

When Last Seen Was Clinging to The Rigging.

A telegram was received at Richmond, Saturday morning by Mrs. Mary Hume Chenault, sister of Will S. Hume, who was on board the Valencia, from E. S. McCord, of Seattle, Wash., which reads as follows: "I have just had an interview with John McCaffery, of West S. John, N. B., who was a passenger on the wrecked ship. He tells me that when he left the wreck, on the last raft, he looked back and saw Will Hume still clinging to the rigging."

Busy Grand Jury.

The Montgomery county grand jury adjourned Saturday evening after returning 65 indictments, including 16 for election offenses. A sensation was caused when it became known that Squire J. W. Henry, magistrate in Aaron's Run and Sideview precincts, had been indicted on charge of subordination of perjury. His son, Ernest Henry, was also indicted on the same charge. James McClanahan and Grover Cleveland were indicted on the charge of illegal voting. The jury also found a true bill against James K. Denton, a farmer of Bourbon county, on a charge of illegal voting.

MARRIAGES.

—Mr. Thomas Kerns and Mrs. Jennie Hornback, both of Bourbon, were united in marriage in the County Clerk's office Friday, Judge Denis Dundon officiating. This was the Judge's first wedding ceremony and it was a very appropriate one. We don't know what preacher he borrowed it from.

—Mr. Ernest Crouch and Miss Minnie Clinkenbeard, of Bourbon county, were married at the Beaumont Hotel, Mt. Sterling, Sunday evening. Both are popular young people of the Plum neighborhood.

Our 'Phone Is 4.

It is worth something to enjoy the pleasure of supreme satisfaction. The man whose shirt, collar and cuffs are laundered at the Bourbon Steam always enjoys this experience. For clean, artistic finish, and promptness in calling for and delivering their work, the Bourbon Steam Laundry is unexcelled. 26-3t

Waddy Bank Catches a Parisian.

The Bank of Waddy, at Waddy, Ky., with a capital of $15,000, has closed its doors. The closing of this little bank was precipitated by Mr. Hardin Rucker, of this city, who has recently moved here from that place. Before coming here Mr. Rucker sold his little place for $4,500 cash, and deposited the money in the Waddy bank. Desiring to change his deposit to the Paris Deposit Bank he gave his check for that amount to Cashier McCarthy for collection. When it was sent to the Waddy bank there was not enough money on hand to pay the check. Mr. Rucker then employed Judge Dundon to get his money for him. After chasing through the country for several days Judge Dundon managed to get a little over half of the money for his client, and he was making it so hot for the cashier of the Waddy bank that he was compelled to close his doors. This was the savings of a life time by Mr. Rucker, who has a wife and six children, and it is to be hoped that he may yet get the full amount due him from the defunct bank.

Why We Have Cut Prices.

Our stock is immense. Spring goods are arriving and there is no place to put them. Therefore—every piece of Carpet or less than 40 yards —all dropped patterns of Furniture—all remnants of Wall Paper—every lot of Curtains of less than 4 pair are to be sold. It is to our interest to sell modern, dependable House Furnishings for very little money just now and we are doing it.
