There will be a celebration in the Park, at this place, on the evening of July 4th, consisting of orations appropriate for the occasion. Balloon ascension, fire-works, phonograph contest and foot-races. A prize of $1.50 for the winner of the foot-race for boys from 12 to 15 years; the same for boys from 8 to 12. Each phonograph or graphophone will be required to produce three selections, one band number, one vocal solo or chorus, one recitation; this contest will be submitted to three impartial judges, and the prize of $3 will be awarded by the judges to the one rendering the selections best; also a prize of one dozen cabinet size pictures by Grinnan awarded to the most popular young lady, everyone purchasing a ticket to the park entitled to a vote, voting to begin as soon as park is open. One or more eminent speakers will be secured for the occasion. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian Church will serve refreshments for the nominal sum of fifteen cents. The park will be brilliantly illuminated with Japanese lanterns. Everybody is promised a good time. Come and enjoy this outing in the park. Lay aside your cares and troubles for the present and in addresses let us go back to 1776. In the music and other attractions let us live not only in the present, but in the far distant future, as everything is possible for the people of Millersburg. Admission, adults 25 cents; children 12 years and under 10 cents. Exercises begin at 8 o'clock. If inclement weather, will be postponed until the following evening.
