In the Circuit Court at Winchester Wednesday morning, Judge Benton overruled the motions of Felix Felner and B. F. French for a continuance of the cases against them for contempt. He said that the contempt cases would be tried at this term of court, even if the term should have to be extended; that as the case at Lexington, in which three other defendants under charges of contempt in the Clark Circuit Court are involved and by which a number of witnesses are detained, were disposed of he would assign the cases for trial.

OUR SPECIALTY.—Nice sliced ham and dried beef cut to suit the purchaser will be one of our specialties. 4-2t M. MARGOLEN.
