TUESDAY, JUNE 20, 1905.

BEST Cultivated Hemp Seed for sale. Will contract next year's crop hemp. E. F. SPEARS & SONS.

Sizzling in Kentucky.

Excessive heat prevailed throughout Kentucky Sunday and yesterday, the temperature being from 94 to 101. In the shade on Main street in Paris yesterday one of the best thermometers in town registered 102.

THE big Mill End Sale is now going on at Harry Simon's.

CANTELOPES on ice at the Sugar Bowl.

Lost By Small Vote.

Miss Sallie M. Clark, of this county, lost the trip, given by the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, to Europe by a small vote to Miss E. Gormly, of Lexington, the latter receiving 33,905, and the former 30,959. Miss Clark is one of Bourbon's most popular ladies and we, with a host of admirers, are sorry to chronicle her defeat.

NO ARGUMENT, the Walk-Over Shoe is the best.

FREEMAN & FREEMAN.

ATTEND Harry Simon's big Mill End Sale.

The Indians Win.

At Spears' Park, Sunday afternoon, a large crowd witnessed the game of baseball between the Nebraska Indians and Paris team, resulting in score of 19 to 4 in favor of Indians. A large number of ladies were present and owing to the extreme heat, several fainted, but were soon resuscitated. The Indians play to-day at Millersburg.

ATTEND Harry Simon's big Mill End Sale.

GET your soda water at the Sugar Bowl.

The Vagrancy Law.

Time and again we have called attention of the officials to the enforcement of the vagrancy law in this county, and as the grand jury is now in session we will again mention the act and see if these men won't take some steps that will result in the enforcement of this law. It has become so that it is almost impossible to secure servants at all in Paris and Bourbon county, and we believe that if those who won't work are made to work, it will have a good effect in this community.

Hot Weather Specials.

We have a beautiful line of thin coats and pants—just the thing for these hot days.

J. W. DAVIS & Co.

ATTEND Harry Simon's big Mill End Sale.

Eloped From Lexington.

Mr. Louis Martin and Miss Francis Howard, an eloping couple from Lexington, arrived here on the 4 o'clock interurban car Sunday afternoon and lost no time in locating County Clerk E. D. Paton, who issued them a marriage license. The Rev. J. L. Clark was then found and in the parlors of the Windsor Hotel pronounced the ceremony that made them husband and wife.

The groom is the son of J. N. Martin, of Lexington, while the bride is the daughter of H. C. Howard, of the same city.

LION BEER.—If you drink beer drink the best—call for Lion Beer and you take no chances.

Proceedings in Circuit Court.

Circuit Court convened yesterday morning pursuant to adjournment a week ago, with Judge R. L. Stout on the bench and Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin at his post of duty. The following cases were disposed of yesterday:

Chas. Parker, alias Ernest Roby, one year for malicious shooting and wounding.

Bud Warren, stealing turkeys, three months in jail.

Anthony Henderson, petit larceny, six months in jail.

French Williams, selling liquor to minors, $20 and costs.

William Marshall, suffering gaming, $200.

Connell Bros., of Millersburg, selling liquor to minor, fined $10 and costs.

PERSONALS.

Mr. Hearne was a first cousin of the late Mrs. Joe Fithian, and when quite young lived for a time with her parents, near North Middletown, this county. From a poor farmer boy he became one of the most prominent Cincinnati bankers. His last visit to Paris was to attend the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Dr. and Mrs. Wash Fithian, he being groomsman at the wedding. It was rather a coincidence that Mr. Hearne was taken with the same disease, sick the same length of time, dying on same day of month and his funeral on same day of month, as that of Dr. Wash Fithian just one year ago.

—Miss Sophia Ewalt is at home from Scranton, Miss.

—Mrs. Chas. Clark was brought to her home from St. Joseph Hospital Saturday night, greatly improved.
