may be ventilated and windows securely locked. This lock is made in Lexington and a carpenter follows Mr. Clarke to put them on your windows. This is undoubtedly the most secure lock for windows ever made, and for ventilating purposes it could not be improved on. When Mr. Clarke calls give him a hearing, for he has a good thing.

Insure with W. O. Hinton. He has the right kind of insurance.

Eggs.—We want your eggs, trade or cash. C. P. Cook & Co., 14tf 'Phone 207.

For Benefit of Elks' Band.

At the Cecilian recital at the Opera House, Thursday night, April 6th, an array of talent seldom heard in Paris will be presented. The noted soprano, Miss Flora M. Bertelle, will be heard. Miss Bertelle has one of the finest voices now before the public.

What the Louisville Herald says: "Miss Bertelle has a rare soprano voice, its quality being of the finest." Miss Bertelle has been offered time and time again, lately, chances to appear in Grand Opera, but she prefers the concert stage.

Another celebrity to be heard is Mr. Matthias Oliver, violinist. He has but recently returned from Europe, where he has studied under violin masters of the old world, and since his return has scored triumphs, one after the other. In the Hungarian Rhapsodie, by Hauser, which will be one of the numbers here, he appears at his best.

The Cecilian piano player will also be heard. This wonderful invention will be used to play the accompaniments.

Seats on sale at Borland's. Lower floor 50c, balcony 35c, gallery 25c.
